Join us to learn how you can help birds thrive right where you live by making your yard more bird-friendly. Take a tour with Matt through the new rain garden and visit the new interpretive signs around the Adriana Hess Audubon Center. Matt will also discuss Tahoma Audubon Stewardship and the continued efforts to connect people with nature.

The question and answer session will be facilitated as an open discussion and social hour. Let's catch up and talk about birds!

Please register: [Registration Link]