

Teacher Training Program

SEX EDUCATION INITIATIVE

APPLY FOR FALL 2017

A multi-day, fully funded Teacher Training Program on Sex Ed will be held at Teachers College, Columbia University this Fall 2017 (October-December). Participants will receive a core skills training on Foundations of Sex Ed along with a focus on Intentional Pregnancy and Parenting (IPP). Local and national leaders will share lessons learned from the field and its application to NYC schools via a panel discussion open to the public. Vouchers will be included for additional instructional materials. Deadline for early applications: 9/20/2017

At the end of this training, participants will be able to:

- Reflect on how their own values and histories affect their teaching of sex education
- Effectively engage students' future-orientation around pregnancy postponement & family planning
- Purchase customized instructional materials for further trainings
- Apply for Continuing Education Credit
