

KIDSPPOINT

GROWING IN CHRIST

Helping Friends

Helping Friends is a ministry that provides for children who have physical and/or developmental challenges or for any child who struggles to participate fully in a classroom. Volunteers work one-on-one with your child within their class to give them the best experience possible for learning about the God of the universe and His truth and love for them.

Contact Libby Skillman (libby@lcfliberty.org) for more information.