OF EVERYTHING

A multi-tiered wedding cake is the central focus, resting on a silver, ornate stand. The cake has five tiers: the top tier is covered in white lace, the second tier is plain white, the third tier is decorated with a large white ribbon bow and a small floral decoration, the fourth tier is plain white, and the bottom tier is also plain white. The cake is set on a round silver tray with several lit tealight candles. The background shows a restaurant or banquet hall with tables covered in white cloths, white chairs, and several black candelabras with lit candles, creating a warm and elegant atmosphere.
