The Campaign for the University of Oxford

The DCM Programme in the Faculty of Theology and Religion

Your donation will play a vital role in enabling The DCM programme in the Faculty of Theology and Religion to sustain its activities with Oxford's postgraduate students, postdoctoral staff and faculty who are considering how to integrate their Christian faith and their academic life. The programme aims to foster the development of a Christian intellectual community within the University www.dcmoxford.org.

I wish to support Oxford by giving to:

- ☐ The DCM Programme in the Faculty of Theology and Religion
☐ Another area*

- ☐ I'd like to receive information about leaving a gift in my will.

* Please specify

All gifts are processed by the University of Oxford Development Trust Fund (OUDT). If your wish is to support a college, OUDT will transfer your gift directly to the relevant college. In all other cases, your kind income gift will be held in the specific OUDT broad-purpose fund which most closely corresponds to the area you wish to support. Please see overleaf for further details.

- ☐ Please include my name and donation on University donor listings.

We'll send you updates about your donation via post, including the impact you've made and any other appeals that may be of interest to you. If you'd also like to hear from us via email, please tick below. You can opt out at any time.

Yes, I would like to receive emails about:

- ☐ The impact of my donation to DCM
☐ Fundraising priorities for DCM

Gift Aid declaration (UK tax-payers only)

I would like the University of Oxford Development Trust Fund to treat this donation (and any other donations I may make from the date of this declaration until I notify you otherwise) as a Gift Aid donation. I understand that if I pay less Income Tax and/or Capital Gains Tax than the amount of Gift Aid claimed on all my donations in that tax year, it is my responsibility to pay any difference.

Direct Debit Guarantee

- This Guarantee is offered by all banks and building societies that accept instructions to pay Direct Debits.
- If you request University of Oxford Development Trust (OUDT) to collect a payment, confirmation of the amount and date will be given to you at the time of the request.
- If there are any changes to the amount, date or frequency of your Direct Debit, OUDT will notify you ten working days in advance of your account being debited or as otherwise agreed.
- If an error is made in the payment of your Direct Debit, by OUDT or your bank or building society, you are entitled to a full and immediate refund of the amount paid from your bank or building society.
 - If you receive a refund you are not entitled to, you must pay it back when OUDT asks you to.
- You can cancel a Direct Debit at any time by simply contacting your bank or building society. Written confirmation may be required. Please also notify us.

Gift Aid donations

If you are a UK tax-payer, you can declare that all donations made under your declaration should be treated as Gift Aid donations. Doing so maximises your gift: currently we can reclaim 25p for every £1 you donate at no further cost to you. Please consider a Gift Aid donation wherever possible. For details, please see: www.campaign.ox.ac.uk/giftaid.

Your declaration covers donations that you may make in the future. Please notify the University of Oxford Development Office if you change your name or address while the declaration remains in force, or if you cease to be a UK tax-payer. You may cancel the declaration by notifying the Development Office. The declaration will not apply to donations you make on or after the date of cancellation or any specified later date. If you are unsure whether your donation qualifies for Gift Aid, we will be pleased to advise you. Please contact the Development Office at the address below.

Charitable status

Other than gifts for colleges, all income gifts will be held in one of the specific broad-purpose funds within OUDT. The gifts will then be applied in accordance with the purposes of the relevant broad-purpose fund. Details of the broad-purpose funds and their purposes can be found at www.admin.ox.ac.uk/trusts/oudt. Gifts to endowment appeals will be held in the relevant endowment fund on the terms of the appeal. Wishes expressed on this form will not give rise to new trusts or other legally binding obligations. Every gift will contribute towards the Oxford Thinking Campaign (www.campaign.ox.ac.uk).

The objects of OUDT are to promote, assist and secure the advancement of education, learning, teaching, scholarship and research at or in connection with the University of Oxford, its colleges and societies. The Trust Fund is administered by the University and established for a special purpose in connection with the University. It is therefore an exempt charity for the purpose of charity legislation. As such, it has full charitable status; albeit it is exempt from the requirement to register as a charity with the Charity Commission, and therefore does not have a Charity reference number.

Privacy notice

How we use your data

The personal data you provided on this form will be used by the University of Oxford to process your donation in accordance with our contractual and legal obligations, and to meet our legitimate interest of alumni and supporter engagement, fundraising and stewardship. We will use your data to: record information about your giving, including any gift agreements, memberships, or correspondence relevant to your donation; communicate with you about the impact of your donation and other appeals that may be of interest to you; and, record information about your willingness and capacity to support our charitable objectives.

To meet our legitimate interests above, we also store and share your data, such as your updated contact details, mailing preferences, and preferences regarding the external reporting of your donation. For full details of how we collect and process your personal data, see our full Privacy Notice.

Who has access to your data?

The data you provide will be shared across the collegiate University of Oxford, including its clubs and societies, in accordance with the University's policies and procedures via our shared relationship management system. You have the right to object to the processing of your personal data at any time. Colleges using our shared relationship management system and the University are both "data controllers" of your personal data, meaning you can either contact the University or your college if you have questions about your data.

We may also need to share your data with third parties supporting the processing of your transaction. We will only do this in appropriate circumstances, for specified purposes, by secure means, using the minimum amount of data necessary, and with the relevant data sharing agreements in place. We do not and will not sell your data.

How long we keep your data

We consider our relationship with our alumni, donors and supporters to be lifelong and we will retain most of your data indefinitely unless you request otherwise.

Your rights

You have the right to opt-out of direct marketing at any time. You also have the rights to request access to and correction or erasure of your data; to request transfer of your data to another party; or to object to the processing of your data or request that such processing is restricted.

The full details of our privacy information, including your rights, are set out in our Privacy Notice at www.campaign.ox.ac.uk/data-protection or you can request a hard copy from our Database team. If you would like to exercise your rights, opt-out, or are dissatisfied with the way we have used your information, please contact us at database@devoff.ox.ac.uk or phone +44 (0)1865 611530. The same email address may be used to contact the University's Data Protection Officer. If you remain dissatisfied, you may lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office at: www.ico.org.uk/concerns/
