

John Tobe is the Director of Capacity Building for the Asian & Pacific Islander American Scholarship Fund (APIASF). John builds partnerships with individuals, community organizations, foundations, and corporations to increase the number of and access to higher education for APIA students.

John also provides strategic advice to non-profits, corporations and governmental agencies. John also served for over 27 years as the Senior Strategist to the Embassy of Japan in Washington, D.C. His responsibilities included advising the Ministry of Foreign Affairs on federal, state and local politics; US foreign, security and defense policy; public relations; and diplomacy.

Among his many community affiliations, John is the vice chair of the National Japanese American Memorial Foundation (NJAMF), board member (and past president) of the DC Chapter of the Japanese American Citizens League (JACL), a board member of the Washington Japanese Heritage Center (Keisho Center), and co-chair of the Japanese American Network.