A Hargis Family

by Descendants of Abraham Jr. Hargis

Generation No. 1

1. Abraham Jr.1 Hargis was born Abt. 1780 in North Carolina (Source: 1850 Marion Co., TN census.), and died Bet. 1860 - 1870 in Battle Creek, Marion Co., TN (Source: 1870 Marion Co., TN census.). He married Rebecca Floyd Abt. 1803, daughter of William Floyd. She was born Abt. 1787 in South Carolina (Source: 1850 Marion Co., TN census.), and died Bet. 1860 - 1870 in Battle Creek, Marion Co., TN (Source: 1870 Marion Co., TN census.).

Notes for Abraham Jr. Hargis:
From 3 sources we are told that Abraham Jr, the patriarch of the family in Marion County, was born in North Carolina: the 1850 Marion County census, the 1860 Marion County census and the biography of his grandson, Abraham Dallas Hargis, in the "Compendium of Biography" printed in 1898.

Evidently he had family ties to the Hargis clan in Person County, North Carolina. In a letter written Sept. 27, 1819 by Jeremiah Blackard of Franklin County, TN. to his uncle, William Hargis in Roxboro, Person County, NC, several names are added as if all these people are sending greetings to "Uncle William". Included in this list of names is Abraham Hargis.

A descendant of Abraham, James Cunningham, states he had been told that Abraham Jr. and Rebecca rode horses back to North and/or South Carolina to visit every year or so after they came to Tennessee until one of their children died while they were away and they didn't go back anymore.

It is possible Abraham was in Rutherford County, NC, Greenville SC, and the Pendleton District of South Carolina before migrating to Tennessee. There are several families, namely Box, Tubb, Gotcher, McElroy and Floyd, which are in these areas with an Abraham Hargis. These families are later in Franklin County where Abraham and other Hargis families settled in the early 1800's. It seems as if there was a mass migration.

It is likely Abraham and his family went briefly to Warren County, Kentucky before settling in Franklin County, TN. In a somewhat lurid McGowan vs. Hatfield trial in Coffee County June of 1844, "p.41 (paraphrased testimony) Abraham Hargiss says he became acquainted with Hatfield in about 1804 in Warren Co. Kentucky" and that "Witness was acquainted with Hatfield from the time of his marriage to 1814." Abraham's daughter, Mary, always stated on the census reports that she was born in Tennessee, but her daughter Nancy who married Samuel Thompson stated on both the 1880 and 1900 census of Marion County that her mother was born in Kentucky. Mary was born about 1810.

In the Franklin County 1812 tax list, there are 6 listings of Hargis tax payers: Abraham Hargess page 4, Abraham Hargiss, Abner Hargiss, Thomas Hargiss and John Hargiss page 5, and William Hargiss on page 8.

On July 21, 1812, in Deed Book A page 191, Abraham Jr. sold 59 acres of land located on the waters of the Elk River to William Tubb. We can be sure this is our Abraham for Rebecca Hargis also signed the deed. The attestators were Thomas Hargis and E. Floyd. The really interesting thing about this day is that an Abraham Hargis Sr. also processed a deed the same day. Abraham Sr. purchased 70 acres of land on the waters of the Elk River and the attestators are E. Floyd and Thomas Hargis.

Abraham was listed on the 1820 Franklin County, TN census. His household was composed of 1 male under 10, 1 male 10-16, 1 male 26-45 years old, 3 females under 10, 1 female 10-16 and 1 female 26-45 years old.

An Abraham Hargis is listed on the Marion County, TN. Land Entry Takers Book on May 5, 1824 as taking ownership of 24 acres of land on headwaters of Battle Creek.

On the 1830 census Abraham is in Marion County, TN. His household consisted of 1 male under 5 (David Floyd would have been 6), 1 male 15-20 (Abner would have been 16), 1 male 50-60 (Abraham would have been 50), 2 females under 5 (twins Sarah and Louisa would have been 1 year old), 1 female 5-10 (there was a child who died), 1 female 10-15 (Polly would have been 10), and 1 female 30-40 (Rebecca would have been 46).

From the Marion County deed records, in 1833 Abraham purchased 40 acres of land in Cave Cove from John W. Salmon. The deed reads: "This indenture made this sixteenth day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty three between John W. Salmon of the State of Tennessee and Marion County of the one part and Abraha (sic) Hargiss of the State aforesaid of the other witnesseth the said John W. Salmon for and in consideration of the sum of two hundred dollars to me in hand paid the receipt whereof I do hereby acknowledge hath bargained and sold and by these presents doth bargain, sell, alien, remiss and convey to said Abraham Hargiss a certain tract or parcel of land containing forty acres more or less situate lying and being on the head waters of Battle Creek in the Cave Cove being a part of a occupant held by said Salmon and Thos. Personally appeared before me William I Staandefer Clerk of the circut Court of said County, James Holley, Senr. and John W. Wooten subscribing witnesses to the foregoing deed, who being first sworn depose and say that they are acquainted with John "W. Salmon, the bargainer and that he acknowledged the same in their presents to be his act and deed upon the day it bears date.
Witness my hand this 19th day of May 1834.

Abraham is listed on the 1836 tax list for Marion County in District 10.

During the 1840 census of Marion County, Abraham's household consisted of 1 male 10-15 (David Floyd would have been 16), 1 male 50-60 (Abraham would have been 60), 1 female 5-10 (Anna would have been 8), 2 females 10-15 (Sarah and Louisa would have been 11), 1 female 15-20 (Polly would have been 20), and 1 female 50-60 (Rebecca would have been 56).

At the time of the 1850 census in Marion County, Abraham and Rebecca still have 2 daughters at home, Louisa age 20 and Anna age 17.
This census shows Abraham to have been born in North Carolina and Rebecca in South Carolina.

In the 1860 census Abraham and Rebecca are still in Marion County. He is 79 and "insane with old age" and she is listed as 70 years old. Again the census taker is told Abraham was born in NC and Rebecca in SC. They are living next door to their son, David Floyd Hargis, and other family members are very near.

As they are not in the 1870 census, we can conclude they have died and the biography of grandson Abraham Dallas Hargis says they were "laid to rest at Oak Grove, on Battle creek".

Notes for Rebecca Floyd:
Rebecca Hargiss was listed as one of the petitioners at the Union Primitive Baptist Church Book--whose name changed in 1834 to Sweeten's Cove Primitive Baptist Church-- for "letters of dismission from us for the purpose of Constituting a Church at the head of Battle Creek to go by the name of Oak Grove which was granted".

Burial: Oak Grove Cemetery, Battle Creek, Marion County, TN

Children of Abraham Hargis and Rebecca Floyd are:
+ 2 i. Thomas Hargis, born 21 Jun 1804; died 26 Dec 1871 in Marion County, TN.
+ 3 ii. Mary Hargis, born 1810 in Tennessee; died Aft. 1880 in Marion County, TN.
+ 4 iii. Margaret "Peggy" Hargis, born Abt. 1812 in Tennessee; died Bet. 1870 - 1880 in Marion County, TN.
+ 5 iv. Abner Hargis, born 1814 in Tennessee; died Aft. 1880 in Battle Creek, Marion Co., TN.
+ 6 v. Polly Hargis, born Abt. 1820.

Notes for Polly Hargis:
According to Mag Tate, Polly had a child out of wedlock. In her later years she was known as a family eccentric to the point that the family called her crazy. Supposedly she consorted with Billy Raulston at one time. Limmie Jane Braden laughed when she recalled that when the girls in the family were misbehaving they were threatened "You're going to turn out just like Aunt Polly." Buster Jackson recalled Polly was terribly frightened of thunderstorms.

She is buried at Tate Cemetery but there is no tombstone.

7 vi. Unknown Hargis, born Bet. 1810 - 1820.

Notes for Unknown Hargis:
According to James Cunningham, Abraham and Rebecca had a daughter who died on one of their trips to the Carolinas to visit family and they never went back again.

+ 8 vii. David Floyd Hargis, born 1826 in Tennessee; died Bet. 1883 - 1900 in Battle Creek, Marion Co., TN.

Generation No. 2

2. Thomas Hargis (Abraham Jr.1) was born 21 Jun 1804 (Source: Pigeon Springs Cemetery tombstone.), and died 26 Dec 1871 in Marion County, TN (Source: Pigeon Springs Cemetery tombstone.). He married Mary "Polly" Gunter Abt. 1825, daughter of Augustus Gunter. She was born 28 May 1804 (Source: Pigeon Springs Cemetery tombstone.), and died 13 May 1895 in Tracy City, Grundy County, TN (Source: Pigeon Springs Cemetery tombstone.).

Notes for Thomas Hargis:
During the 1820 Franklin County census, Thomas' father's household was listed as having a male 10-16 years old. This would have been Thomas.

Thomas served in the Florida War with the Al. MTD Vols. Mary's widow pension of Oct.18, 1892 was #WC-2344 TN.

From the 1830 Jackson County, Alabama census, it would seem Thomas and Mary moved across the state line into Jackson County for a few years. This was the time Jackson County sale of public lands was being done. There is a Thomas Hargis listed as being from 20-30 years old with 1 male under 5, 1 male 15-20, 2 females under 5 and 1 female 20-30 years old. These ages would be correct for Thomas and wife Mary, the two females under 5 would be correct for Jane and Rebecca, the male under 5 would be correct for William Lee, but the male between the age of 15-20 is unknown. The family would not have been in Alabama very long, for the next child, Thomas, was born in Tennessee in 1837.
In 1838 he began serving as postmaster in Kellysville Post Office located near the mouth of Battle Creek.

The "Compendium of Biography" article on Thomas's son, Abraham Dallas Hargis, states Thomas "was born in what is now Franklin county, in 1804, and died in Marion county on December 25, 1873. He was a a very prominent and influential man; for a quarter of a century was a member of the county court; and for a great many years was a minister of the Primitive Baptist Church. Politically he was a Democrat and socially a member of the Olive Branch Lodge F & AM."

Thomas is mentioned in the Marion County Court Minutes Aug.7, 1843, Dec.4, 1843, Jan.1, 1844, June 2, 1845, Oct. 1845, and Nov.3, 1845.
The Dec. 4, 1843 item is concerning the will of Augusta Gunter, father-in-law of Thomas. It states "Ordered by the court that a notice issue to John Gunter, Thomas Hargis and Polly Hargis his wife to come in at next term of the court and contest the probate of Augusta Gunter capation will if they think proper".

The 1850 Marion County census District 10 list Thomas and Mary with 7 of their children. Their sons James and John show a birthplace of Alabama, but the other children (both older and younger) were born in Tennessee.

Thomas was a farmer and this census states he was born in North Carolina.

During the Marion County census of 1860 Thomas and Mary are listed with one child, Abraham Dallas, still home. Thomas is a Baptist clergyman. This census states he was born in South Carolina.

The Jerry Blevins book of "Sequatchie Valley Soldiers in the Civil War" list "Lt Thomas Hargis A 34th TN Inf 56 yrs rsgn 62 Marion (CSR)"
I read this to mean a Thomas Hargis aged 56 served a short time and resigned in 1862.

The 1870 Marion County census list Thomas and Mary living alone with sons on either side of them. Thomas was listed as 65 and Mary as 66. This census states Thomas was born in South Carolina.

Thomas and Mary are buried at Pigeon Springs Cemetery which is located on the mountain above Hargis Cove in Battle Creek. Their graves have a single tall pointed tombstone with their birth and death dates on opposite sides.

Notes for Mary "Polly" Gunter:
The Gunter genealogy written by Barbara Price states "About 1804 (which would have been the year of Mary's birth), the Gunters from the Burke-Buncombe Co. area moved into Tennessee and settled near "Short Mountain."
...not present in the 1820 census of Warren Co. was Augustus Gunter and four of his sons. They were living close together in 1830 with lands partly in Tennessee and partly in Alabama, as they were living astride the state line at the border between TN and AL---Marion Co., TN at South Pittsburg.
Children of Augustus Gunter were Augustus Jr., Mary (m. Thomas Hargis), John G., Samuel, Sally, James, and William."

On June 11, 1823, Augustra (sic) Gunter sold a slave child to Mary M. Gunter. The deed states " Know all men by these presents that I, Augustra Gunter of the county of Marion and State of Tennessee for a consideration of the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars to him in hand paid the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged. I have this day bargained and sold and by these presents do bargain, sell and deliver unto Mary M. Gunter of the County and State of Tennessee one negro girl named Silvy near four years old which said negro girl I do warrant to sound and healthy and rite and property of such negro girl aforesaid mentioned do hereby forever warrant and defend unto her the said Mary her heirs, assigns, & bargainors the lawful claims of claim of all and every person or persons whomsoever. In Testimony whereof I have in these presents set my hand and seal the 7th day of November 1822." Signed by Augustra Gunter and Testators were Joseph Burton and Wm. Kings.
It seems questionable that this Mary M. Gunter is Augustus' daughter,Mary, the wife of Thomas Hargis. Slave owners at this time frequently gave slaves to their children at the time of their marriage, but as a gift.

During the 1880 Marion County census, after the death of Thomas, Mary is living with her youngest son,
A Hargis Family

Abraham Dallas in the Battle Creek area of Marion County.

After Abraham Dallas moved to Grundy County, Mary lived with him in her later years.

The "Compendium of Biography" article of Abraham Dallas states "Mrs. Hargis died in Tracy City on May 12, 1895, at the advanced age of 91. Her mental and physical facilities were still unimpaired and no doubt she would have lived to be one hundred had she not been accidentally burned one night while lighting her pipe by her dress catching fire."

The Ike Woodward "Chronicles of Tracy City for 1893-1910" in May 1895 states "Aunt Polly Hargis accidentally burned to death".

Notice the "Compendium" states date of death as May 12 while her tombstone states May 13.

Notes for Tabitha Hargis: The "Compendium of Biography" article of Abraham Dallas Hargis states Tabitha died in childhood.
+ 21 x. Abraham Dallas Hargis, born 04 Jan 1843 in Battle Creek, Marion County, TN; died 13 Nov 1924 in Eldorado, Saline Co., Illinois.

3. Mary Hargis (Abraham Jr. was born 1810 in Tennessee (Source: Judge James Lewis Rollings.), and died Aft. 1880 in Marion County, TN (Source: Census reports.). She married James Lewis Rawlings Abt. 1833, son of Benjamin Rawlings and Martha Powell. He was born Abt. 1810 in Tennessee (Source: 1850 Marion Co., TN census.), and died Bet. 1870 - 1880 in Marion County, TN (Source: Marion County census reports.).

Notes for Mary Hargis:
It is possible Mary was born in Kentucky. She always told the census taker her birthplace was Tennessee, but her daughter Nancy, who was married to Samuel Thompson, states in the 1880 and the 1900 census that her mother was born in Kentucky.

Judge James Lewis Rollings states in his biography that Mary, his grandmother, was born in 1810. The Marion County census of 1850 gives Mary's age as 40, although the census of 1860 states 45. Judge Rollings also stated Mary had brothers Abner and Dave.

During the Marion County census of 1850, 1860 and 1870 Mary and Lewis are in the 10th District of Marion County with their family.

At the time of the 1880 census, Mary, listed as 69 years old, is living in the same district, but she is widowed with children Rebecca and Abner living with her. Rebecca is 31 and Abner is 25 years old.

Children of Mary Hargis and James Rawlings are:
+ 22 i. Nancy Rawlings, born Aug 1834 in Battle Creek, Marion County, TN; died 06 Jun 1900 in Marion County, TN.
+ 23 ii. Benjamin Franklin Rawlings, born 13 Aug 1837 in Battle Creek, Marion County, TN; died 17 May 1900 in Marion County, TN.
24 iii. Jackson Rawlings, born 1840; died 1862 in Battle of Murfreesboro during Civil War.
25 iv. Rebecca Rawlings, born Oct 1844 in Battle Creek, Marion County, TN (Source: Grundy County death certificate #450.); died 18 Feb 1917 in Pelham Valley, Grundy County, TN (Source: Grundy County death certificate #450.). She married Thomas W. Clepper 12 Jul 1887 in Marion County (Source: Marion County marriage records.); born 1835 (Source: 1860 Marion Co., TN census.); died Bef. 1900 in Marion County, TN (Source: 1900 Grundy Co., TN census.).

Notes for Rebecca Rawlings:
At the time of the 1850 Marion County census, Rebecca was listed as 6 years old, living with her parents and siblings in Battle Creek.

She was listed as 16 years old during the 1860 census, living in Battle Creek with her parents and siblings.

In the 1870 Marion County census, Rebecca, at the age of 22 was living with her aged parents and brother Abner with his new bride, Virginia (Birdwell) Rollings in Battle Creek.

Rebecca was the 2nd wife of Thomas. While Rebecca and Thomas had no children, she helped raise the children of her brother Frank after the death of their mother.

By the time of the 1900 census, Thomas had died and Rebecca was living in Pelham Valley with her nephews, Andrew and James and her brother Abner. Rebecca was listed as 54 years old and widowed.

Rebecca died in Pelham at the age of 73 of tuberculosis where her nephew A.J. Rollings supplied the information for her death certificate #450. She is buried at Red Hill Cemetery in Pelham Valley, Grundy County. He does give her birthdate as Oct. 1844, which is 2 years younger than the date on her tombstone. Other information on the certificate is death date of Feb. 18, 1917, birthplace as Marion County, father Lewis Rollings born in Marion County, mother Hargiss born in Marion County.

The Grundy County newspaper reported "Mrs. Rebecca Clepper died at her home in Pelham valley Monday at the age of 73 years. Funeral services were held at the home and she was buried in the Pelham cemetery."

Burial: Warren Cemetery in Pelham, Grundy Co. TN (Source: tombstone at Warren Cemetery.)

Notes for Thomas W. Clepper:
Thomas, a Confederate veteran, was named as the first postmaster for the Dove, Tn. Post Office that was established Sept.4, 1879. Following him was Joseph S. Clepper on Sept.27, 1893, David C. Martin on March 1, 1898 and Thornton H. Martin on July 6, 1905.

Judge James Lewis Rollings (name slowly changed from Rawlings) said in his biography written in 1954 "My aunt Beck, who raised me, also married a Confederate soldier, T.W. Clepper, who was a Quartermaster of the 4th Tennessee Reg. C.S.A. He was quite a different character from Uncle Sam (Samuel Thompson) and had a fair education and had served as County Court Clerk of the county and held other responsible positions. He lived in the finest house in the valley, the house had separate rooms for all his five children. The house still stands and is still one of the best houses in the community.....My aunt was his second wife, but he treated me better than he did his own children....He was an ardent Democrat." Judge Rollings was a son of Benjamin Franklin Rollings, a brother of Rebecca.

v. Abner "Duck" Rawlings, born 1844 in Battle Creek, Marion County, TN (Source: tombstone at Warren Cemetery.); died 1911 in Pelham, Grundy County, TN (Source: tombstone at Warren Cemetery.). He married Virginia Birdwell; born Jan 1854.

Notes for Abner "Duck" Rawlings:
During the 1850 Marion County census, Abner was listed as 3 years old, living in Battle Creek with his parents and siblings.

At the time of the 1860 census, he was 12 years old and living with his parents and siblings in Battle Creek.

When the 1870 census was taken, Abner, who was listed as 20 years old, was living in Battle Creek with his new wife. He and Virginia Birdwell had married in January and were living with his parents and older sister. This marriage did not last long and he continued to live with his mother until her death, and then he moved to Pelham valley with his brother Benjamin Franklin and sister Rebecca.

During the 1880 Marion County census, Abner, listed as 25, was living with his mother, who was widowed, and sister, Rebecca

In the 1900 and 1910 census, Abner is living in Grundy County with his nephew, Andrew Jackson. He and his sister, Rebecca, lived the balance of their lives with their nephew.

James Lewis Rollings, son of Benjamin Franklin, talks about Abner in his biography. He says "I must tell of another character that I loved as a father. My father had a brother named Abner who fell in the fire when he was a baby, and, as a result of this, had a club foot. This affliction impaired his mental faculties to the extent that he had the mind of a child even to old age. His mother called him "Duck" and by this name he was known all his life. He lived in our home all his life of 70 years, except for a brief period when he was married, but he and his wife separated and he came back to our home to live the rest of his life. Uncle Duck as every one called him, was beloved by all children, and especially by me, as he never went anywhere and returned but that he brought me some gift such as an apple or orange or a knife or some other toy."

4. Margaret "Peggy" Hargis (Abraham Jr.1) was born Abt. 1812 in Tennessee (Source: 1850 Marion Co., TN census.), and died Bet. 1870 - 1880 in Marion County, TN (Source: 1880 Marion Co.TN census.). She married John W. Wooten Abt. 1829 (Source: 1830 Marion Co., TN census.). He was born Abt. 1810 (Source: 1840 Marion Co., TN census.), and died 1847 in Marion County, TN (Source: Marion County court record.).

Notes for Margaret "Peggy" Hargis:
Mag Tate was the first person to tell me "Peggy", as she was called, was a sister of Polly, Sarah and Louisa Hargis.

Margaret and John were married by 1830 for their household is listed on the Marion County 1830 census as 1 male under 5, 1 male 20-30 and 1 female 15-20.

In 1840, they were on the Marion County census living next door to Margaret's brother, Abner. The household consisted of 1 male 5-10 (Abraham), 1 male 10-15 (probably the unknown son), 1 male 30-40 (John), 2 females under 5 (probably Caroline and Sarah), 1 female 5-10 (Anna), and 1 female 20-30 (Margaret).

John died in 1847 and during the census of 1850 Margaret was living in Battle Creek beside her brother, Thomas. The census taker has listed her as Margarett Eaton, age 38. She had 4 children with her, Abraham, Caroline, Sarah and John.

