Big Mouth Society Mainstage Series Presents:

LOST | FOUND: a concert

Join the musicians of Big Mouth Society at The Hallowed Halls for LOST | FOUND, a concert of exquisite vocal and instrumental chamber music.

We sing to life’s inevitable challenges: loss, grief, abandonment, fear, loneliness. What does a group of 14th-century Sephardic Jewish women have to say about the pain of losing someone? And how does it differ from a 17th-century aristocrat’s deepest longing for an unavailable love?

We sing to life’s joy and solace: friendship, music, companionship, nature. This portion of the program will feature two world premieres and several exciting contemporary compositions.

Every BMS program celebrates diversity of viewpoints and discovery of rarely-heard music. Come hear a full array of instruments and colorful voices performing compositions by Guillaume de Binchois, Emma Lou Diemer, Emily Lau, Claudio Monteverdi, Palestrina, J.S. Bach, Edward Elgar, Eric Whitacre, anon. Sephardic women, and more.

Join Emily Lau and all the artists on the program after the concert for wine and conversation.

**************

May 3rd, Friday 8PM

The Hallowed Halls
4420 SE 64th Ave.
Portland, OR 97206

**************
Big Mouth Society offers all tickets to our performances on a pay-what-you-can basis, so that everyone can come celebrate the beauty of art and life. We encourage patrons to pay what they consider is equivalent to their one-hour wage.

Advanced reservation is highly encouraged as there are limited seats at our venues. Get your tickets today at www.big-mouth.org