
Volunteer Agreement and Release of Liability

I acknowledge that my services to PATH Santa Barbara in the Volunteer Program will be voluntary and I understand that I will be a volunteer and not an employee for Worker's Compensation claims as provided in Section 3353 of the California Labor Code, or any other reason. I acknowledge that I will not be able to assert a claim for Worker's Compensation benefits should I suffer an injury during the performance of my volunteer/community service duties. I agree to assume all risks connected with my volunteer/community services. I further agree to release PATH Santa Barbara, its director, associate director, employees, volunteers or persons related to director from any and all liability, claim, demand or cause of action or litigation arising out of personal injury, illness, death or property damage that I may suffer while performing volunteer/community service work.

Initial

I further agree that I will not name, or have named, any of the parties mentioned above as defendants or cross-defendants in any litigation arising out of my volunteer/community service work. I further agree that I will save and hold harmless these parties from any other claims, demands and causes of action or litigation arising out of said services including but not limited to actual damages, general damages, punitive damages, attorney fees and cost suit.

Initial

By volunteering with PATH Santa Barbara, volunteers agree that they will not disclose or use any of PATH Santa Barbara's confidential information, either during or after their time volunteering. PATH Santa Barbara sincerely hopes that its relationship with its volunteers will be long-term and mutually rewarding.

Initial

PATH Santa Barbara insists on the highest ethical standards in conducting its business. Doing the right thing and acting with integrity are the two driving forces behind PATH Santa Barbara's great success story. When faced with ethical issues, volunteers are expected to make the right professional decision consistent with PATH Santa Barbara's principles, standards, and the 6 pillars of character - Trustworthiness, Respect, Responsibility, Care, Fairness, Citizenship.

Initial

Refusal to sign this release will result in my exclusion from participating in the Volunteer Program at PATH Santa Barbara.
