

MEMPHIS FELLOWS

Welcome to the 2020-21 Class of Fellows! The Fellows Program is an intensely practical nine-month spiritual and vocational leadership program that prepares the Fellows to live a seamless life of faith. The program includes a part-time job in fields of interest, biblical coursework, Bible study, mentoring, and service. All of this takes place in community within the context of the local church. This is our 16th class of Fellows at Second Presbyterian Church!

Michelle Barnett attended the University of Tennessee where she received a degree in Hispanic Studies. She is originally from Cincinnati, Ohio, and is excited to become a Memphian! Michelle is looking forward to the biblical coursework and Christian Worldview class. She will be working at Esperanza Church and will be mentored by Nancy Foster. Michelle's adoptive family will be Matthew, Lauren, and Mary Steele Gant.

James Boone is from Murray, Kentucky, and graduated from Murray State University with a degree in Finance. In his free time, he enjoys pickup basketball, thrifting, reading, and watching the NBA. He is grateful for the opportunity to spend his first year out of college surrounded by people who care about his relationship with Christ and want to invest in his future. James will be working in the 2PC Recreation Department. His adoptive family will be Brandon, Rachel, Blake, Andrew, and Evan Hammons, and he will be mentored by Jimmy Edwards.

Rebecca Byrd grew up in Summerville, South Carolina, and she recently graduated from Wofford College majoring in Biology and minoring in History. She loves baking and exploring coffee shops. Rebecca is most looking forward to growing in Christian community with the other Fellows and in the workplace. She will be working at OrthoSouth. Her adoptive family will be David, Brittany, Austin, Miller, and Maggie Spence, and she will be mentored by Sandy Eggers.

Ariel Chavers is a native Memphian, and she recently graduated from Rhodes College with a major in Psychology. She loves to dance, read, and watch movies. Ariel is looking forward to walking alongside the amazing nine others who are also in the program and building a life-long bond with each of them. She will be working at Le Bonheur Children's Hospital. Ariel's host family will be David and Lee Bowen and she will be mentored by Anna Jenness.

Seth Fink grew up in Springfield, Illinois, and he attended Southeast Missouri State University. He received a degree in Graphic Design. Seth enjoys listening to indie music and playing soccer. He is looking forward to being invested in by the local church. Seth will be working at Monogram Foods. His adoptive family will be Brian, Roberta, Jack, Charlie, and Laura Eason, and he will be mentored by Daniel Pouget.

Kaleigh Holt is from Lawrenceburg, Tennessee. She recently graduated from the University of North Alabama with a degree in Social Work. Kaleigh hopes to grow this year in knowledge, wisdom, and understanding of God's Word. She enjoys exploring outside, a good book, and nice cup of coffee. Kaleigh's adoptive family will be Garrett, Courtney, Sam, Coco, and Rett Davis, whom she will also be working for. She will be mentored by Rachael Miller.

David Huh is from Portland, Oregon, and graduated from Boston University with a degree in History and a minor in Classical Civilization. He loves to read, watch sports, and play strategy games. David really looks forward to growing in his faith and knowing God more. He will be working at Builders VC. David's adoptive family will be Frank and Sandy Eggers, and he will be mentored by Eddie Foster.

Nick Kokoropolous grew up in Dayton, Ohio, and he attended Rhodes College, receiving a degree in Greek and Roman Studies. He loves playing guitar, reading and playing basketball. Nick hopes to grow in his knowledge of God's word, to serve more actively in the church, and ultimately, to fall more deeply in love with Christ. He will be working for the Salvation Army. Nick's host family will be Sam, Lacey, Archer, Mary Hudson and Walt Moody and he will be mentored by Reid Wesson.

Yasmeen Phillips graduated with a Criminal Justice degree with a minor in Political Science from Middle Tennessee State University, and she is from Nashville, Tennessee. She loves maps, Memphis football, burgers, exercising, and laughing.

Yas is excited to grow through having a community of people pushing her closer to Christ daily. She will be working at My Cup of Tea and the YMCA. Her adoptive family will be Ryan, Stacey, and Eleanor Hays, and her mentor will be Maddy Bobango.

Kevesha Snow is from Olive Branch, Mississippi, and she received her Engineering Management degree from Christian Brothers University with an emphasis in Packaging Concentration. Kevesha hopes to grow in her understanding of God's Word, especially as to how it applies to the world today. She will be working at the Bryce Corporation. Kevesha's adoptive family will be Chad, Rachel, Anne-Faith, Chase, and Frankie Bennett, and she will be mentored by Cathy Housholder.

Fellows Steering Committee

Kem Wilson, Chairman; Jonny Ballinger, Work Placement Chairman; Larry Higginbotham, Admissions Chairman; Barton Kimbro, Pastoral Liaison; Todd Erickson, Christian Worldview Teacher; Vicki Simmons, Speaker Series Chair and TFI Board Member; Deborah Coleman, Director

Fellows Committee

Jonny Ballinger, David Bowen, Gil Brandon, Cole Criddle*, Conner Davis*, Danny Donovan, Marissa Duarte*, Rogelio Duarte, Mary Edwards, Todd Erickson, Larry Higginbotham, Camille Holmes, Morgan Hoog, Tyler Hoog*, McKee Humphreys, Audrey Hurst*, Jordan Jeffers*, Drew Kimberlin*, Barton Kimbro, Isaac O'Hare*, Rachael Miller*, Debbie Perkins, Chase Presson, Emalea Rieckhoff*, Kelsey Rivers*, Christina Roberts, Brian Schneider, Tee Shipmon, Grace Simmons*, Vicki Simmons, Susan Washam*, Reid Wesson*, Clayton Williams*, Delaney Williams, Kem Wilson, Norma Wilson (*Memphis Fellows alumni)

Keep Up with the Fellows!

Facebook: Memphis Fellows at 2PC

Instagram: @memphisfellows2pc

Twitter: @2pcfellows

Website: memphisfellows.com

Email: fellows@2pc.org