TRACK 101

Building Communities of Care: A Conversation on Creating Affirming Spaces for DREAMer Students
Presented by Reyna Anaya, Ph.D. candidate, University of Northern Colorado; and Fabiola Mora, M.A., Colorado State University, Ft. Collins
This session will focus on defining the idea of Communities of Care. Specifically, participants will dialogue and learn about practices that validate DREAMer student experiences from an intersectional perspective. In addition, resources will be shared with participants on current higher education practices in Colorado that support DREAMer students from a Community of Care lens.
Sturm Hall 233

Colorado ASSET 101
Presented by Diana Madriz, M.A., Denver Scholarship Foundation
This introductory session will cover the history of the Colorado ASSET legislation and its immediate impact on our student population, providing the attendee practical understanding of the law and its application. Increase your understanding of student ASSET eligibility, and next steps in their college enrollment process.
Sturm Hall 234

Educator's Impact: Supporting DREAMers in K12 & Lessons Learned
Presented by Jeanette Rojas, M.A, CollegeTrack
An introduction on how educators can build a culture of solidarity in their communities. Leaning on a thought-partner, explore DREAMer scenarios to establish best practices from lessons learned in the field when supporting undocumented students.
Sturm Hall 124
