RIEEA is a collaboration of organizations and individuals passionate about Rhode Island’s environmental future. Together, we are collectively supporting and helping one another reach our professional goals by developing and sharing resources that make the work of environmental education easier. If you teach about or advocate for the environment, RIEEA is your resource hub!

With your support, we are boldly hoping to create the next generation of environmental champions!
Benefits of Being a Member

- Professional Development Scholarships
- Exposure for your organization through RIEEA’s social media channels
- Monthly RIEEA newsletter
- Ability to post your events and news on the RIEEA website
- Ability to post job openings, professional development opportunities and more on the RIEEA website
- Display your organization at events and conferences hosted and attended by RIEEA
- Discounts on RIEEA sponsored events
- Opportunities to network with other individuals and organizations passionate about environmental education
- Access to resources offered by organizational members
- Training and workshop opportunities
- Professional development program opportunities
- AND MORE!

Connect with Us!

Visit RIEEA.ORG