In the 1860 census, Margaret again is listed incorrectly. She is called Marget Ewton and is listed as 45 years old. She is living beside her sister, Sarah Martin. Living with Margaret is her son Abraham and a 4 year old boy, Josiah C. He is listed as Ewton, but I have been told his last name is McBee.

It is easier to understand how the census takers have called Margaret by the names Eaton and Ewton when we realize the Wooten name is pronounced Ooten. The W is silent.

Margaret is listed on the 1862 Marion County Tax List as being assessed for 43 acres at a value of $400.
In 1870 Margaret at age 58 is living in Battle Creek beside her sisters Louisa and Sarah Martin. Living with her is a young boy 11 years old, called William H. Wooten. This is incorrect. The boy is William H. Martin, a son of her sister Louisa. Sarah, Margaret's daughter, at age 30 is back home living with her mother.

Notes for John W. Wooten:
According to Eliza Byrd White, the Wootens were Black Dutch from Pennsylvania.

John was an early settler of Marion County. In the Land Entry Takers Book there are 8 listing for him. On Oct.15, 1820, he and James Bryson are listed for 25 acres that "adjoins Wooten" that includes a saltpeter cave, 100 acres on headwater of Battle Creek March 2, 1825, 21 acres on water of Battle Creek Sept.3, 1825, 100 acres on waters of Battle Creek in Ashley Cove April 4, 1826, 300 acres on side of Cumberland Mtn. Nov.25, 1826, 25 acres on waters of Battle Creek which include a saltpeter cave in Overturf Cove March 7, 1827, 15 acres on waters of Battle Creek adjoining Ann Wooten on March 20, 1827 and 300 acres on Battle Creek Oct. 10, 1828.

John's death date can be established by the Marion County Court record of March 1847 that states "Phillip Bible, administrator of John W. Wooten, decd. made additional report of the estate of the said deceased, which was ordered to be recorded."

Children of Margaret Hargis and John Wooten are:

27 i. Unknown³ Wooten, born Abt. 1830 in Battle Creek, Marion Co., TN (Source: 1840 Marion Co., TN census.).
28 + ii. Anna Wooten, born 12 Jun 1832 in Battle Creek, Marion Co., TN; died 13 Oct 1897 in Marion Co., TN.
29 iii. Abraham Wooten, born 1834 in Battle Creek, Marion Co., TN (Source: 1850 Marion Co., TN census.).

Notes for Abraham Wooten:
Abraham is listed as 16 years old during the 1850 Marion County census, living with his mother and younger siblings in Battle Creek.

He was still living with his mother when the 1860 census of Marion County was taken. He was listed as 24 years old at this time. All the other children have left home.

Eliza White related Abraham went to California and came back with a gold nugget.

30 + iv. Caroline Wooten, born 04 Jul 1836 in Battle Creek, Marion Co., TN; died 1878 in Marion Co., TN.

5. Abner² Hargis (Abraham Jr.¹) was born 1814 in Tennessee (Source: 1850 Marion Co., TN census.), and died Aft. 1880 in Battle Creek, Marion Co., TN (Source: 1880 Marion Co:TN census.). He married Jane Rowline Abt. 1838. She was born 1809 in Tennessee or Kentucky (Source: 1850 Marion Co., TN census.), and died Bet. 1870 - 1880 in Battle Creek, Marion County, TN (Source: 1880 Marion Co.TN census.).

Notes for Abner Hargis:
In the 1840 census, Abner was in Marion County living between his father and sister, Margaret. His household consist of 1 male 20-30 (Abner), 1 female under 5 (Rebecca) and 1 female 30-40 (Jane).

In June of 1844 Abner, along with his father, was a witness in a Coffee County, TN Circuit Court case, McGowan vs Hatfield, which is in the Tennessee Supreme Court Case Files. "On page 40 (paraphrased testimony) Abner Hargis age 31 states that in 1831 or 32 he was at a match at cards between John Hatfield and John Price, the game called Seven Up. Price was considered an excellent gambler, but Hatfield come off greatly winner. Hatfield played as long as he could get anyone to play against him, and after two or three days he had been so successful that no one would play against him. Hatfield was sober and talked sensibly all during this time. When witness' brother asked Hatfield to have a drink with him, Hatfield said he had not drank anything in a long time. This took place in the upper end of Jackson County. Witness understood Hatfield had come there from low down in Alabama at the request of some gamblers by the name of Jones to play against said Price, who had won some money from Jones before that time. Never heard of Hatfield being insane or say anything to indicate it. Witness understood from a conversation between Hatfield and witness' brother that he had once married a woman by the name of Sally Thompson and that he was the father of Samuel Hatfield. Witness and his brother bet $40 on Hatfield against one of the best gamblers present. Witness went to get Hatfield to play, but when Hatfield arrived the other parties to the bet backed out."

The brother referred to by Abner has to be Thomas because David would only have been 7 or 8 years old.

In the 1850 Marion County census 10th District Abner (called Absolem) at age 36 and Jane, at age 41 are farming in Battle Creek. They have 4 children, Rebecca age 11, Abraham (called Abner on this census) age 9, Martha age 5 and Abner age 1.

It is unknown if this is the same Abner, but the Union Primitive Baptist Church Book 1821-1868-name changed in 1834 to Sweeten's Cove Primitive Baptist Church-states on the records of 4th Saturday in Nov. 1853 that Abner Hargiss was "received" by "experience". Abner was listed later, on the 3rd Saturday in July 1854 as one of the petitioners "for letters of dismission from us for the purpose of Constituting a Church at the head of Battle Creek to go by the name of Oak Grove which was granted".

On the 1860 Marion County census of the 10th District, Abner age 44 and Jane age 51 have 3 children at home. They are Abraham age 19, Martha age 15 and Abner age 11. The oldest daughter, Rebecca, lives next door with her new family. Abner is a farmer.

In 1870, Abner and Jane, both listed as 55 years old, were in the 10th District of Marion County where he is farming. Their sons, Abraham and Abner are living with them.

In 1880, Abner, at age 56 was living in Marion County, Battle Creek area, with his son Abner and his family living with him. Evidently Jane is dead at this time. Their daughter, Rebecca Kennedy, with her family, is living beside Abner.

Judge J.L. Rollings talks of Abner in his booklet. He says "There is also another name I fain would mention in collection of memories of my boyhood. Uncle Abner Hargis, a brother of my grandmother, for whom Uncle Duck was named, was one of the most remarkable men I have ever known. He was uneducated in school, but could solve problems mentally that many could not solve with a pencil. He was well versed in the Bible and history and had a phenomenal memory. He was a county officer and served papers although he could not read a word. He would have someone read the papers to him and he would memorize the contents, and thus would be able to serve in this capacity."

Notes for Jane Rowline:
Jane maiden name is called Rowline on her daughter's death certificate, although it may have been Rawlings and was written incorrectly. This is Tennessee Death Certificate #317 for Rebecca Kennedy.

On the 1850 and 1870 census for Marion County, the census taker list her birthplace as Tennessee, but the 1860 census says the birthplace was Kentucky.

Children of Abner Hargis and Jane Rowline are:

+ 33  i.  Rebecca Hargis, born 1839 in Battle Creek, Marion County, TN; died 03 Jul 1917 in Marion County, TN.

+ 34  ii.  Abraham Hargis, born 1841 in Battle Creek, Marion County, TN (Source: 1850 Marion Co., TN census.).

    Notes for Abraham Hargis:
    Abraham was in Marion County with his parents during the 1850 census as 9 years old in Battle Creek.
    During the 1860 census, he was listed as 19 and still living with his parents in Battle Creek.
    When the 1870 Marion County census was taken, Abraham, at the age of 29, was still with his parents and younger brother in Battle Creek.

+ 35  iii.  Martha Jane Hargis, born 03 Mar 1844 in Battle Creek, Marion County, TN; died 25 Nov 1881 in South Pittsburg, TN.

+ 36  iv.  Abner "Harg" Hargis, born 11 Jul 1849 in Marion County, TN; died 26 May 1887 in Marion County,
8. David Floyd Hargis (Abraham Jr.) was born 1826 in Tennessee (Source: 1850 Marion Co., TN census.), and died Bet. 1883 - 1900 in Battle Creek, Marion Co., TN (Source: 1900 Marion Co. TN. census.). He married (1) Nancy Brooks Abt. 1847 (Source: 1850 Marion Co., TN census.). She was born Abt. 1825 in Tennessee (Source: 1850 Marion Co., TN census.), and died Bef. 1870 in Battle Creek, Marion County, TN (Source: 1870 Marion Co. TN census.). He married (2) Mary A. "Polly" Raulston Abt. 1870, daughter of William Raulston and Pricilla Cross. She was born 27 Dec 1829 in Tennessee (Source: Edward Lucas.), and died 11 Mar 1908 (Source: Edward Lucas.).

Notes for David Floyd Hargis:
The 1830 census of Marion County list Abraham and Rebecca as having a son under the age of 5. Since this son would be David, that means he was born no earlier than 1826.

The Marion County census of 1840 list the youngest son of Abraham and Rebecca as being between the age of 10 and 15.

David and Nancy must have married about 1847 for the 1850 census of the Battle Creek area list David and Nancy as having a son, Abraham, who was 2 years old and David was listed as being 24 years old. He and Nancy were living next door to his parents.

The Union Primitive Baptist Church Book 1821-1868- whose name was changed in 1834 to Sweeten's Cove Primitive Baptist Church- states that on the 4th Saturday in Sept. 1853 David Hargiss and Nancy Hargiss were among those "received", all by "experience". Later, on the 3rd Saturday in July 1854, David L. Hargiss and Nancy Hargiss were among those that petitioned "for letters of dismission from us for the purpose of Constituting a Church at the head of Battle Creek to go by the name of Oak Grove which was granted".

During the Marion County census of 1860 David and Nancy were still in Battle Creek, with his parents living on one side and his sister, Louisa Martin living on the other. David was listed as 36 years old and a farmer. David and Nancy had 3 children, Rebecca age 10, William age 5 and John who was 3. Evidently the son, Abraham, who was listed on the 1850 census, had died.

When the 1870 census of Battle Creek was taken, David was living next to his sister Anna Birdwell. Evidently he has remarried for the female of the household is listed as Polly A. age 40. He had 2 sons living with him, William F. age 15 and Benjamin F. age 9. It would seem that his son, John, from the 1860 census has died. David was a farmer.

Although Polly A. age 40, from the 1870 census is called Mary A. age 50 during the 1880 census, I suspect they are the same person for I see females named Mary called Polly quite often. I do not have any proof of this.

In the 1880 census of Battle Creek, David was 53 years old and his wife, Mary A. was 50. David and Mary had an extended household during this census. Living with them was David's son Benjamin F. who was 19 years old, Louisa A. Beene age 9 who was listed as a granddaughter, a niece, Mary Tharp age 27 and widowed with her daughter, Leanna B. age 1. Mary Tharp is the oldest daughter of David's brother, William.

David was the JP who married his great-nephew, William G. Hargis and Nancy Tollett in Feb. 1883.

Judge J.L. Rollings, a grandson of David's sister Mary, mentions David in his booklet. He says "Uncle Dave Hargis, ...was the Justice of Peace for many years, and it is said never had any of his cases reversed by a higher court."

Ann Cunningham stated David was blind in his old age.

Children of David Hargis and Nancy Brooks are:

i. Abraham Hargis, born 1848 in Battle Creek, Marion County, TN (Source: 1850 Marion Co., TN census.); died Bef. 1860 in Battle Creek, Marion County, TN (Source: 1860 Marion Co., TN census.).
A Hargis Family

Notes for Abraham Hargis:
Abraham is listed on the 1850 census of Marion County as 2 years old living with his parents, but he is not on the 1860 census with them, so evidently he died as a young child.

+ 38 ii. Rebecca Hargis, born 1850 in Battle Creek, Marion County, TN.
+ 39 iii. William Floyd "Bill" Hargis, born 20 Mar 1855 in Dove, Battle Creek, Marion County, TN; died 11 Dec 1911 in Gruetli, Grundy County, TN.
40 iv. John Hargis, born 1857 in Battle Creek, Marion County, TN (Source: 1860 Marion Co., TN census.); died Bef. 1870 in Battle Creek, Marion County, TN (Source: 1870 Marion Co., TN census.).

Notes for John Hargis:
John is listed on the 1860 census of Marion County as 3 years old living with his parents and older brother, but he was not listed on the 1870 census with them, so evidently he died as a young child.

+ 41 v. Benjamin Franklin "Frank" Hargis, born 1861 in Battle Creek, Marion County, TN; died 1897 in Battle Creek, Marion County, TN.

9. Sarah "Sallie" Hargis (Abraham Jr.1) was born 03 Sep 1829 in Tennessee (Source: Martin Cemetery tombstone.), and died 19 Oct 1881 in Battle Creek, Marion Co., TN (Source: Martin Cemetery tombstone.). She married William Herbert Martin Abt. 1850, son of Alfred Martin. He was born 10 Jan 1828 in Franklin County, TN (Source: Martin Cemetery tombstone.), and died 28 May 1908 in Battle Creek, Marion County, TN (Source: Martin Cemetery tombstone.).

Notes for Sarah "Sallie" Hargis:
Sarah and her twin sister, Louisa were always very close. They married Martin brothers, William and Samuel. They continued to live side by side in Battle Creek and each named a daughter after their twin.

Sarah, or Sallie as she was called, and William are listed on the Marion County 1850 census in Battle Creek. At this time they had no children. Both of them were 21 years old.

When the Marion County 1860 census was taken, Sarah and William were farming in Battle Creek with Hargis relatives all around them. Sarah's parents, siblings and cousins are all living nearby. Sarah's children are David age 5, Rebecca age 2 and Lydia 2 months old.

During the census taken in 1870 of Battle Creek, Sarah, age 39 and William, age 40 have 5 children, David age 15, Liddy age 10, Thornton age 7 , Louisa A. age 3 and Margaret 5 months old. Again the family is surrounded by Hargis relatives, most notable Sarah's twin, Louisa, widow of William's brother, Samuel. After the death of Samuel, William included his brother's family in his responsibilites as caretaker and provider.

The family was in Battle Creek during the 1880 census. Sarah was 51, William was 52, Liddy was 20, Thornton was 17, Louisa was 13, Margaret was 10 and Mary was 8 years old. Their oldest child, David, was living next door with his wife and family.

Sarah died in 1881 and the family closeness became even more pronounced. At that time Sarah's husband, William, and her twin, Louisa, combined households with males sleeping in one house and frmales in the other while they finished raising both sets of children.

During the 1900 census of Marion County, William was still farming in Battle Creek with his daughter, Maggie. William was listed as 72 years old and Maggie was 28.

Notes for William Herbert Martin:
During the Civil War, William mined saltpeter from a cave in the Cave Cove where he lived. This was used to make gunpowder.

In the spring of 1908, the "Ketchall News" stated "Messrs W.H. and Jack Martin of Jasper passed through Ketchall Saturday evening to the home of their uncle, William Martin, who is very ill."

On May 29, 1908, the "South Pittsburg Hustler" carried the following article: "William Martin, a well to do and highly esteemed farmer died Thursday at his home on Battle Creek after an illness of several months. Deceased had reached a very advanced age and up until the time of his declining health, a year or more ago, was a man of very strong constitution. He is survived by several sons and daughters who are all well known and influential citizens of this county. His daughter, Mrs. Joseph Clepper, a resident of this city, was at his bedside at the time of his death. She has the sincerest sympathy of her many friends here. A host of friends and acquaintances over the county are extending condolences to the bereft family."

Notes for Rebecca Martin:
While Rebecca is listed in the 1860 Marion County census as age 2 living with her parents, she is not on any other census.

+ 44 iii. Lydia "Liddy" Martin, born Apr 1860 in Battle Creek, Marion County, TN; died 20 Nov 1933 in South Pittsburg, Marion County, TN.

+ 46 v. Louisa A. "Lou" Martin, born 20 May 1867 in Battle Creek, Marion County, TN; died 17 Aug 1896 in Marion County, TN.

Notes for Louisa A. "Lou" Martin:

Margarett Parmelia "Maggie" Martin, born 08 Jan 1869 (Source: Sammie Truitt.); died 1917 (Source: Ida Mae Smith.).

Notes for Margarett Parmelia "Maggie" Martin:
During the Marion County 1870 census, Margarett, or Maggie as she was called, was 5 months old, living with her parents in Battle Creek.

When the 1880 census was taken, Maggie was 10 years old, living with her parents in Battle Creek.

Maggie moved to Oklahoma when her sister, Mary, and her family moved and during the 1930 census was living with her nephew, Herbert, in Woodward County, Oklahoma. At that time, Maggie was widowed and 49 years old. While Maggie had no children of her own, she was always helping the children of her sister, Mary.

Louisa "Eliza" 2 Hargis (Abraham Jr. 1) was born 03 Sep 1829 in Tennessee (Source: Martin Cemetery tombstone.), and died 15 Sep 1902 in Battle Creek, Marion Co., TN (Source: Martin Cemetery tombstone.). She married Samuel Martin Abt. 1858 (Source: 1860 Marion Co., TN census.), son of Alfred Martin. He was born 24 Dec 1835 in Franklin Co., TN (Source: Martin Cemetery tombstone.), and died 27 Mar 1868 in Battle Creek, Marion County, TN (Source: Martin Cemetery tombstone.).

Notes for Louisa "Eliza" Hargis:
Liza, as she was called, was living with her parents in Battle Creek at the time of the 1850 census and listed as 20 years old.

The Union Primitive Baptist Church Book 1821-1868--whose name changed in 1834 to Sweeten's in Cove Primitive Baptist Church--list on their records of 3rd Saturday in July 1854 Louiza Hargiss as one of the petitioners "for letters of dismission from us for the purpose of Constituting a Church at the head of Battle Creek to go by the name of Oak Grove which was granted”.

By the time of the 1860 census, Liza had married Samuel and they were living in Battle Creek beside her brother, David. Liza's twin sister, who was married to Samuel's brother, was living one house away. Liza and Samuel had one child at this point. That was William Herbert who was 1 year old. Liza's parents, Abraham and Rebecca were living on the other side of her brother, David.

The havoc of the Civil War was very personal to Liza. Samuel never recovered his health from his imprisonment and he died in 1868, after being home for 3 years. His death left Liza with 4 children to raise, but due to the closeness of the family, she did not have to do it alone. Liza's brother-in-law, William Martin, who had married her twin sister, assumed responsibility for Sam's children as he did his own.

At the time of the 1870 census of Marion County, Liza was living in Battle Creek with her twin, Sarah living on one side of her and her sister, Margaret Wooten on the other. Liza's oldest son William, who was 11 at the time was staying with his Aunt Margaret. Liza had three children in her household, Rebecca age 8, Andrew Jack age 5 and Sarah age 4.

When the 1880 census was taken, Liza was still in Battle Creek, next door to Sarah and her family, with her four children at home. The children were William age 21, Rebecca age 17, Jack age 15 and Sarah age 13.

One year later, in 1881, Liza's twin sister, Sarah, died. The closeness of the family became even more apparent after this. Liza and her brother-in-law, William combined forces in raising both sets of children. As James Cunningham so aptly words it in the "Marion County History" the males from both families lived in William's house and the females from both families lived in Liza's house. The men's home was known as "the warriors' quarters" and the other was known as "the giggle house". Both men and women ate together in Liza's house and William's home was cleaned by the women while the men were outside working.

During the 1900 census, Liza was living with her son, Jack and his growing family. She was listed as 70 years old.

Notes for Samuel Martin:
The Civil War took its toll on Samuel. He was captured by Union forces in 1864 and taken prisoner. He almost starved to death in the prison camp, but when the war ended in 1865 and the prisoners were released to get home any way they could, Sam walked home to Cave Cove in Battle Creek. Sam never recovered from the effects of his imprisonment and died in 1868 at the age of 33.

11. Anna Hargis (Abraham Jr.1) was born 16 Apr 1832 in Battle Creek, Marion County, TN (Source: Oak Grove Cemetery tombstone.), and died 30 Apr 1899 in Battle Creek, Marion Co., TN (Source: Oak Grove Cemetery tombstone.). She married William David Birdwell Abt. 1855, son of Charles Birdwell and Aley Gaines. He was born 14 Feb 1837 in Tennessee (Source: Birdwell Bible in possesion of Elbert Garner.), and died 01 Sep 1923 in Gruetli, Grundy County, TN (Source: Grundy County Death Certificate #205.).
Notes for Anna Hargis:
During the 1850 census of Marion County, Anna was 17 years old and living with her parents, Abraham and Rebecca, in Battle Creek.

The Union Primitive Baptist Church Book 1821-1868-whose name change in 1834 to Sweeten's Primitive Baptist Church-listed Anna as one of the persons "received" by "experience" on the 4th Saturday in Sept. 1853. Later, on the 3rd Saturday in July 1854, she, and her name written as Annah Hargiss, was listed as one of the persons to petition "for letters of dismissal from us for the purpose of Constituting a Church at the head of Battle Creek to go by the name of Oak Grove which was granted".

She and Dave were married by the time of the 1860 census and had 3 children, Rebecca age 4, Charles T. age 2 and Alley age 4 months. Dave, was a farmer, and they were living next door to Anna's oldest brother, Thomas. Living on the other side of Thomas was Anna's oldest sister, Jane King (Hargis) Anderson.

The 1870 Marion County census list Anna and Dave in Battle Creek with 5 children, Rebecca age 14, Thomas age 12, Aley age 9 Laura J. age 3 and David age 3 months. Dave iwas farming and they were living next door to Anna's youngest brother, David Floyd Hargis.

