

“From one man he made all the nations, that they should inhabit the whole earth... God did this so that they would seek him and perhaps reach out for him and find him...” Acts 17:26

God is calling us to reach out to the nations with His love and the Gospel of Christ – come learn, share and experience ways to reach the world next to you.

- Learn how the Gospel of Jesus can become Good News to your Muslim neighbor, friend or co-worker
- Discover relational ways to speak biblical truth into a spiritually pluralistic Asian culture to narrow the focus to the Gospel of Jesus
- Engage with practical approaches to impact Hispanic culture and move past the formality of religion to the reality of a relationship with Jesus

Speakers:

Aslam Masih was born and raised in Pakistan, the second largest Islamic country in the world. The Lord led him to serve as a church planter in the United States among new immigrants from India and Pakistan and has led an established church as Pastor for over a decade. Aslam has been instrumental in the developing and deploying of over 70 church planters among Pakistanis, Asian Indians, Arabs, Iranians, Bangladeshis, Nepalis, Ethiopian, Nigerians and other people groups.

Jeremy Sin grew up in Hong Kong and became a Christ follower in his college years. He earned his graduate degree in theology and doctoral degree in pastoral ministry. He has pastored churches in China, California and Georgia. He presently serves as a developer of church planting among Chinese and many different Asian people groups in North America and Canada. He engages regularly in leading Bible Studies and translation through his proficiency in English, Mandarin and Cantonese.

Ramón Osorio is native to Honduras. Following a career in education and business leadership, Ramon pursued church planting in Honduras and Kentucky. His experience and ministry tenure among Hispanic people has positioned him to be the Hispanic National Mobilizer for the North American Mission Board. His passion for the church is to mobilize church members to live with Gospel purpose and make the Good News known wherever they live, work, learn and play.
