Wild Rice and Roasted Butternut Squash Salad

For the Rice and Squash:
1 cup dry wild rice
2 cups butternut squash, cubed
2 teaspoons extra virgin olive oil
salt and pepper, to taste

For the Rice and Squash:
Preheat oven to 400 degrees F.

In a medium saucepan, bring 4 cups of salted water to a boil. Add wild rice. Bring back up to a simmer, cover and cook until soften, about 45 minutes-1 hour.

While the rice is cooking, place butternut squash on a sheet pan lined with parchment paper and toss with olive oil, salt and pepper. Roast squash for 20-25 minutes or until browned around the edges.

Once the rice is done cooking, drain any excess water and fluff with a fork.

For the Dressing: juice of one orange
juice of one lemon
1/3 cup extra virgin olive oil
salt and pepper, to taste
2 tsp maple syrup or honey (optional)

For the Salad:
about 4 cups arugula, spinach or greens blend
1/2 cup walnuts, toasted
2 green onions, thinly sliced
1/2 cup fresh pomegranate seeds
large handful parsley, chopped

For the Salad:
Place cooled cooked rice and butternut squash in a bowl with the remaining salad ingredients (salad greens, toasted walnuts, green onions, cranberries and parsley). Toss with salad dressing just before serving.