At the time of the 1880 census, Anna age 48 and Dave were still farming in Battle Creek. They had another child, Moses who was 7 years old at this time. Their daughter, Aley, was not in their household for she had married and presented them with a granddaughter, Rebecca, who was 2 months old.

Anna died in 1899 at the age of 67. She is buried in Battle Creek at a cemetery called Martin #3 by Euline Harris, but this old cemetery is probably the Oak Grove Cemetery, for a school was once located nearby called Oak Grove School. Several Hargis descendants are buried at this graveyard, and if it is Oak Grove, that would be where Anna's parents, Abraham and Rebecca are buried although there is no tombstone for them.

A newspaper clipping of 1899 states: "Mrs. Birdwell, wife of Dave Birdwell, died at their home on Battle Creek Sunday Night. We were unable to learn further particulars."

Notes for William David Birdwell:
In the Marion County 1840 census Dave, as he was called, was unnamed but is a son under the age of 5.

In the 1850 census, he is 14 years old and living with his parents and siblings in Battle Creek.

Eliza White stated Dave's first marriage was to Mae Crabtree, that he was mean to her and she died young in childbirth.

After the death of Anna in 1899, Dave continued to live in Battle Creek for a while. In the 1900 census, his household consisted of himself at age 64 as head, son David age 28, dau. Laura J. age 30, son Wm. Moses age 26 and a nephew, Henry. All the boys are working as farm laborers.

At the time of the 1910 census, Dave had moved to Stevenson, Jackson County, Alabama where he was living with 2 of his children. Dave is listed as a widow age 75, David H. age 33 working as a general farmer and Laura Jane age 35.

Dave died in Gruetli, Grundy County, TN, where he had gone to live with his son Charles Thomas Birdwell. According to his Grundy County death certificate # 205, he died from "old age and cancer".

Notes for Laura Jane Birdwell:
Laura is listed as 3 years old on the 1870 census of Marion County, living with her parents and siblings in Battle Creek.

During the 1880 census of Marion County, She is listed as 13 years old with her family in Battle Creek.

By the time of the 1900 census, her mother was dead and she was keeping house for her father and brothers in Marion County. Laura was listed as 30 years old.

In 1910 during the census, Laura was with her father in his move to Stevenson, Alabama. They are on the Jackson County, Alabama census. Laura was listed as 35 years old.

In 1930, at the time of the census, Laura was living with her sister's sons in Franklin County, TN.

Laura never married.

Notes for David H. Birdwell:
David was 2 months old during the 1870 census for Marion County listed with his parents in Battle Creek.

In the 1880 census of Marion County, he was 10 years old and living in Battle Creek with his parents.

In 1900, he was living with his father, sister Laura and brother Wm. Moses during the time of the census. David was listed as 28 years old.

At the time of the 1910 census, David's father had moved to Jackson County, Alabama and David at age 33 was there with his sister, Laura.

Mose Birdwell could faintly recall David went to Texas, had 4 boys and then left and came back to Tennessee.

Willene Birdwell states David lived at Rocky River, located up the mountain above McMinnville.

In 1930, David was living in Grundy County, District 2, with his nephew, Lige Birdwell. He age was unknown and he was listed as a widower.

She was born 25 Aug 1844 in Alabama (Source: Grundy County Death Certificate #327.), and died 26 Sep 1925 in Grundy County, TN (Source: Grundy County Death Certificate #327.).

Notes for William Lee Hargis:
In the 1850 census for Marion County, William and Kisiah were newlyweds. They were living in the 10th District, probably going up the mountain from Hargis Cove. They had no children at this time and he was a farmer.

The Union Primitive Baptist Church records state on the 4th Saturday in Sept. 1853 Wm. L. Hargiss and his wife Mariah Louiza Hargiss were among those "received" by "experience". A later record dated 3rd Saturday in July 1854 stated William L. Hargiss and Crissey M. Hargiss were among those petitioning "for letters of dismission from us for the purpose of Constituting a Church at the head of Battle Creek to go by the name of Oak Grove which was granted".

At the time of the 1860 census for Marion County William and Kisiah were living in Battle Creek 10th District where he was working as a carpenter. Their 3 children, Mary, James and Ruth Ann were with them. The census uses the name of George instead of James, but George is incorrect.

Wm L. Hargis is listed on the 1862 Marion County Tax List as being assessed for 150 acres valued at $250. with the tax being .88 cents and penalty being .44 cents.

During the Civil War, William mined saltpeter from a cave in Battle Creek. There is a family story that during the war the Yankees came to the house hunting for William. Although he was plowing in a far field, the family told the Yankees he was not home. Pointing to a coat hanging on the wall, they said he was and demanded to know where they could find him. The oldest daughter, Mary, slipped off to the field and warned her father who was able to hide. After a while the Yankees gave up, took the family chickens, and left.

By mid-1864 William had married for the second time to Elizabeth Richardson.

During the 1870 census of Marion County they were in Battle Creek where he was still working as a carpenter. William and Elizabeth had 3 children of their own in addition to the 3 children of William and Kisiah. The children of William and Elizabeth were Catherine, Samuel and Abraham.

In December of 1870 William and Elizabeth had another son who was named after his father, William Lee, but family pleasure was dimmed later in the winter by the death of the daughter Catherine on February 28, 1871. Catherine was buried at the Pigeon Springs Cemetery which is located on the mountain above Hargis Cove in Battle Creek.

William and Elizabeth had 2 more daughters in 1873 and 1876. This was Martha E. called "Matteye" and Levina M. who was called "Vinnie".

On October 28, 1877, Elizabeth died at the age of 40. She was buried at the Pigeon Springs Cemetery beside her daughter, Catherine.

Early in 1879 William married for the third and final time to Malvina "Nell" Thomas.

At the time of the 1880 Marion County census they were living in the 10th District where he was still working as a carpenter. William and Nell had a son named John W. who was born in Nov. of 1879 and William's older children (except for "Polly" and James who had both married) were living with them.

While the census listings give William's occupation as a carpenter, he also logged timber and served as a circuit-riding Methodist preacher. Kate Anderson Martin, who was born in 1885, a granddaughter of William's sister Jane, could remember William coming to their house when she was a small girl. She recalled that William did not have a hat even though it was cold weather and she and her sisters were so indignant when their mother gave their father's new hat to William.

By a late photograph still in the family, we know William had a long wavy beard. he must have had several copies of this photograph made for both his sons Abraham and William had copies.

By the 1900 census William and Nell had moved to Tracy City in Grundy County. They had 2 children still living with them. This was Louisa Jane and David.

William died in 1905 or 1907 and is probably buried at Pigeon Springs Cemetery although there is no tombstone. Willie Yarworth Keef, a granddaughter who was born in 1901, recalled that she was about 4 years old when her grandfather died, but her sister Beatrice Yarworth Dykes said that their brother who was born in 1905 was about 2 years old at the time of William's death.

Notes for Kisiah Malery:
I was told by Maude Hargis Sweeton, a daughter of Abraham Hargis, that Kisiah's maiden name was Malery, but I have also been told the maiden name was Martin.

The 1850 Marion County census list her name as Kisiah and the 1860 census list it as Kisey M., but the 1821-1868 records from the Union Primitive Baptist Church--which was changed to Sweeten's Cove Primitive Baptist Church in 1834-list Mariah Louiza as the wife of William L. Hargiss. This record was dated 4th Saturday in Sept. 1853. It states she, along with others, were "received by experience". A later church record, dated 3rd Saturday in July 1854 states Kisiah was one of the members who petitioned for "letters of dismission from us for the purpose of Constituting a Church at the head of Battle Creek to go by the name of Oak Grove which was granted.” At this time Kisiah was called Crissey M. Hargiss.

Kisiah died between 1860 and 1864. Mona Hamby recalls being told her death was from tuberculosis.

Notes for Elizabeth Richardson:
Elizabeth, age 12, was living with her parents and siblings in Franklin County during the 1850 census.

At the time of the 1860 Franklin County census, she, age 24, was working as a domestic in the Charles Gilliam household.

Sam and Amanda were married by W. B. Pattie, JP.

During the 1900 census of Marion County, Sam at age 33 and Amanda at age 44 were farming in Battle Creek. They had been married for 6 years and had no children.

Sam and Amanda never had children of their own, but during the 1910 census of Marion County they had adopted a boy, Archey R. who is 11 years old. According to William Herbert "Hub" Hargis, this was Arch White. Arch had sisters that were taken by other families to raise. Sam was working as a laborer.

She married Samuel Anderson Abt. 1851 in Marion County, Tn., son of William Anderson and Margaret Unknown. He was born 31 Dec 1819 in Tennessee (Source: Pigeon Springs Cemetery tombstone.), and died 24 Sep 1886 (Source: Pigeon Springs Cemetery tombstone.).

Notes for Jane King Hargis:
When the Marion County 1850 census was taken, Jane was listed as 22 years old and living in Battle Creek with her parents and younger siblings.

In the 1860 census Jane and Samuel were farming in the 10th district beside her parents. Jane was listed as 33 years old and Samuel was 40. They had 6 children, Spencer age 7, Vina Ann age 6, John W. age 5, Tina age 4, Thomas W. age 1 and Jasper 2 months old.

A descendent, John Anderson, related a story that during the Civil War, Jane and Samuel took a wounded Yankee soldier in and nursed him back to health. A foraging party of Yankee soldiers came by searching for provisions. The wounded soldier went out on the porch and told them "These are good people. Leave them alone." The foraging party left and never came back.

By the time of the 1870 Marion County census, Jane age 42 and Samuel age 50 had a smaller household. Their daughter, Tina, had died and they had 5 children at home, Spencer age 17, Lovina A. age 16, John W. age 15, Thomas W. age 11 and Jasper age 10.

In the 1880 Marion County 10th district census, Jane at age 52 and Samuel at age 60 had 2 children still in their household. This was Thomas W. age 21 and Jasper age 20.

Jane and Samuel are buried near her parents in the Pigeon Springs Cemetery which is located on the mountain above Hargis Cove in Battle Creek.

TN census.). She married Alfred Speegle Abt. 1849. He was born 1826 in North Carolina (Source: 1880 Marion Co.TN census.), and died Bef. 1900 in Marion County, TN (Source: 1900 Marion Co. TN. census.).

Notes for Rebecca Ann Hargis:
At the time of the 1850 Marion County census, Rebecca and Alfred were living in Battle Creek with their first child 6 months old.

The Union Primitive Baptist Church Book 1821-1868--whose name changed in 1834 to Sweeten's Cove Primitive Baptist Church--states on a record dated 4th Saturday in May 1854 "On Sunday morning Rec'd Sister Rebecca Speigle by Experience and baptism".

In 1860 Rebecca, at age 30 and Alfred, at age 34 were in Battle Creek during the census with their 5 children, Mary J. age 10, George W. age 6, Telitha E. age 4, William J. age 2 and James M. age 1 month. Alfred was a farmer.

Rebecca died between 1860 and 1870. During the 1870 census, Alfred was in Grundy County in the town of Altamont with his 2 daughters, Mary and Delitha. Also living with him was the children of Rebecca's sister, Vinnie. They were Thomas, Christopher and Vina. By the end of the year Vinnie and Alfred had married. They then raised Alfred and Rebecca's children, Vinnie's Jackson children and 5 children of their own.

Notes for Alfred Speegle:
Emma Oswald received information that Alfred's mother was Elizabeth Speegle, sister of Phillip Speegle. Elizabeth and Phillip were children of Michael Speegle.

Children of Rebecca Hargis and Alfred Speegle are:

78 i. Mary Jane Speegle, born Apr 1850 (Source: 1850 Marion Co., TN census.).

Notes for Mary Jane Speegle:
Mary Jane is listed on the 1850 Marion County census as 6 months old, living with her parents.

At the time of the 1860 census, she was 10 years old, living in Battle Creek with her parents and younger brothers and sisters.

At the time of the 1870 census of Grundy County, Mary was listed as 28 years old, living with her father, sister Delitha and soon to be step brothers and sister, that were also her first cousins, Tom, Christopher and Vina.

The minutes of the Primitive Baptist Church of Fall Creek have Mary Jane listed as a member. The June of 1871 minutes state Ellendar Dykes was appointed to speak with Tinney Fults and Mary Speegles as to "the cause or reason they can't be baptized." They were to talk with love to the sisters. The talk must have been profitable, for the October 1872 minutes state Mary Jane Speegle was baptized. The minutes of January 1876 state Mary Jane, along with her aunt (also her step-mother) called for letters of dismissal.

+ 82 v. James M. Speegle, born Apr 1860 in Marion County, Tennessee; died Aft. 1920.

15. James G. "Jimmy"³ Hargis (Thomas², Abraham Jr.¹) was born Feb 1831 in Alabama (Source: 1900 Grundy Co., TN census.), and died Nov 1907 in Tracy City, Grundy Co., TN (Source: Ike Woodward Chronicles.). He married Sarah Ann Birdwell Abt. 1855, daughter of Charles Birdwell and Aley Gaines. She was born 1838 in Marion County, TN (Source: 1850 Marion Co., TN census.), and died Bef. 1900 in Tracy City, Grundy County, TN (Source: 1900 Grundy Co., TN census.).

Notes for James G. "Jimmy" Hargis:
Evidently Jimmy was born when his parents lived for a short period of time in Jackson County, Alabama.

During the 1850 census of Marion County, Jimmy at age 19 was living with his parents in Battle Creek.

When the 1860 census was taken, Jimmy and Sarah were living in Hargis Cove with Amanda who was 4 years old. A grandson, Edward Hall, could remember his mother, Amanda, talking about carrying water from Martin Springs.

During the Civil War, Jimmy mined saltpeter from the cave in Battle Creek.

After the war, Jimmy moved his family to Tracy City in Grundy County where they were living during the 1870 census with their 3 children. Jimmy was listed as 39, Sarah as 31, Amanda as 13, Ailey, called Katie on this census, as 7 and Cal as 3.

After the death of Sarah, Jimmy would alternate living with his daughter Amanda and his son Caldena. At the time of the 1900 census, he was living with Amanda.

The Ike Woodward "Chronicles of Tracy City" dated November 1907 states "James Hargis, an old citizen, died."

Children of James Hargis and Sarah Birdwell are:
Amanda Lee Hargis, born 19 Oct 1856 in Battle Creek, Marion County, TN; died 29 Aug 1922 in Tracy City, Grundy County, TN.

Ailey Hargis, born 1863 in Battle Creek, Marion County, TN (Source: 1870 Grundy Co. TN census.); died Bet. 1870 - 1872.

Notes for Ailey Hargis:
According to Edward Hall Ailey died as a young girl, before his sister Amanda married. He said she died from some kind of rare disease. The doctor wanted her to eat rattlesnake meat. He told the family how to prepare the snake. They were to hang it in the chimney for a certain period of time, but if the snake fell, they were to throw it away.

Caldena Hargis, born Nov 1866 in Tennessee; died 24 Mar 1943 in Tracy City, Grundy County, TN.

John Wesley "Jack" Hargis (Thomas2, Abraham Jr.1) was born 1832 in Jackson Co., AL (Source: 1850 Marion Co., TN census.), and died 25 Jun 1915 in Pelham, Grundy Co., TN (Source: J.P. Henley letter in pension file.). He married Elizabeth Henley Abt. 1857, daughter of Campbell Henley and Malinda Thompson. She was born 07 Apr 1839 in Marion County, TN (Source: Charles Sherrill.), and died 04 Aug 1894 in Pelham, Grundy County, TN (Source: Charles Sherrill.).

Notes for John Wesley "Jack" Hargis:
When the 1850 census of Marion County was taken, John at age 18 was living in Battle Creek with his parents and siblings. The census list his place of birth as Alabama. It is likely the family was living in Jackson County, Alabama during the time of his birth.

At the time of the 1860 Marion County census, John and Elizabeth were married, farming in Battle Creek with a daughter, Malinda who was 2 years old. John was 28 and Elizabeth was 21 years old. They are living between his older brother, William and his aunt, Margaret Wooten.

John was a soldier in the Civil War. His pension papers, file # 10316, state "John W. Hargis, private, Company B. subsequently sergeant, Company K, 44th Tennessee Infantry, Confederate States Army enlisted Dec. 9, 1861. He was captured at Petersburg, Virginia, June 17, 1864, and was released May 19, 1865, at Elmira, New York." John filed the papers July 15, 1908. In the papers he states he was born in Marion County, state of Tennessee in 1832, that he had "no wound as good luck would have it but had bad case of pneumonia while in prison".

During the 1870 Marion County census, John at age 39 and Elizabeth at age 31 were in Battle Creek, living between his parents, Thomas and Mary, and his younger brother, Thomas. Other relatives are nearby. John and Elizabeth have 4 daughters at this point, Malinda, Margaret, Mary and Nancy.

John and Elizabeth left Battle Creek and moved across the mountain to Pelham Valley in Grundy County, near the area his grandfather had lived during the early 1800's. During the 1880 census, John was farming at age 47, while Elizabeth was listed as 41. At this time their oldest daughter, Malinda had married and was living next door. The other children, except for Sam who was born 2 years later, were home ranging in age 19 to 2.

By the time of the 1900 Grundy County census, Elizabeth had died and John was living in Pelham with his 3 sons, Campbell, Dallas and Samuel. John is listed as 67 years old, Cam as 25, Dallas as 22 and Sam as 19. All of them are farming.

John and his sons continued to live together, farming and at the time of the 1910 Grundy County census, were still living together, but this did not last much longer. Cam married in 1912 and John died in 1915, which left Dallas and Sam to continue on the family farm.

J.C. Henley wrote "Pelham, Tenn. June 25th 1915--Comrade J.W. Hargiss died this morning. J. W. Hargis enlisted in the confederate army in 1861 in the 44th Tenn Regt., taken prisoner near Petersburg, Va. in 1864. Sent to Elmira New York and reached home from prison in June 1865. He had attained the age of 83 years."

John's tombstone reads: "Ordl. Sgt. Co. K 44th Tenn Infantry CSA".
Children of John Hargis and Elizabeth Henley are:

+ 86 i. Malinda Jane Hargis, born 07 Jan 1858 in Battle Creek, Marion County, TN; died 07 Dec 1895 in Pelham, Grundy County, TN.

Notes for Nancy Hargis:
Nancy was listed as 9 months old at the time of the 1870 census of Marion County, living in Battle Creek with her parents and older siblings.

When the 1880 Grundy County census was taken, she, at the age of 10, was living with her parents and siblings in Pelham Valley.

+ 90 v. Melvina Ann Hargis, born 06 Dec 1871 in Tennessee; died 14 Nov 1895.

Notes for Campbell Hargis:
It is still unclear exactly when Campbell's parents left Marion County and moved to Grundy County, making the county of Cam's birth unknown, but during the 1880 Grundy County census, he was living with his parents and siblings in Pelham Valley at the age of 5.

By the time of the 1900 Grundy County census, Cam, as he was called, was listed as 25 years old, and living with his father and brothers in Pelham Valley, all of them working on the family farm.

When the 1910 Grundy County census was taken, Cam was listed as 35 years old, farming with his father and brothers in Pelham.

Cam and Emma were married in Grundy County by W. D. Bennett, JP. and during the 1920 Grundy County census were living in Pelham Valley. Cam was listed as 44 and Emma was 40 years old.

They had no children.

Cam's will reads: "THE LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF CAMPBELL HARGIS OF PELHAM, TENN.----I, Campbell Hargis of Pelham, Grundy County, Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory, and realizing the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death, do make, publish and declare this to be my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all other wills by me at any time made. siblings in Battle Creek.

By the time of the 1860 census, Caroline and John were married and farming in the Pelham Valley area of Grundy County, next door to his parents, Campbell and Malinda Henley. At this time, both Caroline and John were listed as 23 years old. They had 2 children, Mary J. age 3 and Rebecca A. age 6 months.

19. Melvina "Vinnie" Hargis (Thomas², Abraham Jr.¹) was born Dec 1840 in Battle Creek, Marion Co., TN (Source: 1900 Marion Co. TN. census.), and died Abt. 1928 in Marion Co., TN (Source: William Herbert "Hub" Hargis.). She married (1) Christopher Jackson Abt. 1858, son of Churchwell Jackson and Mary Coffelt. He was born 1839 in Marion Co., TN (Source: 1850 Marion Co., TN census.), and died Bef. 1870 (Source: 1870 Grundy Co. TN census.). She married (2) Alfred Speegle 02 Dec 1870 in Grundy County, Tn. (Source: Grundy Co. marriage record.). He was born 1826 in North Carolina (Source: 1880 Marion Co.TN census.), and died Bef. 1900 in Marion County, TN (Source: 1900 Marion Co. TN. census.).

Notes for Melvina "Vinnie" Hargis:
In the 1850 census of Marion County, Vinnie was living with her parents in Battle Creek at the age of 10.

The Union Primitive Baptist Church Book 1821-1868--name changed in 1834 to Sweeten's Cove Primitive Baptist Church--stated in their record dated 4th Saturday in Jan. 1854 "received Lavina Hargiss by Experience and Baptism". Later, on the 3rd Saturday in July 1854, and listed as Levine Hargiss, she was one of the petitioners asking "for letters of dismission from us for the purpose of Constituting a Church at the head of Battle Creek to go by the name of Oak Grove which was granted". Notice her name being listed as Lavina rather than Melvina.

Vinnie's first husband was Christopher Jackson. This is from their son Thomas' Arizona death certificate. Edith Crowner's family Bible listed Vinnie as Vinnie Hargis Jackson Speegle. "The Correct Minutes of the Primitive Baptist Church of Fall Creek" list Viney (Jackson) Speegle as being a member in Oct. 1872.

