GPGC create special foods for Rosh Hashana
Instructions

There is a custom on Rosh Hashana (the Jewish New Year) to eat special food representing different blessing and good wishes that we express to one another. In the following slides are a number of examples. As a GPGC, make a time to have a special Rosh Hashana feast with these foods and share the special blessings with each other or your whole family!

Here are a few websites where you can explore more together about this custom:

Before eating apple: May it be Your will, God, to renew for us a good and sweet year.

What would make this coming year extra sweet?
May it be your will, God, that enmity will end.

What can we do to bring more love into the world?
Pomegranate

יְהִי רָצוֹן מִלְפָּנֶיךָ שֶנִּהְיֶה מְלֵוִים מִצְוֹת כָּרִמּוֹן

May we be as full of mitzvot (good deeds) as the pomegranate is full of seeds.

What new good deeds can we do this coming year?
Fish head
(you can also use a gummy candy or fish shaped cracker 😊)

ימי רצון מלפכיך תהיה לארץولا לשב"כ
May it be Your will, Lord our G-d and the G-d of our fathers, that we be a head and not a tail.

In what way can we be a leader this coming year?
Your turn!

Be creative and come up with your own!
