A mother in Chelsea is looking for a live-in nanny for her 20-month old daughter. You will live in a townhouse with the mother and child, but have your own kitchen, bathroom, and bedroom.

Requirements Include

- Mandarin or Spanish speaking. It is fine if you don’t speak much English, and we will pay for you to learn English.
- Should be organized and disciplined, good at keeping structures and routines, but at the same time flexible and fun-loving. We aim for a no-stress environment where everyone is happy -- including you!
- You must love to travel and want to see the world. We will spend about half our time traveling in the US, Europe, South America, and a bit of Asia.
- Along with keeping the child’s routines (bathing, eating, diapers, and sleeping) you will mainly be playing and interacting with the child.
- You will cook healthy meals for the child to the mother’s specifications.
- CPR certified, or willing to take the class.
- Ability to use Google Calendar or willingness to learn.
- Tidy and organized.
- Non-smoker.

Duties/Responsibilities Would Include

- Full child care (feeding, bathing, dressing, cooking etc.)
- Bringing and picking up child from school.
- Taking child to park, dance classes, and museums.
- Light housekeeping and laundry related to care of the child, in collaboration with our housekeeper.
- Engage child in fun, creative, and educational age appropriate activities.

Qualities we are looking for:

- Patient and nurturing.
- Has lots of energy, playful, engaging, and creative, with a genuine love of children.
- Self-motivated, hardworking, and proactive.
- A good communicator.
- A team player, will work with a personal assistant and housekeeper.
- A stable emotional presence for the child.
- Excellent skills in planning/organizing.

Schedule
You can take three weeks paid time off in December.

If you are interested, please email a cover letter addressing some of the items above, plus a resume to secretary@sarahcone.com