It is possible Vinnie and Christopher went to Arkansas for a while, for the 1880 census of Marion County says her son Christopher was born in Arkansas. By the time of this 1880 census, Vinnie had been married to Alfred Speegle for almost 10 years. Living with them in Battle Creek was Christopher age 19 and Lavina age 17 who were children of Vinnie from her first marriage, Mary J. who was Alfred's daughter from his marriage to Rebecca Hargis, and Vinnie and Alfred had 4 children of their own at this time, Joseph W. age 8, Caroline age 7, Rebecca A. age 5 and Tennessee age 2.
A Hargis Family

On the 1900 and the 1910 Marion County census, Vinnie is widowed with her children, Rebecca, Tennessee and Alfred living with her in Battle Creek.

In 1920, Vinnie is living with her son Alfred and his wife Bessie.

According to "Hub" Hargis of Hargis Cove in Battle Creek, Vinnie lived across from Martin Springs with her son. Hub said Vinnie's birthday had to be in the latter part of December because Vinnie's son would invite Hub over so they could celebrate a mutual birthday. Hub's birthday was Dec.21.

Edith Crownover said Vinnie and Alf lived on Pigeon Mountain.

Notes for Alfred Speegle:
Emma Oswald received information that Alfred's mother was Elizabeth Speegle, sister of Phillip Speegle. Elizabeth and Phillip were children of Michael Speegle.

Children of Melvina Hargis and Christopher Jackson are:

   Notes for Christopher Jackson:
   At the time of the 1870 census, Christopher was living with his future step-father, Alfred Speegle, in Grundy County. Christopher was listed as 13 years old. His brother Thomas and sister Levina were also living in the household.

   Christopher's mother, Vinnie and Alfred were married soon after the 1870 census and during the 1880 census Christopher was living with them in Marion County. Christopher was listed as 19 years old and working as a farm laborer.

   Notes for Lavina A. Jackson:
   During the 1870 census, Levina was living with her future step-father, Alfred Speegle, in Grundy County. This census list her age as 10.

   By the time of the 1880 census, Levina was living with her mother and step-father in Marion County. She was listed as 17 years old. They were living in the Battle Creek area.

21. Abraham Dallas Hargis (Thomas, Abraham Jr.,) was born 04 Jan 1843 in Battle Creek, Marion County, TN (Source: A.D. Hargis family Bible.), and died 13 Nov 1924 in Eldorado, Saline Co., Illinois (Source: Widow's Civil War pension application # 9281.). He married Mary Elizabeth "Molly" Travis 22 Nov 1863 in Jasper, Marion County, TN (Source: Earl Hargis.), daughter of Charles Travis and Mary Coursey. She was born 20 Apr 1848 in Huntsville, Alabama (Source: Widow’s Civil War pension application # 9281.), and died 02 Mar 1933 in Tracy City, Grundy County, TN (Source: Oak Grove Cemetery tombstone.).

Notes for Abraham Dallas Hargis:
Abraham Dallas, or A.D. as he was sometimes called, was the youngest child of Thomas and Mary (Gunter) Hargis and listed on the Marion County census of 1850 as 7 years old, living with his parents and siblings in Battle Creek.

During the 1860 Marion County census, he, at 17 years old, was the only child still at home with his parents in Battle Creek.

A.D. served in the CSA during the Civil War in the 34th Tenn. Inf. for about 3 years. At times he served as Captain of his unit. His wife, Mary, drew a widow's pension from his service. Her pension application was # 9281. A.D. also served in the 35th TN Inf according to Jerry Blevins in his book " Sequatchie Valley Soldiers In The Civil War".

According to Earl Hargis, their grandson, A.D. and Mary were married at the Jasper courthouse while he was on his first leave during the war. According to Mary's pension papers, they were married by David Hargis. This would have been A.D.'s uncle.

After the war, A.D. and Mary settled in the Battle Creek area of Marion County where they resided for several years, except for a short time when they moved to Bridgeport, Alabama. During the 1870 census, they were farming in Battle Creek. A.D. was listed as 27 years old and Mary was 25. They had 3 children at this time, Martha J. age 5, Thomas J. age 3 and Joseph age 1. They were living next door to his parents, Thomas and Mary (Gunter) Hargis.

During the 1880 Marion County census, A.D. and Mary were still in Battle Creek. He was 37 and she was listed as 33. Their family consisted of 7 children, Jane age 15, Thomas J. age 14, William J. age 11, Augustus age 10, Charles age 7, Ella age 5 and Mahaly C. age 2. A.D.'s father was dead by then and his mother, Mary, at age 76, was living with them.

Afterward A.D. began a career in the coal mining industry. They moved to Tracy City in Grundy County where A.D. would go to Nashville and get prisoners to work in the coal mines. His son, Charley, would help getting the prisoners, and since Charley would be riding horseback while the prisoners walked , he was called "Long-Train Charley". Because of his getting prisoners from the state penitentiary in Nashville, Grundy Countians had this ditty that was quoted about A.D. "Ole Humpy Went to Nashville--He walked up to the pen--There he told the Warden--Give me Fifty of your Men.--Give me Fifty of them Healthy--And Fifty in their Prime--I'll take Them down to Tracy--To work the Lone Rock Mine".

The following biography was printed in 1898 by George A. Ogle & Co. in the "Compendium of Biography".---ABRAHAM DALLAS HARGIS-Not alone is there particular interest attaching to the career of this gentleman as one of the leading citizens of Tracy City, Grundy county, but in reviewing his genealogical record we find his lineage tracing back to the colonial history of the nation, and to that period that marked the inception of the grandest republic the world has ever known. His great-grandfather was a drummer boy in the Revolutionary war, and had two brothers who also aided the colonies in their successful struggle for independence. Our subject's grandfather, Abraham Hargis, was a soldier of the war of 1812, and also took part in the Indian war in Florida. He was a native of North Carolina, a farmer by occupation, and a pioneer of Franklin county, Tenn. He was also one of the first settlers near the head of Battle creek, and died in Marion county, being laid to rest at Oak Grove, on Battle creek. The Hargis family is of English and Dutch descent. Thomas Hargis, our subject's father, was born in what is now Franklin county, in 1804, and died in Marion county, December 25, 1873. He was a very prominent and influential man; for a quarter of a century was a member of the county court; and for a great many years was a minister of the Primitive Baptist church. Politically, he was a Democrat, and socially, a member of Olive Branch lodge, F & AM. In early life he married Miss Mary Gunter, who was born, in 1804, in Warren county, Tenn., of which country her people were the earliest settlers from South Carolina. Her father was Augustus Gunter, and most of his descendants now live in Jackson county, Ala., or in the west. Mrs. Hargis died in Tracy City, May 12, 1895, at the advanced age of ninety-one years. Her mental and physical faculties were still unimpaired, and no doubt she would have lived to be one hundred had she not been accidentally burned while lighting her pipe by her dress catching fire. For seventy-two long years she was a consistent member of the Methodist Episcopal church, the latter years of her life being identified with the southern branch of that denomination. After her husband's death she found a pleasant home with our subject. Of the ten children born to this worthy couple six are now living: William L., a minister of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, now located at Tracy City; James G., a resident of the same place; John W., a farmer living near Pelham, Grundy county, who served for over four years in the Confederate army, was orderly sergeant in the Forty-fifth Tennessee Infantry, Army of Virginia, under General Longstreet, and was captured, and held a prisoner at Elmira, N.Y., for eleven months; Thomas M. a resident of Tracy City, who was in Company A. Fourth Confederate Tennessee Infantry, until 1863, and was in many battles but was never wounded; Melvina, wife of Alfred Spigles, a farmer of Marion county; and A.D., who is the youngest of the family. Those deceased are Jane K., who married Samuel Anderson and died in Marion county; Rebecca, who married Alfred Spigles and died in the same county; Tabitha, who died in girlhood; and Mahala C. who married John P. Henry and died near Pelham in Grundy county.

Abraham D. Hargis, of this sketch, was born on Battle creek in Marion county, January 4, 1844, and was educated in the schools of that locality. In July, 1861, he responded to the call of the Confederacy for volunteers, and enlisted in Company A, Fourth Tennessee Infantry, with which he served for four years, his command being disbanded below Atlanta in May, 1865. His father was the oldest man of the regiment and was lieutenant of Company A. Our subject participated in the battles of Fishing Creek, Richmond, Ky., Stone River, Chickamauga, the Atlanta campaign, and the engagement at Pine Mountain, where the regiment lost their commander, Col. James A. McMurray. Fortunately Mr. Hargis was never wounded, but was taken prisoner at Tullahoma and was on parole for six months. After the war he located at Tracy City and in 1867 entered the employ of the Tennessee Coal, Iron & Railroad Company, as a coal digger in mines Nos. 1 and 2, being thus engaged for sixteen years. For twelve years he was foreman of the Lone Rock mines; engaged in contracting for two years; and in 1897 was appointed mine inspector, a position now most capably filling.

On Dec. 22, 1864, Mr. Hargis wedded Miss Mary Travis, a native of Madison county, Ala., and a daughter of Charles Travis. To them have been born 8 children, namely Martha J., wife of T.H. Jackson; Thomas J.; Joseph W.; Augustus G.; Ella, wife of John Myers, Mahala C. and Rebecca, both at home; and Abraham D., who died in childhood. The sons and sons-in-law are all miners of Tracy City. The parents are earnest members of the Methodist Episcopal church, South and socially, Mr. Hargis belongs to the Mason fraternity, the Independent Order of Odd Fellows and the Royal Arcanum. He has taken an active and prominent part in promoting the success of the Democratic Party in his locality; has been a member and chairman of the Democratic Club; and at the present time is a member of the executive committee; but his present position is the first and only office he ever asked for."

During the 1900 census, A.D. and Mary were living in Tracy City in Grundy County. A.D. was listed as 56 and Mary as 52 years old. A.D. was working at the coal mines. Living with them was their daughter, Rebecca age 17 and grandson Clarence age 9. A.D.'s mother had lived with them until 5 years previous when she had caught her dress on fire, resulting in her death. Several of A.D. and Mary's children were living nearby. Next door was their daughter Mahala married to Thomas Sartin, next to her was their daughter Ella married to John Myers, 2 houses away was their son Charley with his wife, Florence.

The Grundy County newspaper "Mrs. Grundy" carried the following (with a picture attached) Nov. 2, 1916: "HON. A.D. HARGIS-Democratic Nominee for Floterial Representative from the Counties of Cumberland, Van Buren, Bledsoe, Sequatchie and Grundy--Tennessee is a Democratic State and the people of this district are entitled to have a Representative in the next Legislature, every pulsation of whose heart beats in accord with their sentiments on public questions. CAPT. HARGIS is a Confederate soldier, a Christian gentleman, a life long Democrat who seeks to represent the plain people of his country. VOTE FOR HIM. ELECTION NOV. 7."

When the 1920 census was taken, A.D. and Mary were still in Tracy City and he, at age 77 was still involved in the coal mining industry. Their household consisted of their son Augustus at age 48, divorced and working as a machinist in the coal mines, and granddaughter Rebecca Myers.
In 1924, A.D. went to Eldorado, Illinois to visit his son, Gus. He died while there and his body was returned to Tracy City for burial. The "Sequatchie Valley News" reported in their edition of Nov. 20, 1924 "A.D. Hargis, formerly of Tracy where his body was brought for burial, died at Eldorado, Ill."

A.D.'s obit from the Grundy County newspaper dated Nov. 20, 1924 reads: "CAPT. A.D. Hargis Dies at Age of 81 Years.-When the word was received here last Thursday, Nov. 13th, that Capt. A.D. Hargis had died in Eldorado, Ill., it was a distinct shock to this community and the whole county at large, as Capt. Hargis was one of our most prominent citizens for a long number of years and only recently moved to Illinois. Capt. Hargis was born in Marion County near Battle Creek in the year of 1843 and when a young man joined the Confederate forces and saw service thru the entire war of 61 to 65, distinguishing himself for bravery. At the age of 21 years he was married to Miss Mollie Travis to which union was born 9 children, 5 boys and 4 girls, three sons and two daughters died several years ago and he is survived by his wife and 4 children. The deceased served as State Mine Inspector for four years under the Administration of Gov. R.L. Taylor, and was for a long time in the employ of the old T.C.I. Co. as Mine Foreman. To Tracy City and vicinity his death is a distinct loss. He made many staunch and life-long friends by his sincerity and integrity, and in all questions of common good, one was never in doubt as to where he stood. In questions of policy and public expediency he had the courage to disagree with his best friends but did it openly, sincerely, and no breach of friendship resulted. He was distinctly patriotic to his country, loyal to friends, and a kind and loving father and husband. The deceased is survived by following; Charlie and Jack Hargis of this place, and Gus Hargis of Eldorado, Ill., and Mrs. Tom Jackson of Wilburton, Okla., and his wife. Funeral services were held at the cemetery at Bonny Oakes and were conducted by Revs. Argo and Tate."

A.D.'s Illinois death certificate #0830362 states he died in Eldorado, Saline County, Illinois.

Notes for Charles Hargis:
At the time of the 1880 Marion County census, Charley, at age 7, was living with his parents and siblings in Battle Creek.

By the time of the 1900 census, Charley and Florence had been married for a year. They were living in Tracy City, county of Grundy, 4 houses away from his parents. Charley was 27 and Florence was 19. Charley was working in the coal mines.

When the 1920 census was taken, Charley, at age 45 and Florence age 38, were still living in Tracy City where he was working in the coal mines.

Charley and Florence never had children.

At the time of the 1930 Grundy County census, Charley and Florence were still living in Tracy City. This census has their ages incorrect. Charley is not working in the mines at this time. He is a newsboy on the street.
The May 24, 1947 edition of the "Sequatchie Valley News" carried the following article: "Charles Hargis, 74, died at his home Tracy City May 17. Forty-seven years ago, he was married to Miss Florence Henderson, of Jasper, who survives him."

22. Nancy\(^3\) Rawlings (Mary\(^2\) Hargis, Abraham Jr.\(^1\)) was born Aug 1834 in Battle Creek, Marion County, TN (Source: 1900 Marion Co. TN. census.), and died 06 Jun 1900 in Marion County, TN (Source: Donna O'Brien.). She married Samuel Franklin Thompson Abt. 1856, son of William Thompson and Carrie O'Rouark. He was born May 1835 in Marion County, TN (Source: 1900 Marion Co. TN. census.), and died 22 Dec 1910 (Source: Donna O'Brien.).

Notes for Nancy Rawlings:
During the 1850 census of Marion County, Nancy was living with her parents in Battle Creek. She was 17 years old.
When the 1860 Marion County census was taken, Nancy at age 26 and Sam at age 24, were living in Battle Creek with a son James, who was one year old.

At the time of the 1870 census, Nancy and Sam were still in Battle Creek. Both were listed as 33 years old and they had 3 sons, James age 11, Franklin age 7 and George age 3. Sam was working as a blacksmith.

During the 1880 Marion County census, Nancy, listed as 47 and Sam listed as 46, were still living in Battle Creek. Their 3 sons were still home, James age 21, Benjamin age 18 and George age 13.

Donna O'Brien states Nancy was "a woman of unusually small stature...was considered an expert at the spinning wheel. She was inclined to simplicity in attire and almost invariably dressed in black with a cotton checked apron over her dress."

In the 1900 Marion County census, Nancy and Samuel were living alone. They were both listed as 65 years old. The census does state there had been a child that died.

It is interesting to note that in the 1880 and 1900 census Nancy gives the birthplace of her mother as Kentucky. This is possible, for her grandfather, Abraham says he was in Warren County, Ky. "in about 1804". Nancy's mother, Mary, never states she was born in Ky. to any of the census takers.

According to Donna O'Brien, Nancy died of typhoid fever and at the time of the 1910 census, Samuel had been remarried for 9 years.

Judge James Lewis Rollings states in his biography "When my sister died she was carried up near our old home on Battle Creek for burial. In this bleak and unhappy time, with the snow falling down in my sister's open grave, another sister of my father, who had married a blacksmith, Uncle Sam Thompson, took me away from the graveyard to her home. This was twice I had been taken away from the graveyard in a dying condition. I remember the first meal, which was supper, that I ate at Uncle Sam Thompson's. They had tenderloin pork, and I thought it was the sweetest meal I had ever tasted." This sister of his father was Nancy.

Notes for Samuel Franklin Thompson:
Judge James Lewis Rollings speaks very highly of Samuel in his biography. He says "Uncle Sam Thompson, who married my father's oldest sister, was a soldier under General Bragg in the Civil War, in 61-65. He was almost entirely self-taught as he only went to school three weeks in life. He was a blacksmith, and one of the most entirely lovable characters I have ever met. Why did I love Uncle Sam? Because from him I never received anything but kindness and words of praise and encouragement. From my very earliest recollection he was always doing something kind and thoughtful for me, and the best part of it was that he did it without any ostentation....He made toys for me in his workshop and foundry as he was a skilled craftsman......Once when he and my father lived in the same house, and Lydia was very small (about four or five), my father's family had quit coffee. They lived in opposite ends of a log house, with a hallway between. My sister had gone into Uncle Sam's end of the house to get sweetened coffee. (She called him "Pappy Sam"). My father followed to whip her, but Uncle Sam told him that if he laid his hand on that child, he would whip him on less ground than it took to stand on. My father had to leave as Uncle Sam was a giant in strength and weighed over 200 pounds."

According to Donna O'Brien, Samuel served under Major Joseph Bostick in the 34th Tennessee Infantry, CSA.

He married (1) Mary Partin. He married (2) Louisa A. Tate Abt. 1869, daughter of Edward Tate and Lydia Speegle. She was born 27 Apr 1849 in Marion County, TN (Source: tombstone at Martin Cemetery.), and died 24 May 1880 in Battle Creek, Marion County, TN (Source: James Lewis Rollings.).

Notes for Benjamin Franklin Rawlings:
At the time of the 1850 Marion County census, Frank, as he was called, was listed as 13 years old, living with his parents and siblings in Battle Creek.

In 1860, Frank was listed as 22 years old on the Marion County census, still living with his parents and younger siblings in Battle Creek.

Frank enlisted in the Confederate Army Aug. 15, 1861 at Bridgeport, Alabama. He was wounded at the Battle of Murfreesboro Dec. 3, 1862 and sent home. His service was Pvt Co.A. 4th Confed. Reg. Tenn. Inf. His brother, Jack, was killed in this same battle.

Frank began spelling his name Rollings instead of Rawlings.

During the 1870 Marion County census, Frank and Louisa were farming in Battle Creek. He was 32 and she 21 years old. They had one child, Lydia who was 3 months old.

Louisa died in May of 1880 and during the census Frank, age 38 and widowed, was living beside his mother, Mary (Hargis) Rollings, with his 3 children, Lydia, Jack and James L.

Anna Wooten (Margaret "Peggy" Hargis, Abraham Jr.) was born 12 Jun 1832 in Battle Creek, Marion Co., TN (Source: tombstone at Bible Cemetery.), and died 13 Oct 1897 in Marion Co., TN (Source: tombstone at Bible Cemetery.). She married James Jackson Abt. 1849 (Source: 1850 Marion Co., TN census.), son of Churchwell Jackson and Mary Coffelt. He was born 03 May 1831 in Tennessee (Source: tombstone at Bible Cemetery.), and died 23 Sep 1910 in Battle Creek, Marion Co., TN (Source: James' obit.).

Notes for Anna Wooten:
At the time of the 1850 census of Marion County, Anna, age 18, and James, age 21, were farming in Battle Creek with their first child, a son, John W., listed as 6 months old.

By the time of the 1860 census, Anna and James, both listed as 29 years old, were farming in Battle Creek. They had 4 children at this time, John age 10, James C. age 7, Sarah Ann age 5 and Caroline age 2.

Since the 1870 census taker missed Anna and James, they had a daughter never listed on a census, Mary Jane b. 1860, for during the 1880 census Mary Jane was married to James Eakle.

When the 1880 census was taken, Anna and James were still in Battle Creek. Anna was 46 years old, James was 50 and they had 6 children living with them at this time. They were Sarah A. age 25, Margaret age 15, Tennessee age 12, Abraham age 8, George W. age 6 and Rebecca E. age 2.

James Jackson was listed on the 1862 Marion County Tax List as being assessed for 20 acres valued at $276.

After the death of Anna, James married Malissa Harris on Jan.12, 1899 in Grundy County and they were living in Battle Creek during the 1900 census of Marion County.

James' obit reads: "James Jackson died Friday, Sept.23d at his home on Battle Creek at the advanced age of eighty one years. He had been in feeble health for some time owing to old age and general debility. He was one of the pioneer citizens of the county, having resided here since childhood. At one time he possessed considerable property on Battle Creek but in his later years he met with reverses which reduced his possessions. He was a member of the Primitive Baptist Church and was a man of strength of character. He was the father of J. Abe Jackson who has taken some hand in county politics and who is farming on Battle Breek. (sic) The funeral and interment took place Saturday at the Bible graveyard on Battle Creek. The services of an ordained minister could not be obtained at the time and Mr. Ed Anderson was called upon to conduct the service which he did with credit. Many friends and neighbors attended and paid the last respects."

30. Caroline³ Wooten (Margaret "Peggy"² Hargis, Abraham Jr.¹) was born 04 Jul 1836 in Battle Creek, Marion Co., TN (Source: Ault, Jeff.), and died 1878 in Marion Co., TN (Source: Jeff Ault.). She married John Brown Birdwell 1858 (Source: Family Bible in possession of Joe Birdwell.), son of Charles Birdwell and Aley Gaines. He was born 03 Jun 1838 in Battle Creek, Marion County, TN (Source: Shady Grove Cemetery tombstone.), and died 11 Jun 1920 in Washington County, Arkansas (Source: Shady Grove Cemetery tombstone.).

