Position title: Direct Support Professional (DSP)
The pay/ Salary (required by NYS): $16-$45 per hour, contingent on education level and relevant experience.
Schedule: Flexible, but usually after-school hours and/or weekends
The job description: As a Direct Support Professional (DSP), you will work with children and their families to provide resources and support, as well as strengthen daily living skills. Applicants can choose to work in our OWPDD program with individuals who have developmental and/or intellectual disabilities or in our HCBS program with individuals facing emotional difficulties and/or mental health challenges.
Requirements or qualifications: Applicants must be at least 18 years of age; legal to work in the US. Background checks required.
Lastly Benefits: N/A