

2021 PERSONAL INCOME TAX CHECKLIST

Dear Client/Friend:

February 2022

If we prepare your personal income tax return(s), please complete this checklist and return it to us along with all of your tax information. We are able to work most efficiently when you organize your information and complete the relevant schedules legibly. Please do not detach slips from supporting information and, in particular, investment slips from the supporting documents provided to you by your financial institution.

If you prepare your own return, use the checklist to assist you in gathering/summarizing your information. Feel free to pass the checklist on to a friend who could use some help too. You can download a copy from our website at www.bdca.ca, by clicking on the "Communications" tab.

Remember to retain all the documents, cancelled cheques and other data that form the basis of your income and deductions. These may be necessary to prove the accuracy and completeness of your tax return to the Canada Revenue Agency ("CRA").

FILING DEADLINES: April 30, 2022 unless you or your spouse have self-employment income, in which case you have until June 15, 2022. Late filing penalties are 5% of your 2021 balance owing plus 1% of the balance for each full month your return was filed after the deadline to a maximum of 12 months. If you filed late in earlier years, CRA may charge you 10% + 2% per month.

 - ... interest paid on student loans borrowed through the Canada Student Loans Act, Canada Student Financial Assistance Act or similar provincial program.

- ★ Details of capital gains and losses realized on the sale of investments during 2021 (including statements from your investment advisors summarizing trading activity in the year). It is critical that the adjusted cost base be provided to ensure that the capital gain or loss can be calculated correctly. Your adjusted cost base is ordinarily the original price paid for the investment, including commissions, if applicable. For certain investments such as income trusts and mutual funds, it is reduced to the extent of any distributions treated as a return of capital and increased by the amount of any taxable distributions received since the investment was acquired.

Please contact your investment advisor/financial institution for this information if you do not have complete records. Alternatively, you can provide us the name/phone number of your advisor and authorize them to speak with us directly.

- ★ Details of previous capital gains exemptions claimed, business investment losses and cumulative net investment loss (CNIL) accounts.
- ★ If you disposed of property during 2021 and realized a financial gain, the gain may be exempt from tax if the property is designated as your principal residence. Provide the year of acquisition and sale proceeds of the property on Schedule 4. We will have further questions for you.
- ★ Details regarding RRSP Home Buyer’s Plan withdrawals and repayments.
- ★ Receipts for 2021 income tax instalments.
- ★ Details of carry-forwards from prior years, including unclaimed losses, donations or RRSP contributions.
- ★ If you would like your tax refund deposited directly into your bank account and have not previously registered for direct deposit, provide us with a void personal cheque or your bank’s institution and branch numbers, plus your account number (not required if you have previously provided us with this information).
- ★ The National Register of Electors is used at the start of federal elections to create voters lists and to send information cards to electors with the details of where and when to vote. The information contained in the Register is subject to strict privacy controls, and is used only for electoral purposes.

The Elections Canada consent section on your 2021 tax return contains two questions: one asks for the tax filer’s citizenship status to determine his or her eligibility to vote; the other asks for consent to transfer that person’s information to Elections Canada. Both questions must be answered “yes”, or Elections Canada cannot update the tax filer’s information. This means that the tax filer’s name may not appear at the correct address on voters lists at the next federal election and that the person will be required to contact Elections Canada to update his or her information. Please advise us how to complete the following questions on your behalf.

1. Are you a Canadian citizen? _____ Yes _____ No
2. Provide information to Elections Canada? _____ Yes _____ No

★ TOSI (Tax on Split Income)

Did you earn any of the following types of income? _____ Yes _____ No

- a) Non-public corporation taxable dividends and shareholder benefits
- b) Partnership income derived from a related business*, or a rental where a related person (excluding separated spouse/partner) is involved.
- c) Trust income derived from non-public corporation taxable dividends/benefits, a related business*, or a rental where a related person (excluding separated spouse/partner) is involved.
- d) Indebtedness/loan interest income from non-public corporation, partnership or trust.
- e) Income or gains from dispositions of non-public shares or other property with historical TOSI.

*Related business generally means any business in which a related person is involved or directly/indirectly owns 10% or more. However, separated spouses/partners are deemed not related for the year. If you answer yes, we will have further questions for you.

UNINCORPORATED BUSINESS INCOME & EXPENSES

(Sole Proprietorship/Partnership)

Please note: This form should only be completed if you are carrying on an unincorporated business. If your business is subject to GST/HST, include the net expense (amount excluding HST) in column 1 and separately disclose the amount of HST in column 2. For example, if you incur an expense of $113 which includes HST, you will include $100 in column 1 and $13 in column 2.

If your business is not registered for GST/HST and you therefore do not need to segregate it in your accounting records, complete column 1 only by inserting the gross expense amount (amount that includes GST/HST) and leave column 2 blank. Using the same example as above, you will simply include $113 in column 1.

Did you receive the Canada Emergency Business Account ("CEBA") loan during the year? Yes No
 If yes to above, please provide the CEBA loan amount received during the year _____