Notes for Caroline Wooten:
Caroline was listed as 14 years old when the 1850 Marion County census was taken, living with her mother and siblings in Battle Creek.

She and John B. married and were farming in Battle Creek when the 1860 census was taken. Caroline was 24 and he was 20. They had one child, Charles, who was 8 months old. They were living beside his brother, E.T. Birdwell and numerous relatives of hers.

At the time of the 1870 Marion County census, Caroline, at age 32 and John, at age 30 were still farming in Battle Creek. Their son, Charles was not listed on this census, but they had 2 daughters, Sarah A. age 4 and Jane age 3.

There are rumors in Battle Creek that Caroline's husband had something to do with her death, which descendants estimate to have been in 1878. In the early part of 1980 the descendants, grandfather and great uncle of Jeff Ault, erected a tombstone at her grave in Hargis Cemetery.

Notes for John Brown Birdwell:
John was listed as 10 years old during the 1850 Marion County census, living with his parents and siblings in Battle Creek.

Lucille Clepper Mehrkam wrote in her article in "The Story of Marion County" that John and his sister, Mary Jane went to Arkansas about 1856 with their grandmother, Sarah (Duncan) Birdwell. Sarah moved on to Texas, leaving the Birdwell children in Arkansas.

According to a family Bible in possession of Joe and Pam Birdwell of Hutchinson, Kansas, John and Caroline were married Nov. 18, 1858 in Tennessee.

John B. Birdwell, age 21, was listed as a private with the A 34th TN Infantry from Marion County serving with the CSA during the civil war. This conflicts with the area gossip about him.

Rose Birdwell states that Tom Martin, formerly of Battle Creek, told her "John Brown Birdwell was an unsavory character. He stayed out of the civil war by hiding in the caves and coves of the area. It was rumored that he had something to do with the death of his wife, Caroline. After the death of his wife, Caroline, he moved to Arkansas and turned his life around, was a farmer and had a large apple orchard. John had a need to leave Marion County for the Wooten brothers were coming after him. He had been an abusive husband to Caroline even before her death."

Caroline died about 1878 and during the 1880 census, John was living in Jackson County, Alabama which is located just across the state line from Marion County. He was listed as 40 years old and had 5 children with him, S. Ann age 13, Jane age 11, Abraham age 8, Alley age 6 and John age 2. His sister, Virginia Birdwell and her children were living with him. Virginia had been married to Abner "Duck" Rollings for a very short time. During this census, she is called Virgie Birdwell age 25 and her children are Jane age 8 born in Tn. and Alley age 6 born in Alabama. Abner Rollings' family state he was married "a brief time" and that he had no children.

According to the Bureau of Land Management document #9636 Serial #AR2610, John was issued 137.11 acres on October 6, 1894 in Arkansas under the Homestead Act.

At the time of the 1900 census, John B. Birdwell was living in the township of Red River, Searcy County, Arkansas. He was listed as 60 years old. Living with him was his sister, Virginia Rollings at age 36 with 4 children Mary J. age 24, Alley age 22, John age 19 and Irena age 16.

In the 1910 census, there is listed John B. Birdwell, age 70, farming in Van Buren County, Arkansas, in the Washington Township. He has been married for 7 years to Talitha who is 79 years old. This is a 2nd marriage for both of them.

During the 1920 census, John was living with his daughter, Sarah and son-in-law, Albert Rather, in the town of Boston, Washington County, Arkansas. John was listed as 80 years old.

John's place of burial has the graves of 3 other family members, Zada Birdwell, wife of A.B. Birdwell and dau of Gainor Dobbs, Sara Ann Rather and George B. Rather son of A.L. Rather.

Notes for Charles Birdwell:
Charles was listed as 8 months old on the 1860 Marion County census, but was not listed on the 1870 census.

+ 137  ii. Sarah Ann Birdwell, born 22 Dec 1865 in Battle Creek, Marion County, TN; died 24 Mar 1930 in Washington County, Arkansas.
33. Rebecca3 Hargis (Abner2, Abraham Jr.1) was born 1839 in Battle Creek, Marion County, TN (Source: Death certificate #317.), and died 03 Jul 1917 in Marion County, TN (Source: Death certificate #317.). She married Reuben S. Kennedy Abt. 1856 (Source: 1860 Marion Co., TN census.). He was born 23 Feb 1823 in Tennessee or Kentucky (Source: Hargis Cemetery tombstone.), and died 05 Feb 1884 in Marion County, TN (Source: Hargis Cemetery tombstone.).

Notes for Rebecca Hargis:
Rebecca is listed, unnamed, on the 1840 census of the Marion County 10th District living with her parents, 0-5 years old.

At the time of the 1850 Marion County census, Rebecca is listed with her parents and siblings. She is 11 years old.

When the 1860 census was taken, Rebecca and Reuben were married and living in Hargis Cove, Marion County 10th District, beside her parents. Reuben works as a house carpenter. They have 1 child who is 3 years old. This would mean Rebecca married while she was about 15 years old!

In 1880, Rebecca and Reuben are living in Battle Creek beside her parents, although the census taker has spelled the name Cannady. At this time Reuben is working as a farmer. The four children are living with them, ages ranging from 23 to 7.

Rebecca moved to South Pittsburg, Tn. after the death of Reuben. In the 1900 census she is living in the 16th District with her 4 children, although the birth years of all the children are completely different from previous censuses. Rebecca is a widow and had 4 children with 4 living.

In the 1900 census, the oldest son, Abner, is working as a day laborer and son William is working as a moulder.

At the time of the 1910 Marion County census, Rebecca, at age 70, was living in South Pittsburg on Oak Avenue with her 4 children. They were Abner age 52 single and working as a pipe dryer at the pipe shop, Jane age 39, Virginia L. age 37 and William age 35 single and working as a moulder at the pipe works. This census states Rebecca had 5 children with 4 living.

It is probable that the 2 daughters never married. In the City cemetery at South Pittsburg are Jane Kennedy and Lee Kennedy with no dates on the tombstones.

Rebecca's death certificate #317 states of her death "no physician in attendance-Found dead in her bed-old age. It also gives place of burial as South Pittsburg, and that is probably in City Cemetery where other family members are buried. The information on the certificate was given by Wm. Kennedy, of South Pittsburg, who would have been her son.

Notes for Reuben S. Kennedy:
In the 1860 census, Reuben's birthplace is listed as Kentucky, but on all other census reports it is listed as Tennessee. Reuben was a member of the Masonic organization.

The Marion County 1862 Tax List states R. S. Kennedy as being assessed for "distilling" at $50.

Notes for Abner B. Kennedy:
According to his death certificate, Abner died in South Pittsburg of cancer and rheumatism with no doctor in charge. He was listed as single and a laborer. The information was given by Wm. Kennedy, who would have been Abner's brother. The certificate also states he was buried the same day of his death and the undertaker was J.B. Rogers of South Pittsburg.

143 ii. Nancy Jane Kennedy, born Aug 1866 in Battle Creek, Marion County, TN (Source: 1880 Marion Co.TN census.).

Notes for Nancy Jane Kennedy:
The 1880 Marion County census list Nancy as 14 years old which would make her born in 1866. She was living with her parents and siblings in Battle Creek.

The 1900 census list her birthdate as August 1874 and her age as 25. She was living in South Pittsburg with her mother and siblings.

There are no dates on her tombstone at City Cemetery and her name is stated as Jane Kennedy so evidently she never married.

144 iii. Virginia Lee Kennedy, born Jul 1868 in Battle Creek, Marion County, TN (Source: 1880 Marion Co.TN census.).

Notes for Virginia Lee Kennedy:
Virginia Lee was listed as 12 years old during the 1880 Marion County census, living with her parents and siblings in Battle Creek. This would make her birth year as 1868.

The 1900 census list her age as 23 and her birthdate as July 1876. She is living with her mother and siblings in South Pittsburg.

There are no dates on her tombstone at City Cemetery and her name is stated as Lee Kennedy, so evidently she never married.

Notes for William Kennedy:
William was listed as 7 years old during the 1880 Marion County census, living with his parents and older siblings in Battle Creek.

By the time of the 1900 Marion County census, his father had died and he was living with his mother and siblings in South Pittsburg. His birthdate is listed as Nov. 1869.

William provided the information for his brother Abner's death certificate in South Pittsburg in 1925. This was TN death certificate # 78.
35. Martha Jane Hargis (Abner^2, Abraham Jr.^1) was born 03 Mar 1844 in Battle Creek, Marion County, TN (Source: City Cemetery tombstone.), and died 25 Nov 1881 in South Pittsburg, TN (Source: City Cemetery tombstone.). She married Edward Thomas Birdwell Abt. 1864, son of Charles Birdwell and Aley Gaines. He was born 13 Mar 1841 in Battle Creek, Marion County, TN (Source: Marion County Death certificate #42.), and died 26 Mar 1925 in South Pittsburg, TN (Source: Marion County Death certificate #42.).

Notes for Martha Jane Hargis:
Martha Jane was 5 years old and living with her parents in Battle Creek during the 1850 census. She as just called Martha. Her parents live next door to the parents of her future husband.

The death certificate of Benjamin Franklin Birdwell states his parents as Thomas E. Birdwell and Martha Hargis. This is Tennessee death certificate #11002.

Ben Hall, a great-grandson of Martha, recalled his mother saying E.T.’s first wife was a Hargis.

When the Marion County 1860 census was taken, Martha J. as she was called in this census, was 15 years old and living with her parents in Battle Creek. Her parents household was #739 and the household of her future husband was #737. They had really known each other all their lives.

At the time of the 1870 census of Marion County, Martha and Edward had been married about 6 years. They were living in Battle Creek, between their parents household and had 4 young sons, Abner age 5, Charles, age 3, Abraham age 2, and David G. age 8 months.

By the time the 1880 census of Marion County was taken, Martha J. (as she was called) and Edward (although he was called Thomas in this census) had moved from Battle Creek and were living in District 11. They had 7 sons by then, ranging in age from 16 to 1 yr old.

Martha died in the last part of 1881 and was buried in City Cemetery in South Pittsburg. Her tombstone says "wife of Thomas Birdwell". Edward must have remarried by the following year for his first son in the second marriage was born in April of 1883.

More About Martha Jane Hargis:
Burial: City Cemetery, South Pittsburg, TN (Source: City Cemetery tombstone.)

Notes for Edward Thomas Birdwell:
At the time of the 1850 census in Marion County, Edward was seven years old living with his parents in Battle Creek. His name is listed as Edmund.

When the 1860 census was taken, Edward was still living with his parents. In this census, he is called Emond T. and listed as seventeen years old.

Edward was a veteran of the Civil War. His pension application papers are # S-13347.

Edward was the 1870 census, he and Martha were married, living beside his parents.

In the Marion County 1880 census, Edward and Martha were living is District 11 with 7 sons, Abner, Charlie, Abe, Benjamine, John, Eddie and Lemuel.

After the death of Martha, Edward married for the second time about 1882 to Mary Jane Roberts. When the 1900 census was taken, they were in District 16 with 8 children, but there had been one to die.

Edward's obit reads:"E.T. Birdwell, aged 84 years, a highly respected resident of this city, died at his home at 7 o'clock last Wednesday night after a short illness. The deceased retained extraordinary vigor up to the last few weeks of his life. Funeral services were held Thursday at 3:30 o'clock at the Christian Church, of which he was a member, Rev. J. Bedford Beck, the pastor officiating, and interment was in the old City cemetery. Deceased was born on Battle Creek, in this county, on April 13, 1841, and was consequently one of the oldest residents of the county. he was twice married. To the first union were born six sons, Ed, Charles, Ben, John, Abner and Abe, all of whom survive him with the exception of the last named, who died about two years age. The following children by his second marriage also survive him: Dave, Ernest, Walter, Tom; Mrs. Alia Atkins and Mrs. Arbie Story of Belleville, Ohio; Mrs. Martha Freese, Mrs Manda Smith and Miss Manda Lee Birdwell. His wife also survives him. Mr. Birdwell was esteemed by all who knew him and he leaves a wide circle of friends to mourn his loss.”

While Edward’s obit states he was buried in City Cemetery, there is no tombstone.

Evidently he had died before the 1880 census.

Notes for Lemuel Birdwell:
Evidently Lemuel died before the 1900 census. I have been unable to find him and he is not mentioned in his father’s obit.

36. Abner "Harg"3 Hargis (Abner2, Abraham Jr.1) was born 11 Jul 1849 in Marion County, TN (Source: Hargis Cemetery tombstone.), and died 26 May 1887 in Marion County, TN (Source: Hargis Cemetery tombstone.). He married Rutha Estell Birdwell Abt. 1872, daughter of Charles Birdwell and Aley Gaines. She was born 11 Dec 1849 in Marion County, TN, and died Aft. 1930 (Source: 1930 Marion Co., TN census.).

Notes for Abner "Harg" Hargis:
In the Marion County 1850 census, Abner was 1 year old living with his parents in Battle Creek. This would have been in Hargis Cove. According to Limmie Jane (Hargis) Braden, the land in Hargis Cove had been purchased from the Birdwell family, which would have been Ruthie's parents. At this time Abner's parents and the Charles Birdwell family (including Ruthie) live next door to each other.

When the 1860 census was taken, Abner was listed as 11 years old, living with his parents in Hargis Cove. A house has been built between the household of Abner's parents and the household of Charles Birdwell and Ruthie's brother John is living in it.

In 1870, during the time of the census, he is still unmarried and living with his parents in Hargis Cove and working as a farm laborer. Again there is listed one household between the homesites of Abner's parents and Ruthie's parents and interestingly it is occupied by Edward and Martha Birdwell. Edward was a brother to Ruthie and Martha was a sister to Abner.
Abner and Ruthie were married about 1872 and by the time the 1880 census of Marion County was taken, his mother had died and he and Ruthie were living with his father, Abner Sr. in Hargis Cove. At that time Abner and Ruthie have 2 children, Abraham and Jane. Abner only lived for 7 more years and he and Ruthie had 3 more children, Abner, John and Aley.

Abner never made a will and the division of the family land later became a problem in the family. As the children, Jane, Abner and Aley died in their younger years, there was only left Abe and John. They never had a problem with division of the land. There was a fence running down to separate the two properties. The family altercation came from Abe and John's descendants.

More About Abner "Harg" Hargis:
Burial: Hargis Cemetery, Hargis Cove, Battle Creek Marion Co.

Notes for Rutha Estell Birdwell:
Ruthie was living with her parents in Marion County during the 1850, 1860 and 1870 census. They lived in what is now know as Hargis Cove, but Ruthie's granddaughter, Limmie Jane Braden stated that Hargis Cove had been purchased from the Birdwell family, which would have been Ruthie's parents.

Ruthie and Abner married about 1872 and were living in Hargis Cove during the 1880 census with her father-in-law, Abner Sr. Ruthie had 2 children, Abe and Jane at this time.

Ruthie and Abner had 3 more children, Abner in 1881, John in 1883 and Aley in 1885.

Ruthie's life seems to be filled with the death of family members. She lived to bury 3 children and 3 husbands. Her daughter, Aley, died as a baby and her husband, Abner, died in 1887. She was left to raise Abe, Jane, Abner and John. About 1890 Ruthie married for the 2nd time to William Farmer. They had no children, but continued to raise Ruthie and Abner's children.

At the time of the 1900 census of Marion County, Ruthie and William had been married for 10 years and were living in District 10 of the county. Living with them was Abner and John. Her oldest son, Abe lived next door with his wife, Nancy Jane (Thompson), and their son.

Ruthie's son Abner would have died shortly after this census. He was prone to have epileptic seizures and fell into the fire during one of the seizures. He was burned so badly that he died.

Ruthie's husband, William Farmer, died between 1900 and 1910 for at the time of the 1910 census, she is listed as Rutha E. Farmer and was living with her son John and his family. At this time Ruthie was listed as 52 years old, widowed and having 2 children with 2 living. This is not correct for she has had 5 children and 3 of them are still living. Her daughter, Jane, did not die until 1917.

Ruthie married again for the 3rd time to William Thompson, who was the father of her daughter-in-law. He must have died before many years because during the 1920 census of Marion County, Ruthie, listed as Ruth E. Thompson, is again living with her son John and his family. The census taker list her as 70 years old and widowed.

38. Rebecca3 Hargis (David Floyd2, Abraham Jr.1) was born 1850 in Battle Creek, Marion County, TN (Source: 1860 Marion Co., TN census.). She married Unknown Beene.

Notes for Rebecca Hargis:
Rebecca was listed as 10 years old, living with her parents and younger brothers in Battle Creek during the 1860 census.

She married a Beene, for during the 1880 census, Louisa A. Beene age 9, is living with David Floyd Hargis and is his granddaughter. It is possible Rebecca's husband was John L. Beene for during the 1870 Marion County census a John L. Beene, age 18 is married to a Rebecca, age 19. According to this census they were married in December of 1879. It is possible Rebecca had died by the time of the 1880 census, leaving her daughter to live with her parents, for John was listed in 1880 as 28 years old, married to Mary J. age 30 with a daughter Annie age 9.

Tennessee Jane Raulston wrote in "My Memories of the Fiery Gizzard" of Rebecca, stating "Next were David & Polly Hargiss, whose children were Frank, Rebecca (H.) Beene and Bill Hargiss."

Virginia A. McConnell wrote the following article in "The Story of Marion County" about Jane and Elisha: "...They had no children of their own, but all their lives spent their time loving somebody else's children. Her young life was spent being mother to her six brothers and sisters since their mother died---her father, (T.W.) really appreciated her. Then in 1923, her brother lost his wife when Allie Jane was born, so Aunt Jane took her, and kept her six years, until Allie Jane had to begin school. A second brother, Jasper, with two daughters, Virginia and Dorothy, (who were eight and ten) lost his wife, so Jane and Lisha moved in to help them out. A third adopted (in so many years) was Cecil Pace who had no place to live so they took him in for three years...during the depression of the thirties, she and Lisha moved to Akron and he worked in a rubber plant, but as times got better, they returned to her old home place they had rented. Jane had the Comfort, Tennessee, Post Office in one of the rooms of her home. Everybody in the area had to come for their mail so Jane had a kind work for each of them....Her husband was elected County Sheriff, so her new home was the Marion County jail at Jasper, Tennessee. After this they bought a home in South Pittsburg, and spent their last years...."

Ida Mae Haskew Smith relates, "Rachel inherited property from her parents which is now known as Martin Springs. For many years this was a popular tourist stop along Highway 41. There was a spring coming out of a cave at the foot of the mountain, picnic areas, tourist courts, a store and the family home, which was used as an inn. Interstate 24 cut through the property. The big, beautiful, white house was in the way of the road and was removed. The store was also demolished at this time. The tourist court was converted into housing for the family members who had been living in the house. The property has been sold and no longer belongs to the family."

Notes for Newton J. Haskew:
The "Pittsburg Hustler" of May 15, 1908 carried the following article: "CHIEF HASKEW ARRESTED FOR ALLEGED CRIME. Great was the surprise of many burgians when on last Sunday Sheriff W. D. Watson, of El Paso, Texas, arrived in the city with proper requisition papers and a warrant for the arrest of N.J. Haskew, South Pittsburg s chief of police, who, it is alleged, committed a serious offense in the state of Texas twenty-three years ago, made good his escape and has since been a fugitive from justice with a large reward offered for his capture. It is said that Haskew had a brother incarcerated in the Texas jail and Haskew and a number of friends broke into the jail, giving liberty to all prisoners. During the time of this daring procedure several shots were exchanged among the county officers and the members of the Haskew gang which resulted in the killing of three men, among whom was Haskew's brother. Soon after the offense some parties were tried by the courts but not one was convicted. There is little uneasiness on the part of the friends of the Chief but that he will come out alright in the trial and return to the city in a few days to resume his position. During his absence, W.P. Raulston is carrying the billy."

Newton's Tennessee death certificate #60423 states he died March 22, 1911 of pneumonia at the age of 56, place of birth was Knoxville, TN, occupation was Marshal, and he was married and living in South Pittsburg, TN.

Notes for Sallie Louise Stout:
During the 1900 census of Marion County, Sallie was 4 months old and living with her parents in Battle Creek.

At the time of the Marion County 1910 census, Sallie was 10 years old and living with her parents in Battle Creek.

After this census, Sallie moved with her parents to Woodward County, Oklahoma.

Sallie married Edward Newton Smith, who was the widower of her cousin, Sallie Florence Martin who had died in 1916. Sallie and Newton were married at the home of her aunt's home in Oklahoma. They returned to live in Marion County, where Edgar was killed in 1926 by the Jackson brothers. When he was bleeding to death on the Charles Merriman porch in Battle Creek, his dying words to Sallie were "They stopped me and cut me to death. I'm gone. Be a good girl and I'll meet you in Heaven." This was told during the trial of the Jackson brothers which took place in Jasper, the county seat of Marion County.

When the 1930 census of Woodward County, Oklahoma was taken, Sally was 30 years old, widowed and living with her aunt, Maggie Moore in the town of Union.

Notes for Edward Newton Smith:
After the death of his first wife, Sallie, Edgar moved to Woodward County, Okla., where he met and married his second wife, Sallie Stout. They returned to live in Battle Creek.

During the Marion County census of 1920, Edgar age 32 and Sallie age 20 are living in Battle Creek. Edgar was working as a teamster at this time.

