Refunds - Refunds will not be given for any reason

Substitutions

- If a veterinarian statement is received by show management stating that a horse is no longer able to show, the owner will be allowed to substitute another horse in the same classes originally entered. The substituted horse must be owned by the same person who made the original entry.

Rules and Regulations

- Classes will be judged in accordance with AQHA & NSBA rules as written in each association's official rulebook. This includes all class and equipment rules.
- All horses are subject to drug and/or tail testing. Any failed test will result in an automatic disqualification from the class. Any awards, titles and prize money must be returned immediately.
- No person shall treat any horse in a cruel or inhumane manner, including, but not limited to, the prohibited conduct specified in the AQHA and NSBA Handbook. Cruelty to horses included in this prohibition, as it indicates a general course of dealing with horses that is unacceptable.
- Every horse shall always be treated humanely and with dignity, respect, and compassion. Abuse is defined as an action, or failure to act, which a reasonable, prudent person, informed and experienced in the customs, accepted training techniques and exhibition procedures, or veterinary standards would determine to be cruel, abusive, inhumane, or detrimental to the horses' health.

WEC: Health Requirements:

Please bring the following health documents to the Show Office upon arrival.

- A 14-day statement of health, certificate of Veterinary inspection or a health certificate, required for all horses arriving from in-state or outside of Florida.
- Coggins within one (1) year.
- Vaccine records of Flu/Rhino within a span of six (6) months.
- All health papers will be checked prior to unloading horses from the trailer. Any non-showing horses must also provide all health papers as listed above. Exhibitors must have health papers checked in order to receive a back number. Visit Wec.net for any updated requirements and health and safety protocols.

Final Decision—Decisions of the judges will be final

Disputes

- Any dispute as to the operation of classes, matters of protocol, procedures in drug testing, show management issues and all other issues shall be decided by the show manager in consultation with show producers. The show manager's decision shall be final and considered acceptable to all exhibitors.

Conflicts

- Any conflicts between arenas will be handled as long as arena managers are made aware.

Scoring

- A minimum of three (3) judges in each NSBA class will be used. In classes with 3 judges, all placings/scores will be kept. In classes with four (4) judges, the low will be dropped. The Hunter Derbies will feature two (2) judges. Keep in mind the 4 AQHA judges, may differ from the NSBA judges.

Payback

- Payback will follow the payback schedule as listed below.
- The number of places paid is based on the number of fully paid entries and not the number of horses shown.
- All purses are guaranteed.
- NSBA Jackpots – paid off those entered in the Dual/Approved classes only as marked by 'NSBA *Jackpot.' Each class is $25/each. Twenty-two ($22) of each entry will be jackotted. Paid on NSBA scale. An example – 10 entries x $22 = $220. Paid – 1 – $74.80, 2 – $59.40, 3 – $44, 4 – $22, 5 – $19.80. These Dual/Approved classes are for AQHA registered horses only.
