

Martin Herchenröder

Raindrop Toccata

For David Higgs on occasion of his 60th birthday

2017

Duration: c. 5 min.

© Martin Herchenröder 2017

Raindrop Toccata was composed on the occasion of David Higgs's 60th birthday, and is dedicated to him.

It is conceived for any two-manual organ with pedals and thus may also be played on a Baroque instrument as it respects the range of the old organ compass (C/D – d1 / C/D – d3). Its tonal language works with well-tempered temperaments as well as with the modern equal temperament.

Raindrop Toccata

(Winkelmusik III)

Martin Herchenröder

Man. II: Fl. 8'

Man. I: Fl. 8'

$\text{♩} = 112$

pp

p

2

3

4