In 1926, Edgar was working as a mail carrier in Battle Creek. This was at the time he was killed by Robert and Hobart Jackson in an argument over politics.

The local newspaper reported on Aug 21, 1926, "Edgar Smith, of Battle Creek, star route carrier, died late this afternoon of knife wounds said to have been inflicted by Hobart Jackson, of the Gizzard, while Smith was engaged with a fistic duel with a brother, Bob Jackson. The fight occurred before the home of C.R. Merriman, and it was there that Smith was carried and died. Bob Jackson was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Ulysses Swafford, but later released. Hobart Jackson escaped. Arguments over the recent county election are said to have been the cause of the trouble. It is reported that some time ago Henry Smith, Edgar's brother, and Bob Jackson engaged in a fight when Jackson was armed with a cant hook. Smith is said to have had the best of the mix-up. This afternoon, after the carrier had completed his work, he overtook the Jackson boys on his way home. According to Bob Jackson, he asked Smith for a fair fight. Smith refused, he said, fearing an attack by Hobart. Assured this would not happen, he consented, Bob said, and the two engaged. It was then that Hobart made the assault, according to his brother. When Bob saw that his opponent was injured, he did all that he could to staunch the flow of blood, while his brother drove away. The cuts were on the left neck, left side and back, and appear to have been inflicted with a pocket knife. Dr. W.R. Irish, of South Pittsburg and Dr. J.A. Prie, of Jasper, were called and both men said that the cuts on either side or neck were severe enough to have caused death by bleeding. Smith leaves a wife, two sisters, Mrs. Luther Smith of Sewanee, and Mrs. Alvin Stuggs of Monteagle, and his brother, Henry of Dove. He was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church and an active worker in the Sunday school. Hobart Jackson, who fled the scene of the killing, though not arrested, later made bond thru a friend for his appearance for examination. Robert Jackson had already made bond following his arrest by deputy Swafford. Trial was set for South Pittsburg, Wednesday but was changed to the court house at Jasper at 2 o'clock instead. Robert Jackson was bound to court in $5,000 and Hobart Jackson in $10,000. They are sons of Abe Jackson, who was a candidate for the republican nomination for sheriff."

After a long extended trial, Hobart served prison time for the murder.
Edgar was buried in the cemetery at Martin Springs Baptist church beside his first wife, Sallie Martin, and their infant daughter, Jennie.

William moved his family across the mountain to the Winchester area of Franklin County in 1914. They had just been living there about 3 months when their daughter, Brittie died of appendicitis.

When the 1930 census of Franklin County was taken, William, at age 71 and Josephine, at age 68 were living in the 20th District of Franklin County next door to their son Samuel and his wife. William and Josephine's youngest son, James, who was listed as 24 years old, is the only child still home.

Notes for Brittie Martin:
Brittie's obit reads: "Miss Brittie Martin died yesterday at 4 o'clock. An operation for appendicitis had been performed in hopes to save her life, but it was useless. She was the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W.H. Martin, formerly of this place, but who moved to property purchased by them near Winchester, Tenn., about three months ago. The young lady was taken sick about two weeks ago, and it was at once discovered she was suffering from appendicitis. Her condition grew rapidly worse, and an operation was decided upon in an endeavor to save her life. She was an exceptionally bright, industrious and well-mannered girl, and all who knew her were her friends. The people of Sequatchie, who esteem the Martin family very highly, unite in expressing their sympathy to them in their bereavement, but should remember that so good a dispositioned girl as Brittie was has surely found the reward for which we all seek."

Charles Olson; born 1893 (Source: Mt. Garner cemetery tombstone.).

Notes for Sallie Martin:
The "Sequatchie Valley News" reported on Feb. 16, 1913: "Miss Sallie Martin, the 17 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W.H. Martin, of this place was very severely burned Sunday about noon. The young lady was burned very seriously along the right limb from the thigh down to the ankle, the skin coming of in rolls, and her hands, especially the right one, being badly burned.
The family was just gathered for dinner and another sister and brother, Miss Henrie and Mr. Sam Martin, who had been dangerously sick, were at the table for the first time since their illness. The unfortunate girl was leaning over her sister's chair with her back to the open grate, when her dress caught the flames and she was instantly in a blaze. She did not notice herself that her dress had caught fire but was first warned of it by the screams of her convalescent sister, who felt the heat of the flames. The flames burst up over her head, and she started to run to the door, but as she came around the head of the table she was seized by her cousin Jack Case of Chattanooga who was visiting the family and wrapped in a small table cover which he snatched from a nearby table and by his quick action the girl's life was probably saved. The flames were then smothered in various ways and the burning clothes pulled from her which, when thrown upon the floor set fire to the matting, but was extinguished before it could do much harm. Mr.
Case and Mrs. Martin received slight burns in subduing the flames. Mr. Martin had been called to the door and was not present when the accident occurred, but arrived in time to extinguish the burning matting.
Dr. Turner, of Jasper, was summoned by telephone and on arrival dressed the burns which were very serious and painful. Miss Martin had only recently entered the Marion County High School at Jasper, but it will be sometime before she will be able to resume her classes.
Mr. Martin, the father of the young lady who is so badly burned is one of the most prominent citizens of Sequatchie and a large landowner. He has had to contend constantly with sickness in his family this fall and winter. His eldest son, Sam first being seized with typhoid fever, his daughter, Miss Henrie, taking sick soon after with a similar trouble and previous to this several guests of the family being taken sick during their stay."

In the 1870 census she was 14 and living in Battle Creek with her parents and siblings.

In the 1880 Marion County census, Rebecca, at age 23, was still living with her parents in Battle Creek.

During the 1900 census of Marion County, Rebecca and Matthew were living in District 9 with 9 children in the household. The oldest, Lemuel was a child of Matthew and his first wife, Martha Ann Byron. The other 8 children, ranging in age from 18 to 8 months, were children of Rebecca and Matthew. The census taker recorded Rebecca had 8 children with 6 of them living, although 8 children are listed.

By the time of the 1920 census, Rebecca and her family were living in the community of Sherwood in Franklin County, TN. This census list Matthew as 85, Rebecca as 64, Bill as 32, L.A. as 27, John as 25 and Mose as 22.

She was born 21 Jan 1874 in Franklin Co., TN (Source: Lynch Cemetery tombstone.), and died 12 Dec 1929 in Sherwood, Franklin County, TN (Source: Lynch Cemetery tombstone.).

Notes for William Moses Birdwell:
William Moses was listed as 7 years old during the 1880 Marion County census, living in Battle Creek with his parents and older siblings.

By the time of the 1900 census, his mother had died and he, at the age of 26, was living with his father, brother and sister in Battle Creek.

William and Elizabeth were married in 1905 and during the 1910 census were living in Franklin County where he was working for the lime company. William was listed as 30, Bettie was 22 and their son, Arthur was 2 years old. This census states they had been married 5 years and had 2 children with 1 living.

59. Mary C."Polly" Hargis (William Lee, Thomas, Abraham Jr.) was born Feb 1852 in Battle Creek, Marion County, TN (Source: 1900 Grundy Co., TN census.), and died 11 Aug 1944 in Eldorado, Saline County, Illinois (Source: Illinois Death Index.). She married (1) Unknown Tharpe Abt. 1870 (Source: 1930 Sebastian County, Arkansas census.). She married (2) Mack Dodge Abt. 1886. He was born in Ireland, and died Bet. 1893 - 1900 in Tracy City, Grundy County, Tn. (Source: 1900 Grundy Co., TN census.).

Notes for Mary C."Polly" Hargis:
During 1860 Marion Co. census, Mary was 8 years old and living with her parents in Battle Creek.

During 1870 Marion Co. census, Mary was 17 years old and her mother was dead. She was living in Battle Creek with her father, step-mother, and siblings.

In the 1880 Marion Co. census, Mary was living with her uncle, David Floyd Hargis. She was 27 and a widow. One child, Leanna B., age 1, was living with her. It is interesting to note that her oldest child, Frank, 4 years old, is "bound" to Lewis C. and Mary Tharpe, possible grandparents of Frank. Lewis and Mary Tharpe had a son, John C. Tharpe, who could possibly have been Mary's husband, but family members say this is not correct.

Mary married for the second time to Mack Dodge about 1886 and they lived in Grundy County, TN.

The Ike Woodward Chronicles states "Mack Dodge's house burned" in July 1893 in Tracy City, TN.

Mary was in Grundy County during the 1900 census. She was listed as 47 years old, a widow with 5 children and 5 living. She was living next door to her son Frank Tharp and her daughter, Lee A. Morgan.

The "Sequatchie Valley News" reported in their Nov. 15, 1906 editon from Coalmont:"Mrs. Dosge and son, of Tracy, visited her son, Frank Thorp, Saturday.

During the 1910 census, Mary had moved with all her living children to Sebastian County, Arkansas. She, widowed and 57 years old, was living with her sons Frank and George and their families.

When the 1930 census was taken, Mary was living with her daughter, Belle Morgan in Sebastian County, Arkansas. Mary, widowed was 77 years old. This census states she had married for the first time at the age of 18.

According to Mona Hamby, Mary lived in Palmer about 1940--before WW11.
Mary went to Eldorado, Illinois about 1942 where she lived with her daughter-in-law, Mabel. According to Dee Wasson, Mary was bedfast for 6 years with a broken hip, but evidently she had also become mentally infirm, for the Grundy County Circuit Court Clerk, Minnie Northcutt, stated in a letter to Mabel after Bill's death, "It is a blessing that his poor dear old Mother doesn't realize everything."

Dee Wasson, Mary's granddaughter described her as "tiny--weighing around 95 to 100 lbs, wore her dresses to the floor and always an apron, black high top shoes with laces. Her hair was slicked back with a small bun in back. She chewed tobacco and loved aspirin. Perhaps the aspirin kept her alive for 96 years. She often told us that a doctor told the family that she would not live to see her 21st birthday. Did she fool him!"

The Illinois Death Index list Mary's death date as August 11, 1944 in Eldorado, Saline County, Illinois on her death certificate #33251.

She married John Worley 20 Jan 1901 in Tracy City, Grundy Co., TN (Source: Grundy Co. marriage record.).

Notes for Annie J. Tharpe:
In the Grundy County 1900 census, Annie was living with her mother and 2 half-brothers, George and William Dodge.

The Ike Woodard Chronicles state on Jan. 1901 "John Worley and Miss Anna Dodge married".
Since Annie was called Tharpe on the 1900 census and Dodge in the Woodard Chronicles, it is probably she was a Tharpe but the only father she knew was Mack Dodge.

The Ike Woodard Chronicles state in January 1903 "Mrs. John Worley and infant died."

Children of Mary Hargis and Mack Dodge are:
  264 i. George Mack Dodge, born Mar 1887 in Tracy City, Grundy County, Tennessee (Source: 1900 Grundy Co., TN census.). He married Ines Butner 16 Oct 1907 in Grundy County, Tn. (Source: Grundy Co. marriage record.); born 1892 in Tennessee (Source: 1910 Sebastian County, Arkansas census.).

Notes for George Mack Dodge:
During the 1900 Grundy Co. census, George is living with his mother who is widowed. George is working in the coal mines as a trapper at the age of 13.

The "Sequatchie Valley News" reported on May 17, 1906:"Alex Layne and George Dodge left Tuesday for Coal City."

The Nov. 29, 1906 edition of the "Sequatchie Valley News" reported:"George Dodge is stepping high towards Mr. Lankford's."

George and Ines were married by W. J. Cannon, MG.

At the time of the 1910 Sebastian County census, George, age 22 and Ines age 18 were living in the household of Frank Tharp, his half brother. Their mother, Mary Dodge, was also living there. George and Ines had a daughter who was 1 year old.

According to Dee Wasson, a nephew of George, he "left a good wife and a son and lived like a hobo". He never got back in touch with his family.
60. James G. "Jimmy" Hargis (William Lee3, Thomas2, Abraham Jr.1) was born Jul 1854 in Battle Creek, Marion County, TN (Source: Sequatchie Valley News.), and died 28 Feb 1937 in Gruetli, Grundy County, TN (Source: Sequatchie Valley News.). He married Anna L. Adkins 05 Nov 1874 in Grundy County, Tennessee (Source: Grundy Co. 1880 Death Index.). She was born Mar 1858 in Georgia (Source: 1900 Grundy Co., TN census.), and died 14 Nov 1933 in Gruetli, Grundy County, TN (Source: Anna's death certificate.).

Notes for James G. "Jimmy" Hargis:
Jimmy, as he was known, was living in Marion County with his parents during the 1860 census, listed as 6 years old and in the 1870 Marion County census, he listed as 15 years old was with his father, step-mother and siblings.

According to Mona Hargis Hamby, a granddaughter, Anna came to Tracy City with a circuit-riding preacher when she was about 13 years old. When Jimmy saw her he “thought she was the prettiest thing I had seen”. They were married in Grundy County by J.E. Bell JP.

During the 1880 census, Jimmy and Anna were living in Battle Creek with 2 children where Jimmy was farming.

By the time of the 1900 census, Jimmy and Anna were at Tracy City in Grundy County where Jimmy, at age 45, was a carpenter. The census says they had 9 children with 5 living, but only 4 children were still living at home. They were Thomas A. age 18, Levina age 16, Mary J. age 12 and Mack M. age 9. Anna was listed as 42 years old at this time.

When the 1910 census was taken, Jimmy, at age 56, and Anna, at age 51, were listed in Marion County in the Pigeon Springs area. Jimmy was listed as a farmer. Mack, at age 20, was the only child still living at home.

During the 1930 Grundy County census, Jimmy, at age 75 and Anna, at age 72 were living next door to their oldest son, William.

Since Anna went blind the for the last years of her life, Jimmy did the cooking and other household chores in addition to caring for her.

His death was mentioned in the "Sequatchie Valley News" edition of March 11, 1937, stating "James G. Hargis, 83, died at Mt. Vernon, Grundy County, Feb.28. Interment was made in the Colony cemetery. He was born in Marion County near Pigeon Spring in 1854."

There is no tombstone at Swiss Memorial Cemetery for Jimmy and Anna.

Notes for Anna L. Adkins:
Anna was of Cherokee descent. Her Cherokee name was not Adkins, but McNeu. Mona Hamby recalled her grandfather telling her the Adkins name came from a circuit preacher who went to Oklahoma to the Indian reservation where Ann helped them. She returned to Tennessee with them and met Jimmy at church.

Anna was blind the last 20 years of her life from cataracts. She would sit in a dark room all day because the light would hurt her eyes.

He was born 1858 in Tennessee (Source: 1900 Marion Co. TN. census.), and died 16 Apr 1911 in Etowah County, Alabama (Source: Alabama Death Certificate #394.).

Notes for Rutha Ann Hargis:
When the 1860 census was taken, Rutha Ann was living in Battle Creek with her parents.

In the 1870 census, she is living with her father and step-mother, Elizabeth, in Battle Creek.

In 1880, she is living in Battle Creek with her father and second step-mother, Malvina.

Rutha died before the 1900 census was taken. At that time Julius was remarried to Ella ____ . Rutha's son Hugh told his children their stepmother was very mean to them, and this is probably true because during the 1900 census, Hugh and Vinnie are living with Spencer Anderson, who was a first cousin to Rutha.

During the 1910 census, Julius has remarried again and is living in Kyles Springs in Jackson County, Alabama.

+ 275 iv. Masenie Pyburn, born Oct 1893 (Source: 1900 Marion Co. TN. census.).

64. Abraham B. "Abe"4 Hargis (William Lee3, Thomas2, Abraham Jr.1) was born 23 Feb 1869 in Battle Creek, Marion Co., TN (Source: Abe Hargis Bible.), and died 18 Feb 1961 in Gruetli, Grundy Co., TN (Source: personal knowledge.). He married Barbara Jane Headrick 22 Nov 1894 in Marion County, Tennessee (Source: Abe Hargis Bible.), daughter of Thomas Headrick and Louisa Anderson. She was born 15 Nov 1873 in Pigeon Springs, Marion County, TN (Source: Abe Hargis Bible.), and died 11 Mar 1944 in Gruetli, Grundy County, TN (Source: Barb's obit.).

Notes for Abraham B. "Abe" Hargis:
During the Marion County 1870 census, Abe was 1 year old and with his parents in Battle Creek. In 1880, he was in Marion County with his father, step-mother and siblings at the age of 11.

At the time of the Marion County 1900 census, Abe age 27 and wife, Barb age 27, were farming in Battle Creek with 2 children, Maud age 4 and Robert age 2.

By 1904, Abe was doing logging work on the mountain. It seems as if he worked in the Gruetli area for a while with his family still in Battle Creek. An edition of "Mrs Grundy" printed Oct.13, 1904 states: Mr. Birdwell and family and Abe Hargis spent Sunday at the Colony". The Sept.21, 1905 edition states "Abe Hargis went to see his best girl Sunday." Evidently the family was getting ready to join Abe in their new home, for an edition printed Oct.5, 1905 states "Abe Hargis and family have returned from Pigeon Springs."

Family members tell me Sam Werner gave Abe land in Gruetli in return for the labor of timbering. There are several pictures in the family of Abe carrying huge logs with oxen or mules. I can remember an old oxen yoke that hung in Abe's barn long after he had become too old to do heavy physical labor.

When Abe and Barb first moved to Gruetli, they built a house "up by the old walnut tree", but in 1915, they moved into their new home which was a two storied clapboard with the kitchen, Abe and Barb's bedroom, dining room, living room and a small bedroom downstairs. upstairs was two large bedrooms. Although their daughter Jossie was only 4 years old she could remember when the family moved into the new house. It was her first memory of her childhood.

Barb was noted in the community for her table of good food and her cellar filled with canned goods for winter. Abe was a very gentle man. He always felt a partiality to the youngest member of a family. Whenever my brothers would get into a fight, Abe would begin hitting the older brother with his cane because the youngest was being "abused by an older brother". I have heard their daughter, Hazel say many times that she had much rather her father pick out fabric for a new dress. He would pick prettier fabric than her mother.

About 1925, when the state highway was being built in Gruetli, Abe and Barb took in boarders from the workmen, but they had to abide by Barb's house rules, such as no hard liquor or gambling. During the years of the Depression, times were hard but the family did not go hungry. They raised large food crops and the youngest son, Hubert, provided the family with meat from the forest.

During the 1930 Grundy County census, Abe and Barb still had 4 children at home, Rosa, Jossie, Hazel and Hubert.

At the time of the elections in Grundy County in 1936, Abe was one of the judges in the Gruetli voting area.

An April 1946 article on the "Grundy County Herald" stated Abe Hargis and 2 other gentlemen were named to the Beer Commission.

Evidently Abe had a rather dry sense of humor. He attended church services infrequently but Raymond Hargis recalled once when he attended the Gruetli Church of Christ. Mr. Leck Pickett was late starting the worship service and Brother Luke Gibbs—who was notorious for his very long sermons—was the preacher that day. After the service was over a member invited Abe to come back and Abe replied he probably would not return. When the member asked why, Abe replied "Well, Leck won't start and Luke won't stop."

Barb died at the homeplace of cancer of the pancreas. About 1954, Abe sold the homeplace and lived with his daughters, Maude, Jossie or Hazel, for the rest of his life. His obit reads: "ABE HARGIS, WELL KNOWN GRUETLI RESIDENT DIES AT 91--Abe Hargis, 91, of Gruetli passed away Saturday morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Claude Scott. He lacked only a few days of being 92 as he was born in Marion County on February 23, 1869, the son of William and Elizabeth Richardson Hargis. He was a retired timberman. Surviving are four sons; Jasper Hargis of Willow Creek, Calif.; Alfred Hargis of Laager; and Robert and Hubert Hargis of Gruetli; three daughters: Mrs. Edward (Maude) Sweeton, Nashville; Mrs. Josie Johnson, Rocky Face, Ga.; and Mrs. Hazel Scott, Gruetli; a sister, Mrs. Ed Yarworth, Tracy City; and a number of grandchildren. Funeral services for Mr. Hargis were conducted by Bailey Brooks of Palmer at the chapel of Fall Creek Cemetery on Monday afternoon at two o'clock. Interment was made in Fall Creek Cemetery with Foster and Son in charge of arrangements."

The pallbearers at Abe's 2 p.m. funeral were grandsons and grandsons-in-law, Delbert Hargis, Charles Sweeton, Leonard Sweeton, Kenneth Sweeton, Kenneth Scott, Paul Sanders and Buddy Griswold.

Notes for Barbara Jane Headrick:
Barbara was listed as 5 years old during the 1880 Marion County census, living in Pigeon Springs with her parents and siblings.

Barb died of Pancreas Cancer.

Her obit reads: "Mrs. Barbara Headrick Hargis, age 70 years, passed away at her home in Gruetli Saturday afternoon, March 11, 1944, after an illness of several months. The deceased was well known as she had spent practically all her life in Gruetli. She had been a faithful member of the Church of Christ for over 16 years. She was a devoted wife, mother and grandmother, and loved by all who knew her. She is survived by her husband, Abe Hargis, eight children, Mrs. Edward Sweeton, Mrs. Claude Scott, Robert, Jasper, Rosalee, Alfred, Josie and Pfc. Hubert Hargis, with the U.S. Army somewhere in Australia, fourteen grandchildren and two great-grandchildren, two brothers, Lem Headrick, Tracy City, Robert Headrick, Sumiton, Ala., one sister, Mrs. Mary Dove, Tracy City. Funeral services were held at Fall Creek Cemetery on Monday afternoon, March 13. Services were conducted by Brother Bailey Brooks of the Church of Christ at Palmer."

Barb's funeral was at 2 p.m.

