The collage features several watercolor paintings: a bouquet of yellow and purple flowers, a modern building, a field of white daisies, a still life with red peppers, a woman in a purple dress, a landscape with a river and mountains, and an outdoor cafe scene.

Twenty-three of our members had their water media paintings on exhibit.

Jeannie McPherson set a soothing mood as crowds of art lovers poured through the gallery.

Hunter brought mom & grandma to check out the West Wing. Hunter pointed to Art (Arthur G Rivers) and said, "Da Da." On First Fridays, 'Art' hangs out in the West Wing.

Our First three sales flew out the door just after we opened. Congratulations to Marti Lytle, Rebecca Bassett and Marilyn Weaver. Also sold was Rebecca's beautiful Gourd.

Welcome to membership! Wayne and Carol Loranger who joined the gallery as a family. Carol paints with the Tuesday Water Media group. She is not ready to show at the gallery but wants to help participate as a docent.

In the social room is Russ Hepler who just returned from Phoenix, Arizona where he checked out the art galleries in hopes of selling his art in the desert. Next to Russ is Terri Timpe, wine server and Gallery Treasurer.

SOLD! Marisa Moritz sold her watercolor to Dr. Sander who shared an office with her at the clinic. Dr. Sander's husband Dr. Tom Dillian found the painting in the West Wing. Marisa said she will replace it with a new watercolor on Sunday when she is the gallery docent.

Margaret Bryant joined the gallery tonight and is showing us one of her paintings.
She will exhibit some of her paintings on cigar boxes.
She and her husband Michael Bryant have been visitors and art buyers of the gallery for years and decided to share their own work with the community via Two Rivers Gallery.

Warren Bissonnette shares his ceramic experience with Brian Murray who is taking notes as an assignment. His college teacher, Ruth Allan, sends many of her students to the gallery to study clay and ceramic art.

Warren has finished another of his classic ceramic dragons. Perhaps he will create more since this is the 'Year of the Dragon.' Warren also shows an album that he purchased from this evening's musician, Jeannie McPherson.

Russell and Valorie Schwaberow attended tonight to meet up with friend Margaret Bryant. Valorie picked up a membership form and will join at our painting change-over the last Sunday and Monday of February. Russell and Valorie were both Link coach drivers and are friends with other former drivers Barbara Bainard and Jan Theriault.

Steve Schwind is showing one of the 27 attendees of his most recent 'Sip and Paint' class he taught. Steve will be our featured artist in December and says he enjoys teaching art to people who have so much fun creating a painting.

Three Watercolor Artists who are always at the gallery, make it a fun event for the community.
Thank you Terry Johnson, Adelle Johnson and Carole Hiatt.
Come see the work of the other members of the Watercolor Society.

The annual show will continue through February 24.

Our next First Friday event will feature the oil and acrylic paintings of Dean Rainey.
