Full of Wonder

A DREAM COME TRUE

Creating this collection has been nothing short of a dream! These paintings have been on my brain for a while, but I was waiting for the right time to paint such special, jovial artwork. When I found out that we would be expecting our first child this summer, I knew I had to get started creating this adorable collection.

Have you experienced moments where everything seems too good to be true, somewhat surreal, or something like it's straight out of a storybook?... Have you ever then feared something happening to wreck such bliss?

Throughout my journey to motherhood, this has been a frequent feeling. However, I try to actively appreciate the joyous, light-hearted feeling, instead of thinking it's naive and bracing for impact. While I know there will be challenges, I pray that I can relish and appreciate each moment of motherhood and celebrate this incredible gift. I would love to teach my child to cherish these small treasures, but something tells me that he or she will teach me more on enjoying the small, everyday moments.

While painting this collection, I tapped into my best child-like sense of happiness and imagination. I'd think, what would a child love to see... more confetti? Yes! A giraffe with t-rex arms playing the saxophone? Absolutely! An elephant floating by in a hot air balloon? Definitely! It has been a blast getting creative with these amusing pieces.

My goal for these paintings is that they inspire a sense of light-hearted innocence and conjure the inner child in all our hearts; transporting you somewhere magical, like a scene from a storybook.

Up, Up, and Away

MEANT FOR A LIFETIME

How incredible would it be to begin life, learn, and grow in the presence of a beautiful, whimsical original artwork? A painting that you'll one day see in the background of all of your childhood memories! I created each painting in this collection to become a classic; a piece that grows in step with your baby and then becomes an heirloom that can be passed down to your baby's baby.

While all of the paintings would look precious in a nursery or child's room, some of the paintings were designed with hanging in a living room or playroom in mind. In my opinion, we could always add more child-like innocence and fun to our every day!

A COLLECTION TO INSPIRE THE CHILD IN ALL OF US

They All Asked for You

BY CASEY LANGTEAU JOHNSON

36" x 60" ORIGINAL PAINTING

$6,000

This festive painting is my interpretation of the jazzy song "They All Asked for You", which describes Audubon Zoo animals and Cajun favorites calling out for the children to join in on the fun. I depicted the zoo animals marching in a second line, riding a New Orleans streetcar. I loved adding tons of fun throughout the piece. Some of my favorite details include: the "King" of the jungle regally sitting at the top as a king of a parade would, the rightfully appointed jazz instruments, and the tortoise and the hare racing behind the streetcar in tune with a bow-tie decorated penguin who plays a violin. This imaginative piece will inspire playfulness and add charm to any space!

Noah's Ark

BY CASEY LANGTEAU JOHNSON

36" x 36" ORIGINAL PAINTING

$4,500

This special painting is based on the bible story of Noah and details from Genesis 9:8-16. The dove, representing The Holy Spirit, leads the bow of Noah's ship with 2 of each creature stowed within. I painted a stormy sky on the left and a rainbow on the right to signify the hardship of the past, and the hope and glory to come. This is an uplifting and spiritual piece that will be cherished by the whole family!

It's a Wonderful Ride

BY CASEY LANGTEAU JOHNSON

36" x 36" ORIGINAL PAINTING

$4,500

This dreamy painting features a few of my favorite zoo animals rotating on a pastel palette carousel while other animals whimsically float away by hot air balloons. There are so many unexpected, silly details to admire, like the bunny hanging on to the balloon's banner as her family's ears flop over the side of the basket and the spring garden covered in butterflies, bees, and dragonflies. This piece is an illustration of playtime -- full of imagination and joy!

Storyland

BY CASEY LANGTEAU JOHNSON

40" x 40" ORIGINAL PAINTING

$4,500

This piece is inspired by City Park in New Orleans, but I really wanted it to look like a scene out of a storybook. Some of my favorite calming and imaginative childhood memories are of exploring City Park so I wanted this piece to exude that tenderness. Even today, the park continues to be a huge source of joy and inspiration within my life and work. A print of this painting is already hanging above our baby's crib. I'm really looking forward to showing him or her the beauty and wonder found in our local park. My favorite aspect of this piece, with its fantastical and idyllic, southern landscape, is its ability to transform different spaces and grow with those who collect it!

Born on the Bayou

A DIPTYCH BY CASEY LANGTEAU JOHNSON

(2) 24" x 48" ORIGINAL PAINTINGS

$5,500

This set of two is soft, simple, and southern. The painted light seeps in from behind the cypress trees, as delicate moss and graceful egrets dance across the scene. This diptych may spark a love for nature in your little one's nursery and will bring a sense of soothing peace to any room in your home.

This subtle, bayou-inspired gator painting can be hung vertically or horizontally and pairs perfectly with the "Born on the Bayou" diptych. The lazily swimming gator is heavily-textured and glows with a neutral color scheme, which would be the perfect southern addition to any space!

See Ya Later, Alligator

BY CASEY LANGTEAU JOHNSON

24" x 48" ORIGINAL PAINTING

$2,800

Adventure Awaits Set

SET $3,900

While trains, planes, and boats are a classic nursery theme, I wanted this set to be a unique take with a dream-like setting. I designed the pieces to look beautiful with any decor and to easily grow with the child into adolescence. Your little one will drift away to dreamland with this neutral and calming set!