Notes for Rosa Lee Hargis:
Rosa never married. There was a period of time when she worked in Chattanooga caring for a family of children. She was a very dear aunt who gathered other children under her wing as if they were her own. It was always the delight of this author's life to spend a few nights with her and pretend I was an only child. She would make lovely dresses for me and never used a pattern. There was payment for these lovely clothes. I had to learn to sew and to crochet. Of course, now I can thank her for that.

Rosa was a faithful member of the Gruetli Church of Christ.

In the early 1950's, Rosa developed breast cancer, but never told anyone in the family or went to a doctor. By the time the family realized there was a problem it was too late for any medical help. Her sisters, Maude, Josie and Hazel, took care of her until she died in the home of her brother, Jasper.

The "Grundy County Herald" reported in June 1955 "Miss Rosa Lee Hargis died." Rosa's obit reads: "Miss Rosa Lee Hargis, 50, died Thursday, June 30th at the home of a brother, Jasper Hargis, of Gruetli. Miss Hargis had been in declining health for some time. Survivors include her father, Abe Hargis; three sisters, Mrs. Josie Johnson, Mrs. Hazel Scott and Mrs. Edward Sweeton; four brothers, Jasper, Hubert, Robert and Alfred, all of Gruetli. Funeral services were conducted Saturday, July 2, at the Gruetli Church of Christ of which she was a member. Brother L.C. Massey and Brother Luke Gibbs officiated. Notes for Jossie Lena Hargis:
Jossie stayed single many years. She was a schoolteacher and spent many years working toward her degree in Education as circumstances allowed. She taught school at Victoria in Gruetli when there was only 2 teachers for grades 1 through 8. She taught at the new Swiss Memorial School in Gruetli-Laager. After she and Buford moved to Rocky Face, Ga. she continued to teach there.

Jossie was 42 years old when she and Buford married. While Jossie never had any children, she helped raise Buford's daughter from a previous marriage and she and Buford adopted a son, Michael Todd Johnson.

When Jossie became ill with a series of heart attacks she was taken to the hospital in Dalton where she died 2 days later. Her obit reads: "Jossie L. Johnson, 74, of Crider Hill Road, Rocky Face, Ga., died Sunday in a Dalton, Ga., hospital. She was the widow of Buford Johnson. Notes for William Lee Hargis:
At the time of the 1880 Marion County census, Bill at age 9 was living with his father, step-mother and siblings in Battle Creek.

Bill always signed his name William E., but his daughter, Mary Lea, is supposed to be named after him.

By the time of the 1900 census of Marion County, Bill and Jane had been married 9 years. They lived in South Pittsburg where Bill was working as a moulder. Their only surviving son, Leonard was 6 years old.

In the 1910 census, Bill and Jane are still in South Pittsburg with their son Leonard who is listed as 15 on this census.

When the 1920 census of Marion County was taken, Jane had died and Bill was married to Sudie. He was still working as a moulder at a pipe foundry. Sudie's sister, Mary Jane was living with them.

Bill at age 58 and Sudie at age 38 are listed on the 1930 Marion County census with three children at home. The children are listed as Luther M. age 8 (this would have been Newton), Mary L. age 6 and George W. at age 2.

Notes for Walter R. Shadrick:
During the 1880 census of Hamilton County, Walter was listed as 1 year old, living with his parents in District 4. His father, Anderson, was a farmer.

The "Sequatchie Valley News" reported on Feb. 22, 1906: "There was a little trouble on Shad Hill Sunday. Gilliam Hatfield and Walter Shadrick became involved in a quarrel which resulted in a fight and some parties standing by attempted to stop the fight when Rufe Shadrick drew his pistol and commanded hands off. Finally Gilliam Hatfield got loose and started for his house but Walter Shadrick followed him and knocked him down, using him very roughly. Hatfield got loose and ran in is house and got his gun and shot Shadrick, the entire load of No. 4 shot taking effect in his thigh. Amputation may have to be made....."

The "Ike Woodard Chronicle" of February 1906 states: "Walter Shadrick dies from wounds received from Gilliam Hatfield".

John was working as a coal miner. They had 3 living children at this time, but according to the census, there had also been 3 to die. The living children were Frank age 11, Sam age 7 and Beulah age 3.

It seems as if John and his family would return to Grundy County to live at times, for Margie Hargis states their son Lee, born in 1911 was born in Tracy City.

The family was also in Birmingham during the 1920 census. John was listed as 41 and Sammie as 42. They had 5 children still home for Frank had married and was living elsewhere in Birmingham. TN. census.), and died 17 Sep 1939 in Battle Creek, Marion County, TN (Source: Alicia Anderson.). He married (1) Margaret Carmichael Tate Abt. 1876 (Source: 1910 Marion Co.TN census.), daughter of John Tate and Rachel Carmichael. She was born 18 Oct 1835 in Battle Creek, Marion County, TN (Source: Emma Martin Oswald.), and died 1922 in Battle Creek, Marion County, TN (Source: tombstone at Tate Cemetery.). She was born 28 Oct 1874 in Tennessee (Source: tombstone at Tate Cemetery.), and died 07 Jul 1968 in Battle Creek, Marion County, Tn. (Source: tombstone at Tate Cemetery.).

Notes for Spencer Edward Anderson:
At the 1860 Marion County census, Spencer at the age of 7, was living in Battle Creek with his parents and siblings.

At the 1870 Marion County census, he was listed as 17 years old and living with his parents and siblings in Battle Creek.

During the Marion County 1880 census Spencer at age 28 and Margaret at age 44 were living in Battle Creek with their son, Edward S. who was 2 years old.

An edition of the "South Pittsburg Hustler" describes Spencer as one "of the county's best farmers" on April 30, 1899.

At the time of the 1900 Marion County census, at the age of 47 Spencer's household consisted of his wife and son plus Jennie Gilliam who was a niece of Margaret and was caring for her, and Hugh and Viny Pyburn who were children of Ruth Ann Hargis, a 1st cousin of Spencer. Hugh and Viny's mother had died, their father, Julius Pyburn, had remarried and the children did not care for their stepmother.

The Nov. 13, 1908 edition of the "Sequatchie Valley News" carried the following article: "DISASTROUS FIRE ON BATTLE CREEK--LARGE BARN BURNED TO THE GROUND--Large barn and Out Buildings on Spencer Anderson's Place Burn--Eight Horses Burned to Death--Loss $3500.--Last Sunday evening about nine o'clock, the large barn on the place of Mr. Spencer Anderson on Battle Creek was burned to the ground and all of its valuable contents destroyed. It is not known how the fire originated but it is supposed to be purely accidental as no one would have dared set fire to the place so early in the evening and before the family had retired for the night. The loss was very heavy as only seven hundred dollars of insurance was carried. Eight horses, one fine steer, 600 bushels of corn, 100 bushels of potatoes and a large quantity of hay was burned as were all of the small outbuildings around the barn. It is estimated that at least $3500. will represent the total loss, occasioned by the fire. Mr. Anderson is one of the county's leading farmers and is widely known throughout the county. His misfortune is regretted by his many friends."

When the 1910 census was taken, Spencer at age 58 was still in Battle Creek with Margaret. Jennie was still caring for her. They were living next door to their son and his family.

When Margaret died, Spencer and Jennie were married. Margaret and Jennie are buried on each side of Spencer in the Tate Cemetery.

Notes for Virginia Josephine "Jennie" Gilliam:
After Margaret, Spencer's first wife became an invalid, Jenny, as she was called, came to the Anderson house hold to care for Margaret and the family. Jenny was a niece of Margaret. She was there during the 1900 census of Marion County where she was listed as 24 years old.

Jenny was with the family during the 1910 census. She was listed as 20 years old, but this was a mistake on the census taker's part.

During the 1920 Marion County census of Battle Creek, Jennie at age 45, was living on Dixie Highway Road with her daughter, Daisy who was 6 years old.

Jennie is buried on one side of Spencer and Margaret is on the other at Tate Cemetery.

The SSDI list Jennie's birthday as Sept. 28, 1874 and her last residence as Metairie, Jefferson County, Louisiana. Her SS# was 435-78-6429.

Her young life was spent being mother to her six brothers and sisters since their mother died---her father, (T.W.) really appreciated her. Then in 1923, her brother lost his wife when Allie Jane was born, so Aunt Jane took her, and kept her six years, until Allie Jane had to begin school. A second brother, Jasper, with two daughters, Virginia and Dorothy, (who were eight and ten) lost his wife, so Jane and Lisha moved in to help them out. A third adopted (in so many years) was Cecil Pace who had no place to live so they took him in for three years,...during the depression of the thirties, she and Lisha moved to Akron and he worked in a rubber plant, but as times got better, they returned to her old home place they had rented. Jane had the Comfort, Tennessee, Post Office in one of the rooms of her home."
Everybody in the area had to come for their mail so Jane had a kind work for each of them....Her husband was elected County Sheriff, so her new home was the Marion County jail at Jasper, Tennessee. After this they bought a home in South Pittsburg, and spent their last years...."

Notes for Delitha Speegle:
During the Marion County census of 1860, Delitha (who was called Telitha in this census) was listed as 4 years old, living with her parents and siblings.

Delitha's mother died somewhere between 1860 and 1870, and during the 1870 census Delitha was living with her father, sister and cousins who would soon become her step-siblings. Delitha was listed as 16 years old at this census.

Delitha and Job were married in 1872. Her name is listed as Delithia on the marriage license.

The minutes of the Primitive Baptist Church of Fall Creek state they received "one experience--Telitte Ross". This was in November 1873. The April 1876 minutes state Deletha Ross was baptized. The minutes later state she left "by letter" but no date is given. Delitha's in-laws, John and Nancy Ross, were also members of this church.

Job died in January of 1880 and at the time of the census, Delitha, at age 23, was living in Marion County with her brother James as head of household. Her four children, ranging in age from 7 to 6 months are with her. Obviously this was a hard period for Delitha with a new baby in December and her husband dying in January.

Notes for Job Ross:
Job, age 7, was living with his parents and siblings in District 5 of Marion County during the 1860 census.

Notes for Caldena Hargis:
During the Grundy County census of 1870, Cal was living with his parents.

In September of 1899 Ike Woodard stated in his "Chronicles" -Mrs. Ca. Hargis and child died.

In the 1900 census of Grundy County, Cal is boarding with Joseph Sigler in the 13th district. He was listed as a coal miner and widowed. The children, James Amos and Marion Adolph were living in Marion County with Martha's parents, James and Oma Roberts.

Although Cal and his second wife, Maudie, had no children, she raised his children by Martha. In the 1910 census they are in Grundy County. The "Ike Woodward Chronicles" dated March 1901 state "Cal Hargis and Miss Maude Sartain married." They had been married by W. B. Pattie, JP.

Cal was a member of Sewanee Lodge, F&AM of Tracy City. A grandson, Howard, would recall that on Saturday morning, Cal would get a mule and go to Gizzard Cove in Marion County and come back with a jug of whiskey on each side of the saddle. He was going to his former in-laws for the whiskey.

After the death of Maudie, Cal married Janie Shrum. They were married by John Wright, JP. He despised his wife's family and in his will was emphatic that they receive no portion of his estate. His will dated March 27, 1936, witnessed by B.S. Roddy, Rev. A.C. Adams and J.W. Arbuckle reads, "I, C.D. Hargis of Tracy City, Tenn., Grundy County, Tenn., do make and publish this as my last will and testament, hereby revoking any and all wills by me heretofore made. I hereby give to Sarah Hargis and heirs a piece of land in the 5th Civil District of Grundy County, known as part of the Allmond land beginning on the South Side of the old Ried Hill railroad running north with enter of big ditch contains about 8 acres (eight) more or less. The rest of my real estate and personal property, together with what money I may have, I give to my daughter Maudie Hargis. I hereby appoint my wife, Jane Hargis executrix to serve without bond. I hereby appoint my wife Jane Hargis to be guardian over my child if she is a minor at the time of my death, and to serve without bond. I, hereby desire that none of my wife's people shall receive any of my property or benefits of same. If my daughter dies without a heir I desire that what property shall be left by her shall to to Hargis kin. I also appoint the Worshipful Master, Senior Warden and Junior Warden of Sewanee lodge 405, F & AM of Tracy City whoever they may be, to see that my will is carried out as above stated."

A grandson of Cal's sister Amanda, Theo Hall, recalled that Cal was buried on a hill outside Tracy City in his yard. He said that after Cal was buried, a neighbor said, "That's the contrariest (sic) old SOB that ever was."

Cal's will was probated in Grundy County June 1, 1943 with Hubert Lusk as clerk.

Cal and Janie's daughter was named Maudie after his second wife.

She was born 07 May 1863 in Tennessee (Source: Anthanette Burgess Hargis.), and died 1939 (Source: Bryant Cemetery tombstone.).

Notes for William G. "Willie" Hargis:
William was listed on the 1870 Marion County census as 9 years old, living with his parents and younger siblings in Battle Creek.

At the time of the 1880 census, William was listed as 18 years old and living in Sequatchie County, boarding with Sarah Tollett.

He married Nancy Tollett in 1883. They were married in Marion County by his great uncle, David F. Hargis, JP.

By the time of the 1900 census, William and Nancy, both listed as 38 years old and living in Sequatchie County, had 6 living children and one that had died. Their children as listed were Dallas H. age 13, James L. age 9, Thomas O. age 7, William C. age 5 Isaac F. age 4 and Lillie J. age 2. William and Nancy had been married 17 years during this census.

On the 1910 census, William and Nancy, married for 27 years, are still in Sequatchie County with 6 children as listed, Lee age 22, Standifer age 20, William C. age 17, Isaac F. age 15, Lilla J. age 11 and Mary L. age 8.

There seems to be discrepancies between the 1900 and 1910 census regarding the children of William and Nancy. For instance, on the 1900 census, Lee is not mentioned and he would have been 12 years old. There is listed James L., but I have been given a birthday for James, called Jim, and Standifer is not mentioned, but he would have been 10 years old. On the 1910 census, neither Dallas, James or Thomas are mentioned, but the census taker states there have been 8 children with 6 to live.

William ran a sawmill in Daus, Tennessee.

At the time of the 1920 census, William at age 56 and Nancy at age 55 were farming in Sequatchie County. Their 2 daughters, Lillie age 20 and Mary age 18 were living with them.

He was born Aug 1862 in Battle Creek, Marion County, TN (Source: 1900 Marion Co. TN. census.).

Notes for Mahala Caroline Hargis:
Caroline, as she was called, was listed as 6 years old during the 1870 Marion County census of Battle Creek, living with her parents and siblings.

Caroline's parents were divorced after this and during the 1880 census, Caroline was living with her mother and siblings in Sequatchie County. Caroline was listed as 15 years old.

Caroline and Ben were married in 1885, but she did not get a good husband according to family members. A cousin, Earl Hargis, stated "Caroline had a hard life for Ben was a "no-good" man. A granddaughter, Minnie Thorpe Gorin, stated "they fought a lot and Caroline would run Ben off. A son, Austin, stated Ben "did not drink, but chased women all time." Austin also stated Ben moved from home permanently after he (Austin) broke his (Ben's) hip for hurting Caroline. This was after Austin became an adult.

At the time of the 1900 Marion County census, Caroline at age 35 and Ben listed as 47, were living in Battle Creek. They had 6 children at this time, twins Mary J. and Rebecca age 13, Lewis age 10, Thomas age 7, John age 4 and Sarah age 2.

She married Robert Lorenzo Sherrill 06 Aug 1878 in Coffee County, TN (Source: Charles Sherrill.). He was born 1858 in Tennessee (Source: Charles Sherrill.), and died Abt. 1894 in Black Fork, Arkansas (Source: Charles Sherrill.).

Notes for Rebecca A. Henley:
Rebecca was listed as 6 months old at the time of the 1860 Grundy County census, living with her parents and older sister in the Pelham Valley area, next door to her grandparents, Campbell and Malinda Henley.

Rebecca’s mother died soon afterward and her father married again to Margaret Bell. They had several children of their own, being 1/2 brothers and sisters of Rebecca.

She and Robert were married in 1876 and during the 1880 census were living in Coffee county with their daughter, Mary.

Charles Sherrill states Rebecca and Robert moved to western Arkansas about 1892 near Black Fork, where he was headmaster of a four-room school. As would have been common at that time, Robert was also farming. He was killed there in a farming accident when his team ran away with him while he was plowing. He was run over by the equipment.
After the death of Robert, Rebecca returned to Pelham Valley. At the time of the 1900 census, she was living near her half brothers, Sam and James. This census states Rebecca had 5 children with 3 living. The 2 children who are dead would be Mary and possible there was a son named Horace. The children with Rebecca at this time are Henry age 18, John age 13 and William age 9.

When the 1910 census was taken, Rebecca was still in Pelham Valley. Her oldest son, Henry had moved west, but 2 sons, John age 23 and William age 16 were still with her.

Charles Sherrill states family stories tell of a 2nd marriage of Rebecca. Her new husband, Samuel Thomas Sherrill was a cousin in some degree of her first husband, Robert.

In 1914 in Franklin S. T. and Rebecca Sherrill sold their interest in her father's estate to S.W. Jackson.

During the 1920 census of Coffee County, Rebecca at age 62 and Samuel at age 73 were farming in District 11.

Levina Henley (Mahala Caroline Hargis, Thomas, Abraham Jr.) was born 30 Mar 1862 in Pelham Valley, Grundy County, TN (Source: Moore Funeral Home Records.), and died 18 Apr 1958 in Grundy County, TN. She married James Carter Partin 02 Oct 1879 in Franklin County, TN, son of John Partin and Mary Morris. He was born 1857 in Pelham Valley, Grundy County, TN (Source: 1880 Franklin Co., TN census.), and died Aft. 1920.

Notes for Levina Henley:
At the time of the 1880 Franklin County census, Vina, as she was known, and Carter, as he was called, were newlyweds. She was listed as 17 years old and he was 23.

By the time of the 1910 census, Vina, age 48 and Carter, age 53, were farming in Coffee County. There had been 15 children to be born, although only 8 of them were living. Seven of those 8 are living with them during this census, Margarret 21, Eva 18, George 15, Lawrence 13, Robert L. 10 Caroline 8 and Eliza 5 years old.

When the 1920 Coffee County census was taken, Vina was listed as head of household, even though Carter was still living. Possibly he had become too infirm, either mentally or physically, to carry the responsibilities of a household. Vina was listed as 57 and Carter was 63. They still had 5 children living at home, Margerette E. age 30 and working as a dressmaker, James L. age 23 and the farm operator, Robert L. age 21 and farm laborer, Caroline age 18 and Eliza B. age 14.

The Moore Funeral Home records give the following information about Vina: She died at age 96 in Grundy Co. on April 18, 1958, her physical was Dr. Coutter Young of Manchester, burial was to be April 20th at Pelham in a family cemetery with the funeral service at Betsey Willis Baptist Church. Her place of birth was Grundy County on March 30, 1862 to Capt. John P. Henley and Caroline Harges. Vina's residence was at Pelham.

Notes for James Lawrence Partin:
Lawrence, as he was called, was listed on the 1910 Coffee County census, at age 13, living with his parents and siblings.

When the Coffee County 1920 census was taken, he was called James L. at age 23, living with his parents and siblings in District 12. In this census, his mother, Vina, was called the head of household although his father was listed. If this means his father was incapacitated, that would explain why Lawrence is called the farm operator.

The "Elk River History" states Lawrence married a Wilson.

437  v.  Robert L. Partin, born 1900 (Source: 1910 Coffee Co. TN census.).

Notes for Robert L. Partin:

The first paper trail of Thomas is the 1870 Grundy County census. During this census he was living with his prospective step-father, Alfred Speegle. There is a lot of incorrect information on this census. Alfred is listed as 30 when he was about 44, the first child, Mary J. who was a daughter of Alfred and Rebecca Hargis was listed as 28 when she was about 20, the second child, listed as Tellitha and whose correct name was Delitha, who was a full sister of Mary J., was 16, Thomas, listed surname of Speegle and age 15, was really Thomas Jackson age 11, his brother Christopher, listed surname of Speegle age 13, was really Christopher Jackson age 9 and sister Vina, listed surname Speegle age 10, was really Lavina A. Jackson age 7.

During the 1880 census of Marion County, Thomas was living with his aunt, Tennessee Jackson and her husband, Thomas Collins in Battle Creek. Thomas was listed as 21 years old and working as a farm laborer. His mother, Lavina, is living 3 houses away with his step-father, Alfred Speegle. His brother, Christopher and sister, Lavina are living with their mother.

Tom and Jane were married about 1884 and lived near Tracy City in Grundy County near her parents for more than 10 years before moving to Alabama. Tom began working in the coal mines at this time with his in-laws. They had 2 children to die there, the last being in 1895.

Tom and Jane moved to Alabama after 1896 and during the 1900 census were living in St. Clair County, Alabama in the town of Coal City where he was working as a coal miner. He was listed as 41 years old and Jane was 36. The census states there had been 7 children with 5 living, although there are only 4 living at home. The children at home are Pearl age 13, Chris age 6, Dallas age 4 born in Tennessee and Mable age 7 months and born in Alabama.

At some time after 1905, Tom and Jane moved again, this time to Degan, Oklahoma, where he continued to work in the coal mines. In the 1910 Latimer County, Okla. census, their household consisted of Thomas, Jane, Christopher age 16, Dallas age 14 and Grace age 5 who was born while the family was in Alabama.

When the 1920 census was taken, Tom and Jane were in Degan, Wilburton City, Oklahoma. He, at age 60, was working in the coal mines and Jane was listed as 54. They have 2 children still home, Dallas age 25 and Grace age 15.

