American Royal Equine Entry Requirements

In order to maintain the integrity and biosecurity of the American Royal equine events and facilities, all Equus must provide the following documentation upon entering the American Royal property. All showing, non-showing, haul-in, or stabled Equus must provide health documentation. Failure to do so may result in the inability to enter the respective equine show until proper certification has been obtained or removal from the American Royal facilities.

Upon arrival to the American Royal facilities, all Equus must provide the following to the show office. Competition numbers will not be issued until the following information is provided:

Event Participation Declaration – See Page 2

- This document must be signed by the owner, agent, or trainer stating that the horse has been healthy with no sign of disease and has not had a fever above 102° within 72 hours (3 days) of arrival. Participation in multiple shows requires a signed Event Participation Declaration for each individual show at the American Royal. The Event Participation Declaration can be found at the end of this document, online at americanroyal.com, and in the show prize list.

Proof of Equine Health Documentation

- All Equus must provide the following documentation to the show office, regardless of state of origin.
 - 30 day Health Certificate issued by a veterinarian
 - Negative EIA (Equine Infectious Anemia) test results (a Negative Coggins)
- Failure to present these documents to the show office will result in proper testing by the American Royal Official Equine Veterinarian at the expense of the horse owner. The cost of testing will be $85 at a minimum. Horses may be quarantined until a vet inspection is completed.
- Please keep a copy of all equine health documents in an easily accessible spot during the duration of the show. Random equine health checks will occur. Any horses showing questionable signs of illness are subject to examination by the Official Equine Veterinarian and/or show officials who then have the authority to place the horse in quarantine or take further action if necessary.
