Experienced Staff Accountant (Midtown)

POS.com is a New York Based Technology Firm that Specializes in Retail Management Solutions with Offices in New York and Chicago. Our clients range from Nationwide Tier-1 Brands to Local Retailers.

This position will report to POS.com's Executive Team. This position requires organization, diligence, and grit to effectively support the company's growth.

This position is responsible for daily, weekly, and fiscal period accounting Reports and Tasks, including accounts receivable, accounts payable, fixed assets, prepaid expenses, reconciliations, and general ledger entries. This is an incredible opportunity for someone who wants to help a company grow and expand. Full-time

Pay/Salary: 50-65K/Year

Job Description:

Responsibilities Include:
Bank reconciliations for multiple entities
General ledger account reconciliations
Computing and filing sales taxes in multiple states
Accounting and business reporting for all financial periods closes
Handle AR and AP
Interface and partner with all internal staff and external entities to troubleshoot issues
Ad-hoc reporting requests

Requirements:

2+ years of professional experience
Comfortable managing large sets of data
Quickbooks Desktop version power-user
Excellent ability to collaborate and apply a cross-functional mindset
Interest in learning new accounting systems and other analytical projects
Mastery of Excel ability to create models to track metrics and documents
Bachelor's degree in accounting, Finance, or a similar area of study

Benefits:
Medical, Dental, and Vision benefits