SERVICE AND POLICY SUMMARY

The Duty of Fair Presentation

It is your responsibility to provide a fair presentation of the insurance risk based on you conducting a reasonable search for information. This could require you to obtain information from senior managers within your organisation or other parties to which the insurance relates or who carry out outsource functions for your business. You must disclose every material circumstance which you know or ought to know, or failing that, disclose sufficient information to put your insurer on notice that it needs to make further enquiries. You must ensure that any information you provide is correct to the best of your knowledge and representations that you make in expectation or belief must be made in good faith. If you fail to make a fair presentation of the risk this may result in additional terms or warranties being applied from inception of the policy or any claim payment being proportionately reduced. In some cases, this could result in your policy being declared void by an insurer and your premiums returned. Any deliberate or reckless breach of the duty of fair presentation could result in your policy being declared void by an insurer with no refund of premium.

If in doubt about any point in relation to material circumstances and reasonable search, please contact us immediately.

Policy Cancellation

Please contact us to notify of any cancellation. If you cancel your policy within the first 14 days of cover, or within 14 days of you receiving confirmation that cover is in place, whichever is the latest, we will provide you with a full refund of premium and your policy will be cancelled from inception. If you cancel after the first 14 days of cover, your policy will be cancelled from the date we receive your instructions and we will refund a proportionate part of the premium corresponding to the unexpired period of insurance. If a claim has been made against the policy, then any costs paid to you in respect of the claim will be deducted from the amount of premium rebate due. Commercial customers, who have agreed to the terms of the Two-Year Agreement, waive any right of cancellation.

Solvency of Insurers

We cannot guarantee the solvency of any insurer with which we place business. This means that you may still be liable for any premium due and not be able to recover the premium paid, whether in full or in part, should an insurer become insolvent.

Client Money

We act for the insurer in collecting premium which means that your insurance is treated as having been paid to the insurer as soon as we receive it.

Notification of Incidents/Claims

Please notify us immediately of all incidents that may result in a claim against your insurance policy.

Communications/Documentation

We will issue all documentation to you in a timely manner. It is therefore important that the documentation is kept in a safe place, as you may need to refer to it or need it to make a claim. A new policy/policy booklet is not necessarily provided each year, although a duplicate can be provided at any time upon request. If documents are issued by electronic means or via an internet portal, paper documents are available free of charge on request.
