SHADOW THEATRE 2018/19 SEASON

The Comedy Company

by Neil Grahn
(World Premiere)
October 24 to
November 11, 2018

What's So Funny about Mud, Death and Machine Gun Fire?

An extraordinary true Canadian story of the members of the Princess Patricia's Light Infantry Division. Company members were asked by their commander to put together a comedy/musical revue to entertain the troops to boost morale. During some of the most difficult fighting of the war they would conceive, write and perform comedy sketches and musical parodies to lift the spirits of the soldiers. With the help of surprisingly realistic comedy scenes and startlingly pretty cross-dressing performances they become wildly popular. What inspires comedy and light entertainment when you are surrounded by death? A fictional recounting of an absolutely true story!

STARRING: Julien Arnold, Nathan Cuckow, Sheldon Elter, Jesse Gervais, Steven Greenfield, Andrew MacDonald-Smith, Nick Samoil DIRECTOR: John Hudson

In commemoration of the 100th anniversary of the end of World War I

Lungs

by Duncan Macmillan
March 13 to 31, 2019

The world is getting hotter, there's unrest overseas—the seas themselves aren't very calm—and one couple is thinking about having a child. Lungs is a smart and funny drama that follows a couple through the surprising lifecycle of their relationship as they grapple with questions of family and change, hope, betrayal, happenstance, and the terrible pain that you can only cause the people you love.

STARRING: Chris Bullough, Beth Graham
DIRECTOR: Jon Lachlan Stewart

"Duncan Macmillan's distinctive, off-kilter love story is brutally honest, funny, edgy and current" The Guardian (UK)

Vanya and Sonia and Masha and Spike

by Christopher Durang
May 1 to 19, 2019

Winner of the Tony Award for Outstanding New Play 2013

Middle-aged siblings Vanya and Sonia bicker and pine about the dashed dreams and squandered hopes of their lives in the sunny Morning Room of the family farmhouse in Bucks County, PA. When their movie-star sister, Masha, suddenly swoops in with her new boy-toy, Spike, old resentments flare up, eventually leading to threats to sell the house. Joined on the scene by their prophetic housekeeper Cassandra, and a dewy aspiring actress named Nina - whose youthful prettiness troubles Masha's precariously propped-up vanity - they prepare to attend a neighbor's costume party and the stage is set for a giddy farce on Chekhovian themes.

STARRING: Rachel Bowron, Coralie Cairns, Jamie Cavanagh, John Sproule, Davina Stewart, Michelle Todd DIRECTOR: John Hudson

"deliriously funny... a heedless good time." NY Times

Miss Teen

by Michele Riml
(World Premiere)
January 23 to
February 10, 2019

From the author of Sexy Laundry

When her awkward daughter inexplicably wins the local Miss Teen Pageant, a struggling single mother seizes the opportunity to improve her family's difficult circumstances. Determined to help her daughter succeed, she resorts to increasingly desperate measures, even as the glare from the spotlight threatens to expose her eccentric methods and tear the family apart.

STARRING: Patricia Cerra, Kristi Hansen, Emma Houghton, Emily Howard
DIRECTOR: John Hudson

Miss Teen is a funny, tender play about class, success and the bonds of family.
