SCRIPTURE READING

Pray and ask God to illuminate his Word. Then, read the below passage(s) of scripture out loud.

“This is my commandment, that you love and unselfishly seek the best for one another, just as I have loved you.” John 15:12

SCRIPTURE REFLECTION

Choose one of the questions below to answer in relation to the above scripture passage(s).

- What did you notice about this passage(s)?
- What did this passage(s) teach you?
- How are you challenged to live differently?
- How can you apply this passage(s) to your day-to-day life?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- Talk about a situation when you were truly grateful. How did you show your gratitude?
- In your own words, describe what gratitude and thankfulness should look like.

- Fred De Witt Van Amburgh said, "Gratitude is a currency that we can mint for ourselves, and spend without fear of bankruptcy." If you live a life marked by gratitude, you will never go bankrupt where it truly matters. Describe how that truth should affect your day-to-day life.

TALK IT OVER WITH KIDS

- Think about and share some of the things you are grateful for—family, friends, games, food, etc. Why are you so thankful to have those things in your life?
- What does it mean to be thankful for something?
- How can you be sure to show gratitude and thankfulness in your life?
