THE IVY

The Ivy wreathed door
Meant welcome this year
Its final embrace
Is fast drawing near.

Under Ivy’s protection
In fair and foul weather
We worked and we laughed
Through our problems together.

Within Ivy walls
With good teachers to guide
May the lessons of high school
Long with us bide.

Leaving Ivy behind
Our bright future calls,
We’ll never forget
Those green covered walls.

When we say “Farewell”
With sorrowing heart
’Tis Ivy we’ll long for
When we must depart.

DEDICATION

We, the Ivy class, 1962, of Jamaica Plain High School, are honored to dedicate this, our yearbook, to three sincere and beloved teachers.

Miss Marion Driscoll B.S. spent thirty-five years as Home Economics teacher at Jamaica Plain High School. Her personal devotion to the hundreds of girls whom she instructed and inspired through the years has won for her the respect and admiration of the entire Jamaica Plain community. An outstanding example of Miss Driscoll’s cooperation with her students has been, for many seasons, the Annual Fashion Show, an entertaining and informative activity.

We bid a fond farewell to Miss Driscoll upon her justly earned retirement.

Cornelius J. O’Leary, B.S.B.A., M.C.S. During his twenty-six years of Jamaica Plain High School, Mr. O’Leary has prepared many boys and girls for careers in the business world. For several years he was coach of our basketball team and chairman of the program committee, tasks to which he gave his utmost ability. Jamaica Plain High School wishes Mr. O’Leary the greatest success in his new appointment at Hyde Park High School.

Miss Mary Sullivan A.B., taught English and Latin at Jamaica Plain High School for the past fifteen years, after having served at East Boston High during the earlier years of her career. A sincere and sympathetic teacher, she has guided many students, both boys and girls, by her thorough understanding of young people. Jamaica Plain High School will be ever indebted to Miss Sullivan for her devoted years of service to the youth.

HEADMASTER'S MESSAGE

For me, the graduation of the class of 1962 has a special significance. While it marks the commencement of a new and promising phase in the career of each graduate, it also marks the end of a long phase of my own life—one particularly enriching. For, among the graduates are a number who were my pupils in English and Latin—the last of the boys and girls with whom I shared the familiar and rewarding experiences of the classroom. It is natural, therefore, that I shall remember the Class of 1962 in a special way.

For this reason, too, the symbol of the ivy, adopted by the Class of 1962, has particular meaning. The ivy clinging to the facade of our school building shall continually remind us of the loyalties that school life inspires—loyalties to the ideals of faith, home, school, community, and country. These loyalties, inculcated and nurtured by the unselfish service of devoted teachers, will, if practiced, fortify us in all our endeavors and enrich our lives.

May the hardiness of the ivy characterize our attitude toward the vicissitudes the future inevitably has in store for each of us, and may its longevity be a token of continuing and increasing success for each member of the Class of 1962 as the years go by.

EDWARD F. BRICKLEY
Headmaster

TO MR. BRICKLEY AND THE MEMBERS OF THE FACULTY

We the members of the Ivy Class of 1962, welcome this opportunity to express our deepest and warmest appreciation to not only Mr. Brickley, our Headmaster, but to all the members of the faculty of Jamaica Plain High School. All of you have, by your unselfish efforts, given us the background, coupled with a true impression of our future duties, responsibilities, and objectives for the long years to come. It is our sincere feeling that with this guidance, we are most favorably equipped to start out in either a business or a college life.

We hope, too, that throughout the years to come, the sturdiness and genuine symbolism of the ivy, which the class of 1962 has adopted, will continually remind us of the ideals which each of you have instilled in us. May we, as products of your untiring efforts, be prepared to continue our own "climb in life" while following a pattern set by our chosen theme, 'The Ivy'.

CLASS WILL

We, the Ivy Class of Jamaica Plain High School, situated on Elm Street, Jamaica Plain, being of relatively sound mind, hereby bequeath the following articles real, imaginary, and otherwise to the faculty we are regretfully leaving behind us in the castle on the hill.

Mr. Brickley: a book entitled "Confucius Say."
Mr. Barry: an extra large Hop-a-long Cassidy lunch box.
Mr. Bond: a senior class of prominent lawyers.
Mr. Boyle: a cannon to insure that every energetic typist will stop at the end of their timings.
Miss Bruno: we leave a John Doe to replace her Johnny Jones down the street.
Miss Buckley: a student body of quiet bibliophiles.
Miss Crosby: a year's supply of pins and needles.
Mr. Crowley: a kitchen unit and the competent assistance of Hazel for his mid-morning snacks.
Miss Dempsey: a pair of orchestra tickets for every play in Boston.
Mr. Donaghy: a supply of "Prayers" for his loquacious students.
Mr. Duffy: music piped in direct from the Peppermint Lounge to enliven his classes.
Mr. Dugan: one day upon which all pupils will be on time, "Graduation Day!"
Mrs. Farley: a fire escape leaving 307 to 310.
Miss Forte: a blinking neon sign, "Paint children, don't scrub."
Miss Galvin: another talented E8 class.
Mr. Good: a yearbook staff with at least three station wagons.
Miss Hennessey: a large file cabinet to keep her class work in order.
Miss Hubbard: pupils who will use only one piece of paper.
Miss Hurley: consolation prizes for pupils whose acting is not up to par.
Miss Kelly: supply of chocolates for her champion bowlers.
Mr. Landrigan: a choice between either the Democratic or Communist Party.

Miss Margaret Maguire: a Winchester repeating sling shot for use in obtaining the Clarion and Yearbook funds.
Miss Marie Maguire: we leave a kiddie kart so that she will be able to get to her future RAG classes on time.
Miss McCarthy: a princess style phone for her office.
Miss McCourt: a sign reading "Good morning" to save wear and tear in erasers.
Miss McGuckian: a Spanish class that knows the difference between this (este) and that (ese) or is it that (este) and this (ese).
Mr. McCue: a portable freeze unit for the convenience of the hockey team.
Mr. McKenney: a rubber stamp for his notorious passes.
Mr. Mealy: a misconduct slip for chewing gum and a new graph.
Miss Mullin: a book entitled "Why you should not change your classes."
Colonel Murphy: a team of New York Giant rejects.
Miss O'Connell: we leave Miss O'Connell leaving us at 2:00 for her Council Meeting.
Miss O'Malley: a hand painted portrait of President Kennedy.
Miss Phillips: $10,000 worth of advertising for the Clarion.
Mrs. Quinn: a "hurdy gurdy" and a performing monkey for her lunchroom collections.
Miss Russell: pills for every purpose to cure her sick pupils.
Miss Thompson: a flower a day to break the monotony.
Miss Thyne: an automatic book opener so she can turn to the right page right away.
Miss Varsos: a fiddle for her folk dancing classes.
Miss Walsh: a gold trimmed door with her name engraved on the knob.
Mr. Wendler: roller skates to save wear and tear on his shoes during lunchroom duty.

MISS THOMPSON
When you graduate it’s wonderful to have a telephone job waiting for you. You’ll love the friendly new people you meet. And you’ll like the excellent salary, the regular increases, the opportunities for advancement and the many additional benefits that make working for the Telephone Company so attractive to so many young people.

Telephone jobs are important ones. We have our own training program which you can enter without any previous job experience.

Why not come and see our employment interviewer soon ... before you graduate. Ask the Guidance Counselor at your school to tell you when and where to apply.
