ALL HAIL KING GEORGE

From Apothecary to Kingpin, George Remus created one of the most intricate, successful bootlegging operations of Prohibition.

George Remus Bourbon captures the rebellious spirit of that era with a hint of vanilla, a maple aroma and a sweet-yet-characteristic rye flavor.

“ INCREDIBLE BOURBON!

AROMAS OF PEACH AND BROWN SUGAR EXUDE FROM THE GLASS ON THE FRONTLINE, AND THE NUANCES OF BAKED APPLE, CINNAMON, AND JASMINE TEA ARE COMPOSED AND ELEGANT. THE PALATE IS RESTRAINED, EVEN AT A PROOF OF 94. COCOA-POWDERED PEARS, CAKE BATTER, AND FINE CEDAR WOOD ARE SLIGHTLY PEPPERED-EVEN WITH A FLECK OF GINGER-MAKING THIS SPIRIT WARM AND EXACT.

A TASTE 170 YEARS IN THE MAKING

IT BEGAN IN 1847, IN LAWRENCEBURG, INDIANA,
WHEN A SMALL DISTILLERY PRODUCED ITS FIRST
TWO BARRELS OF HANDCRAFTED RYE USING A BLIND HORSE TO POWER ITS GRIST MILL. THE RYE WAS BOLD, WITH A SATISFYING SPICINESS.
IT WAS A TASTE THAT WOULD MAKE "WHISKEY
CITY" THE RYE CAPITAL OF THE WORLD.

TODAY, FROM THE VERY SAME BANKS OF
THE OHIO RIVER, ROSSVILLE UNION IS BRINGING BACK THE GOLDEN AGE OF RYE.
OUR CRAFTSMEN HAVE SPENT NEARLY 200
YEARS PERFECTING THE UNIQUE BLENDS THAT ALL BUT DISAPPEARED DURING PROHIBITION.
THIS IS RYE MADE THE WAY IT'S SUPPOSED
TO BE. NEW AMERICAN CRAFTSMANSHIP -
WITH THE SOUL OF 1847.
