Teaching Artist

The Museum of Latin American Art (MOLAA) in Long Beach, CA seeks contract art instructors to teach classes to visitors, ages 6 and up, through our School Tour and Workshop Program. This is a contract position, coordinated through the Department of Education at the Museum of Latin American Art.

Workshops take place Wednesday-Saturday beginning at 10 a.m. in one or two hour sessions. Instructors must be available on Wednesday, Thursday or Friday between the hours of 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. Limited workshops are available on weekends. Art Instructors are contracted as needed.

Compensation:
- $35 per one hour session
- $45 per two hour session

Knowledge /Skills/Experience Required:
- Degree in Art or equivalent experience.
- Experience teaching art at any level.

Additional Skills:
- Bilingual in English/Spanish is a plus
- Background or knowledge of Modern/Contemporary Latin American Art is a plus

The Museum of Latin American Art (MOLAA) in Long Beach, California is the only museum in the western United States that exclusively features contemporary Latin American art. The museum is located in the East Village Arts District of Long Beach, California and is easily accessible via public transportation.

MOLAA’s mission is to expand the knowledge and appreciation of modern and contemporary Latin American art through its Collection, ground-breaking Exhibitions, stimulating Educational Programs, and engaging Cultural Events.

Apply today!
Applicants may forward a current CV, cover letter and digital samples of their art work to Anya Miramontes in the Department of Education: amiramontes@molaa.org