

Design for Sustainability

COLLOQUIUM

Professor Gail Brager

Fall 2017 Arch 242 1-2 units
Friday, 10-11am 112 Wurster

Credit earned with required attendance, and a final poster exhibition (1 unit), and additional writing assignments (2 units).
Everyone is welcome to attend the lectures without enrolling.

Aug 25 Gail Brager

Professor and Director, Center for Environmental Design Research
Design for sustainability: an introduction

Sep 1 Lisa Matthiessen

Principal, Urban Fabrick
Drawdown: a holistic look at climate catastrophe mitigation

Sep 8 Chris Pyke

Chief Strategy Officer, Acclima
Disrupting the disruptors: evolution of green building in the era of Big Data

Sep 15 Naomi Porat

Principal, Alpha Group
The case for prefab modular multifamily housing

Sep 22 Fred Clarke

Senior Design Principal, Pelli Clarke Pelli Architects
Humanizing infrastructure: The Salesforce Transit Center and Tower

Sep 29 Bill Leddy

Principal, Leddy Maytum Stacy Architects
Designing for change

Oct 6 Stephen Engblom

Senior Vice President and Global Director, AECOM Cities
What's next in making cities resilient?

Oct 13 Michelle Frey

Executive Director, Urban Land Institute
The messy and transformative path of collaboration

Oct 20 John Klopff

Principal, Klopff Architecture
Modernizing midcentury moderns: recycling homes for a new generation

Nov 3 Liz Ranieri

Design Principal, Kuth Ranieri Architects
Harnessing resiliency

Nov 17 John Straube

Associate Professor, University of Waterloo
The role of building science in sustainable building design

Dec 1 Poster Exhibition

