RULES AND REGULATIONS - 4-H LIVESTOCK SALE

1. Each 4-H member may sell one healthy, sound animal, 1 steer (beef or dairy), 1 lamb, 1 hog, 1 Champion Pen of rabbits, 1 Champion poultry entry (broiler pen or individual broiler), and 1 meat goat. In order to sell an animal, the 4-H'er must have exhibited the animal in a market class.
2. Steers will be weighed for class divisions on Sunday, August 5, 2018 at 7:30 A.M. Steers will be graded at the tie-out rack at 9:30 A.M. on Sunday and will be tagged at a time to be announced. Only the Grading Committee is allowed in the grading area for steers.
3. Hogs will be weighed immediately following the steer weigh-in. The time for drawing sale numbers for the hogs will be at 1:30 p.m. Each 4-H member must draw his/her own sale order numbers for all species. Exceptions may be granted for a legitimate 4-H function but must be pre-approved by the Chairman of the Livestock Sale Committee prior to any of their weighing, grading, and sale number drawing.

4. Market Lambs and Market Goats will be weighed for class divisions Saturday, August 4th - 7:00 p.m. Lambs will be graded at 12:00 noon on Sunday. Market Goats will be graded after the lambs on Sunday. Each 4-H member must take his/her individual lamb/goat to the grading area and remain with it until it has been graded. Each 4-H member must draw his/her own sale order numbers for all species. Exceptions may be granted for a legitimate 4-H function but must be pre-approved by the Chairman of the Livestock Sale Committee prior to any of their weighing, grading, and sale number drawing.
5. It is expected that once you have designated an animal for the sale that it is sold through the sale. Any 4-H'ers who withdraws a sale animal after selection will not be permitted to sell the following year. Exceptions will be at the discretion of the Sale Committee.
6. Each 4-H member must take his/her lamb, steer, hog, rabbits, goat, and/or broilers into the Sale Ring. No adult may lead or accompany an animal into the Sale Ring. Specified showmanship outfits must be worn by 4-Hers when taking animals through the Sale Ring.
7. Animals must meet the following weight criteria for the sale: Goats 50 - 125 lbs, Lambs 95 - 145 lbs., Hogs 230 - 290 lbs., Steers 1000 - 1450 lbs, Dairy Steers 1000-1600. There will be NO reweighs. Animals will be allowed a 1% tolerance. Rounding to the standard mathematical procedures. (hogs 228 - 293, beef steers 990 - 1465, lambs 94 - 147, goats 49 - 126, dairy steers 990 - 1616 - no exceptions) Animals below the minimum weight granted the 1% tolerance will be sold at their actual weight. Animals over the maximum weight granted the 1% tolerance will be sold at the maximum weight allowance. Animals outside of the tolerance are not eligible for the sale. Lambs, goats, hogs, and steers will be selected for the sale by impartial graders chosen by the sale committee. Meat goats and small animals sell by the lot.
8. The Grand Champion Individual Market animals must sell. The Reserve Grand Champion steer, lamb, hog, meat goat, broiler pen, individual broiler, and rabbit meat pen are optional. All of the above are exempt from sale weight restrictions.
9. Announcements from the auction block take precedence.
10. All animals must be shown in their market class to sell.
11. A 3% commission will be charged on all beef sold and 5% on all other livestock. Animals being taken for processing will be transported by the Sale Committee appointed haulers only. All resale animals will be sold as a group to predetermined buyers.
12. 4-H exhibitors selling animals in the sale will be responsible for the purchase of two pictures (buyer & seller) for each lot sold. Cost will be deducted from the sale check. Cost of banners for buyers of Champion Rabbit Meat Pen, Champion Broiler Pen and Champion Individual Broiler will be deducted from the sale check. Exhibitors of the Grand Champion and Reserve Champion Individuals and Pairs (beef, sheep, swine, goat, rabbit and poultry) will have the cost of 1 banner deducted from the sale check. The Howard County Fair Board will purchase the second banner. All banners will be purchased by the fair board.
13. 4-H'ers selling small animals are responsible for processing and delivery to the buyer within 30 days of sale night. Checks will be held until delivery.
14. Beef, sheep, and swine check off money will be deducted from the exhibitors sale check.
