

Wendy Turner

Dynamic Presenter
Social-Emotional Learning Expert
Award-Winning Educator

Wendy has made a career of bringing the heart back to education.

As a teacher, she emphasizes social-emotional learning, relationships, and empathy in order to help her students build strong foundations, sturdy connections, and meaningful learning. And if her selection as Delaware's 2017 Teacher of the Year is any indication, she's on to something good. She has partnered with Kristin Souers and Pete Hall, co-authors of Fostering Resilient Learners: Strategies for Creating a Trauma-Sensitive Classroom (ASCD, 2016) and Relationship, Responsibility, and Regulation: Trauma-invested practices for fostering resilient learners (ASCD, 2018), to provide professional development and consultation support to teachers, education staff, counselors, caregiving organizations, and families across the country.

Wendy is a passionate advocate for kids, for innovation, and the human condition. A frequent contributor to blogs, organizations, editorials, and conferences, she shares her wisdom, experiences, and creative approaches for meeting our students' varied and diverse needs.

"Wendy fills her students with knowledge, heart, and soul because she herself is filled with knowledge, heart, and soul."

Mark H., Superintendent

Currently a 2nd grade teacher in Delaware, Wendy has been honored with the Presidential Award for Excellence Teaching Science (2016), a No Kid Hungry School Breakfast Fellow (2017), and NEA Foundation Global Education Fellow (2018), among others. When she teaches (kids and/or adults), it's from the heart.