Tom was living with his daughter, Grace Penney, in Hughes County, Oklahoma during the 1930 census. Tom was listed a a widow at age 71. For some reason, he and Jane were living in separate residences at this time, for she was living in Arizona.

Thomas' Arizona Death Certificate #29 states his parents were Lavina Hargis and Christopher Jackson. At the time of his death he was living at 1309 20th Street, Douglas Arizona. His cause of death is listed as coronary thrombosis and upper respiration infection.

Notes for Martha Jane Hargis:
Jane, as she was called in later years, was listed on the 1870 Marion County census as 5 years old, living in Battle Creek with her parents and younger brothers.

In the 1880 census of the Battle Creek area of Marion County, she was 15 years old and living with her parents and siblings.

She and Tom, who was her first cousin, were married about 1884.

When her father, Abraham Dallas Hargis, died in 1924, the Grundy County newspaper, "Mrs. Grundy" listed Mrs.
Tom Jackson, of Wilburton Okla. as one of the survivors.

During the 1930 census, Jane was living in Cochise County, Arizona. She lived alone at the age of 62.

Jane's death certificate, Arizona # 50, states she was born in Tracy City, Tenn and her parents were Dallas Hargis and Mary Elizabeth Travis. She died of "shock following fracture of femur". She was living at 1309 20th Street in Douglas, Cochise County, Arizona at the time of her death.

Mable was born in Alabama, probably in the town of Coal City which is located in St. Clair County, where she was living during the 1900 census. At this time she was listed as 7 months old, living with her parents and older siblings.

Mable must have died young for she is not listed with the family in later census reports, even during the 1910 census in Latimer County, Oklahoma when she would have been 10 or 11 years old.

Joseph Wheeler^4 Speegle (Melvina "Vinnie"^2 Hargis, Thomas^2, Abraham Jr.^1) was born 03 Sep 1871 in Battle Creek, Marion County, TN (Source: Tracy City Cemetery tombstone.), and died 28 Oct 1946 in Tracy City, Grundy County, TN (Source: Tracy City Cemetery tombstone.). Notes for Thomas Henry Jackson:
The first paper trail of Thomas is the 1870 Grundy County census. During this census he was living with his prospective step-father, Alfred Speegle. There is a lot of incorrect information on this census. Alfred is listed as 30 when he was about 44, the first child, Mary J. who was a daughter of Alfred and Rebecca Hargis was listed as 28 when she was about 20, the second child, listed as Tellitha and whose correct name was Delitha, who was a full sister of Mary J., was 16, Thomas, listed surname of Speegle and age 15, was really Thomas Jackson age 11, his brother Christopher, listed surname of Speegle age 13, was really Christopher Jackson age 9 and sister Vina, listed surname Speegle age 10, was really Lavina A. Jackson age 7.

During the 1880 census of Marion County, Thomas was living with his aunt, Tennessee Jackson and her husband, Thomas Collins in Battle Creek. Thomas was listed as 21 years old and working as a farm laborer. His mother, Lavina, is living 3 houses away with his step-father, Alfred Speegle. His brother, Christopher and sister, Lavina are living with their mother.

Tom and Jane were married about 1884 and lived near Tracy City in Grundy County near her parents for more than 10 years before moving to Alabama. Tom began working in the coal mines at this time with his in-laws. They had 2 children to die there, the last being in 1895.

Tom and Jane moved to Alabama after 1896 and during the 1900 census were living in St. Clair County, Alabama in the town of Coal City where he was working as a coal miner. He was listed as 41 years old and Jane was 36. The census states there had been 7 children with 5 living, although there are only 4 living at home. The children at home are Pearl age 13, Chris age 6, Dallas age 4 born in Tennessee and Mable age 7 months and born in Alabama.
At some time after 1905, Tom and Jane moved again, this time to Degan, Oklahoma, where he continued to work in the coal mines. In the 1910 Latimer County, Okla. census, their household consisted of Thomas, Jane, Christopher age 16, Dallas age 14 and Grace age 5 who was born while the family was in Alabama.

When the 1920 census was taken, Tom and Jane were in Degan, Wilburton City, Oklahoma. He, at age 60, was working in the coal mines and Jane was listed as 54. They have 2 children still home, Dallas age 25 and Grace age 15.

Tom was living with his daughter, Grace Penney, in Hughes County, Oklahoma during the 1930 census. Tom was listed a a widow at age 71. For some reason, he and Jane were living in separate residences at this time, for she was living in Arizona.

Thomas' Arizona Death Certificate #29 states his parents were Lavina Hargis and Christopher Jackson. At the time of his death he was living at 1309 20th Street, Douglas Arizona. His cause of death is listed as coronary thrombosis and upper respiration infection.

Jack and Lula were married in Grundy County by Zehadie Bain. They moved to Whitwell where their oldest child, George was born, but after his death just 4 months later, they moved back to Tracy City and bought land from his father, A.D. Hargis.

At the time of the 1900 Grundy County census, they were living in Tracy City where Jack was working in the coal mines. Jack was 33 and Lula was 25 years old and they owned their own home. They had 4 children in their household, Garnet age 7, Mollie age 5, Bonnie age 2 and Earl who was a baby.

The 1910 Grundy County census list the family as living in Tracy City and Jack, at the age of 44 working in the coal mines. Lula was 35 and the children's ages were Garnett age 17 and working in the coal mines, Molly age 14, Bonnie age 12 and Earl 10 years old.

When the 1920 census of Grundy County was taken. Jack was 53 and working as a driver in the coal mines. Lula was 45 and the only child still home was Earl who was 20 years old.

Lula died soon after the 1920 census was taken and Jack married again 3 years later. The "Sequatchie Valley News" reported in their November 8, 1923 issue "Jack Hargis, of Tracy City, and Miss Nellie Bennett, of Kelso, were married Oct. 30, at Fayetteville."
During the 1930 Grundy County census, Jack, at age 63 was no longer working. Nellie was listed as 53 years old and Earl, who was still home was 30. Earl was working as a barber in his own shop. Living in the household also was Jack's mother, Mary Elizabeth (Travis) Hargis. She was widowed and 72 years old.

She was born 11 Apr 1869 in Tennessee (Source: California Death Index.), and died 05 Oct 1947 in Colton, San Bernardino County, California (Source: California Death Index.).

Notes for Joseph Wheeler Hargis:
Joe was listed on the 1870 Marion County census as 1 year old, living with his parents and older siblings in Battle Creek.

During the 1880 census of Marion County, he was 11 years old, and still living in Battle Creek with his family. During this census, he was called William J., but since this is the only census using the name--all others use Joseph W.--and the family states his name as Joseph Wheeler Hargis, evidently the census taker was mistaken.

Joe and Jennie were married about 1888 and at the time of the 1900 Grundy County census, were living in Tracy City 2 houses from his older brother, Thomas. Joe and Jennie were listed as 31 years old and they had 4 children at this time, Walter P. age 11, Olive D. age 9, Robert T. age 3 and Joseph W. age 1. Joe was working in the coal mines.

Earl Hargis related Joe moved to Arkansas and was town marshal there.

Joe had first moved his family to Oklahoma. During the 1910 Latimer County, Oklahoma census, they were living in Wilburton. Joe and Jennie (called Janie) were 42 years old and 3 of their children were still home, Walter age 21 and working in the coal mines, Robert age 12 and Joseph age 10. Joe was also working in the coal mines.
Living in the same county was their daughter, Olive, who was married to Mack Heatherly, and Joe's sister, Jane, who was married to Thomas Jackson.

During the 1920 census Joe at age 49 was living in Hartford, Sebastian County, Arkansas with his wife Jennie who was listed as 51 and his son Robert T. who was 22 years old. Joe was working as an officer of City Marshal and Robert was working as a coal miner.

The Robert Taylor Hargis family, descendants of Joe, state "Joseph was a deputy marshal in Oklahoma Territory. He was said to be an exceptional man, fearless and dedicated to law enforcement. He carried two pistols, a 44 Cal. on a 45 rame and a double action 38 Colt revolver and was expert with them. He was not a large man. He fell from his horse as Grandmaster of a parade, taken home and later passed away."

During the 1920 Marion County census, George, at age 53 and Mary at age 47, were living in South Pittsburg where George was working as a blacksmith. They had a daughter at home, Elizabeth, age 13.

George's obit reads:
The anvil of our veteran town blacksmith is as silent as death and smoke no longer emanates from the cracks in the wall of the old shop on the alley between Third and Fourth street----"Uncle George" Thompson is no more. We are told that many callers at the stand where "Uncle George," as he was familiarly known and who happened not to know of the death of its owner; have diligently inquired as to why the doors were closed and the fires drawn, only to be turned away by the intelligence that the hand that these many years operated the antiquated bellows is stilled in death. George Washington Thompson was born in the Battle Creek settlement on the 8th day of September 1868, the son of Nancy and Samuel Thompson. He spent his early boyhood roaming the hills of this mountainous section and in helping his father till the soil in the summer months. He attended the district school and, as was the case with many of the boys of this early period, procured a very scant education. On the 10th day of February, 1889, he was married to Mary Jane Smith and to this union four children were born; three girls, Mrs. Everett Raulston, Frankie Lee and Mrs. West Taylor; one boy Horace. Mrs. Taylor and some grandchildren are the only surviving members of the family, the wife having preceded him to the grave on March 20, 1927. The veteran blacksmith passed peacefully away at his home on Pine avenue and Fifth street Thursday afternoon, October 22., at 2 o'clock, after a brief illness. Funeral services were held the following day at 10:00 o'clock a.m., at the American Legion hall conducted by Rev. Keith T. Postlethwaite, pastor of the Cumberland Presbyterian church of this city, and interment followed in the city cemetery beside his wife. "Uncle George" Thompson, as he was familiarly known, was a good citizen in many ways. He was not pretentious and not given to make a show of the good deeds he was inclined to do. His record will show that he was in a great measure a good Samaritan. He was a man acquainted with sorrow and grief and a man who proved faithful to those entrusted to his care until the last. He was a stickler for the fraternal societies in which he held membership but never seemed inclined to the church and its activities. The pallbearers were: James Hawk, D.Y. Conatser, Rev. J.H. Scissom, Dexter Hughes, N.L. Burkhalter, T.M. Wiseman. We join the host of friends of the deceased in extending sympathy to the bereaved ones.”

She was born 06 Aug 1901 (Source: SSDI.), and died 29 Oct 1993 in Grundy Co. TN (Source: TN death records.).
Notes for James Lewis Rollings:
J.L. was born in the Battle Creek area of Marion County. During the 1880 census he was listed as 10 months old. His mother had just died, because he says in his biography "My mother died ... when I was a little more than ten months old." His father was listed on the census as a widower and they were living next door to his grandmother, Mary (Hargis) Rollings.

J.L. was raised in Battle Creek and speaks very fondly of various family members who filled his motherless childhood, such as his Uncle Sam Thompson, Aunt Beck and Uncle T.W. Clepper, Uncle "Duck", Uncle Abner, who was "a brother of my grandmother" and "Uncle Dave Hargis, his brother".

In 1890, the family moved to Pelham valley and they are listed there during the 1900 census of Grundy County. At this time the family consisted of J.L., his brother Jack, his Uncle Abner (Duck), and his aunt, Rebecca with his father. Oddly enough they lived next door to the Cox family who had a daughter named Pearl, whom he later married. They were married in Grundy County by J.D. Northcutt, MG.

J.L. struggled and did without many things to obtain a college education. After his marriage to Pearl, they had 6 children. She died and her death certificate says the cause of death was "peritonitis, no dr."

Three years after the death of Pearl, during the Grundy County census of 1920, J.L., at age 40 and widowed was living in Grundy County with his 4 oldest children, Louise 14, Frank 11, Adolphus 9, and Florence 7. The 2 youngest, Rachel and David Ashley are living with relatives.

After J.L.'s second marriage they lived in Altamont, Tn., the county seat, where J.L. was at various times a school teacher, superintendent of schools and county Judge from 1941-1958.

J.L. was probably a mathematical genius, but evidently astronomy was a special love. A newspaper article dated March 24, 1949 stated "That Hon. J.L. Rollins of Tracy City, besides being a capable county judge, is also an astronomer of note is evidenced from the following from the Tracy City Herald: Judge J.L. Rollings will address the Barnard Astronomical Society in Chattanooga at 8:00 p.m. on March 17, on the subject, "History of Astronomy". The lecture will occupy about Forty-five minutes, and will be held at the Chattanooga Observatory in Brainerd. Mr. Rollins was born in Marion County in 1879. He began his study of astronomy in public schools in 1898 and was greatly intrigued with Kefier's ..... Mr. Rollings was County Superintendent of Schools in Grundy County for 20 years and has been County Judge since 1942. He has taken courses at UT and UC at various times and has taught in various schools in Grundy and other counties of Tennessee."

During the 1920 census of Grundy County, Rachel was living with the Cox family. Her younger brother, David Ashley was living with Jack and Abbie Parks and he was listed as a nephew. This was 3 years after their mother died.

Rachel and Charles had no children. She was a faithful member of the Church of Christ.

After the death of Charles, Rachel lived in Gruetli-Laager for many years, and when her memory became too bad for her to be alone, her nieces moved her near her sister, Florence Scruggs, in Altamont. When her health became too poor for the family to care for her she became a resident of the skilled care section of Emerald-Hudgson Hospital in Sewanee, TN.

127. James Church⁴ Jackson (Anna³ Wooten, Margaret "Peggy"² Hargis, Abraham Jr.¹) was born 26 Jan 1853 in Battle Creek, Marion Co., TN (Source: tombstone in Jackson Cemetery.), and died 25 Feb 1936 in Pelham Valley, Franklin Co., TN (Source: tombstone in Jackson Cemetery.). He married Sarah Elizabeth "Lizzie" Gilliam 28 Aug 1874 in Franklin County, TN (Source: Franklin Co., TN marriage record.), daughter of Campbell Henley and Malinda Thompson. She was born 03 Feb 1854 in Tennessee (Source: tombstone in Jackson Cemetery.), and died 22 May 1947 in Pelham Valley, Franklin County, TN (Source: tombstone in Jackson Cemetery.).

Notes for James Church Jackson:
During the Marion County census of 1860, Church (as he was called) was living with his parents in Battle Creek, listed as 7 years old.

Church and Lizzie were married in Franklin County by D.S. Long, JP, and lived in the Swedens Cove area of Battle Creek. They had 2 daughters to die while they lived there, and according to Eliza White, it "almost killed them". Afterwards they moved to the Pelham Valley area of Franklin County.
The "Homecoming '86 History of the Elk River Valley" states that Church and Lizzie lived in the Franklin County section of Pelham Valley where Church owned and operated a small country store across the road from his home. This is now State Hwy 50.

During the 1900 census of Franklin County, Church and Lizzie have 4 sons, Washington, John, Edgar and Andrew, at home. The census shows they have been married 25 years and have had 9 children with 5 living. If this census is correct in stating 9 children, there are 2 children not mentioned by descendants and I have not found any death records of them.

The Franklin County 1910 census list Church who is a farmer, and Lizzie having a large household. In addition to their sons Washington, Edgar and Andrew, their son James, recently widowed, is living with them with his 4 children. Church and Lizzie show being married 36 years.

The census of 1920 of Franklin has Church, age 66 and Lizzie, age 65 living next door to their son Andrew. Their household consist of son Edgar and grandson, Stovall J. "Tony".

When the 1930 census of Franklin County was taken, Church was 77 years old and Lizzie was 76. This census states they had been 21 and 20 years old when they were married. Living in the household with Church and Lizzie was their son William Edgar, at age 38, his wife Martha age 26 and their daughter, Ruby E. age 4 who had been born in Ohio. William Edgar is farming with his father.

Lou's obit reads: Mrs. Lou Byrd, age twenty years, wife of Luther Byrd, died at her home at Comfort, Tenn., Friday last of tuberculosis. Mrs. Byrd was seized with the dreaded white pleague (sic) a short time ago and while no hopes of her recovery were entertained yet all that physicians, both local and foreign, could do was done, but the hand of Him who is too wise to err, too good to do wrong, saw fit to take her home to himself, and she peacefully crossed the tide and her soul sweetly sleeps under the shade of the trees on the other shore. Mr. and Mrs. Byrd had only been united a short time but the union was a happy one indeed. In early life she gave her heart to God and the christian life she lived was an exemplary one. At her request, the funeral services were conducted by Edward Anderson, a schoolmate and close friend. Her remains were interred in the Bible cemetery. The bereaved ones have the sincere sympathy of the entire community.

TN. census.), and died 1939 in Battle Creek, Marion Co., TN (Source: Buster Jackson.). He married Sibyl M. Bible 1889 (Source: 1930 Marion Co., TN census.), daughter of Henry Bible and Alzina Gilliam. She was born 14 Jan 1873 in Battle Creek, Marion County, TN (Source: Gilliam Cemetery tombstone.), and died 03 Aug 1950 in Battle Creek, Marion County, TN (Source: Gilliam Cemetery tombstone.).

Notes for Joseph Abraham Jackson:
During the 1880 census of Marion County, Abe, as he was called, was 8 years old and living with his parents in Battle Creek.

In 1900, during the census, Abe and Sibyl were in Battle Creek, married for 11 years and had 4 children with 3 living. Abe was a farmer.

In the 1910 census, Abe, at age 39 and Sibyl, age 37 are in Battle Creek with their children, Robert age 20, Allie age 18 and Byron age 12. The census taker records that Abe and Sybil have been married 20 years and have had 5 children with 3 living. Abe is farming.

Abe was a deputy sheriff of Marion County. One of his more memorable escapades as a deputy and recalled by his grandson, Buster Jackson, was the shooting of Nickolas Headrick. "Nick" caught Sam Plummer, who worked in the coal mines, in a compromising situation with his wife. Nick and some co-horts (probably brothers) caught Sam, tied him to a wagon and proceeded to cut him all over. They were going to kill him but Nick's uncle, John Headrick, made them turn him loose. At this time, Joe Headrick, a brother to John and uncle to Nick, was doing farm work for Abe. After being set loose from the wagon, Sam Plummer ran to his mother's place. This was Susan Plummer who "lived in a little house with a bunch of kids". Evidently the Headrick boys were really in an uproar because Tom Birdwell came to get Abe to quiet the Headrick's down. Everyone ended up at the Plummer place, where Sam was hiding in the attic "crying and shaking". Shots began to be fired and in the melee, one of the Headrick boys shot Abe's mustache off. But the worst part was that Nick Headrick was killed. The Headrick family was sure Abe had killed him and swore to get even, but Abe always said he did not shoot Nick. Joe Headrick, who was working for Abe, said at the time "Anybody dumb enough to let Abe Jackson catch them ought to be caught."

By the time of the 1920 census, Abe, at age 49 and Sibyl at age 47 are still in Battle Creek, but the only child still home is Byron who is 22 years old. Living next door is their son Robert with his family.

In August of 1926, Abe was a candidate for the Republican nomination for sheriff in Marion County when his sons, Robert and Hobart were arrested for the murder of Edgar Smith in Battle Creek.

During the Marion County 1930 census, Abe, at age 59 and Sybil, at age 57 were farming in Battle Creek. Their son Robert, at age 40 and widowed was living with them with his 2 children, Buster age 11 and Lydia age 8. Bob was working for the State Hwy. Dept. This census states Abe and Sybil had been 18 and 16 when they married.

After the death of their son Robert and his wife Nancy, Abe and Sibyl raised their children, Buster and Lydia Mae.

In the Marion County census of 1900, John was 5 years old and living with his parents in Battle Creek.

During the 1910 census, the family was in Grundy County. John was 15 years old, living with his parents and working as a farm laborer.

John's military service was during World War I. His classification was PVT Tenn. Inf. While serving overseas in France and Germany, his feet were frozen so badly in Germany, it was feared amputation would be necessary.

When the 1920 Grundy County census was taken, John, age 26, was living in Gruetli with his mother and brother, Jake. They were living next door to the Leander Bouldin family.

After John and Ova married, they lived in Viola, Tennessee until 1926. At the time of the 1930 census, they were in Grundy County with their 2 oldest children. John's mother, Mary, was living with them.

She married Robert Leonard "Bob" Jackson Abt. 1917, son of Joseph Jackson and Sibyl Bible. He was born 14 Apr 1890 in Battle Creek, Marion County, TN (Source: Buster Jackson.), and died 05 Mar 1931 in Marion County, TN (Source: Buster Jackson.).

Notes for Nancy Hargis:
During the 1910 census of Marion County, she is 21 years old and living with her mother.

When the Marion County 1920 census was taken, Nancy and Robert were living in Battle Creek. Her mother, Martha Matilda, was living with them.

Nancy had a case of the measles and had almost recovered, until she became ill with pneumonia. This was the cause of her death according to her son, Buster Jackson. Her death certificate #9350 states her death was in 1928.

Notes for Robert Leonard "Bob" Jackson:
Bob was listed on the 1900 Marion County census as 10 years old, living in Battle Creek with his parents and siblings.

At the time of the 1910 census of Marion County, he was listed as 20 years old, and living with his parents and siblings in Battle Creek.

During the 1920 census, he and his wife, Nancy, were living in Battle Creek. Bob was 28 and Nancy was 30 years old. They had a son, Robert who was 2 years old. Living with them was Nancy's mother, Martha M. Hargis and they were living next door to his parents, Abe and Sybil Jackson.

The next few years were very difficult for the family. Bob and his brother, Hobart, were arrested for the killing of Edgar Smith. This was in 1926. There was a long dramatic trial which resulted in Hobart going to jail.

By the time of the 1930 census, Nancy had died and Bob was living with his parents. He was 40 years old and working for the State Highway Department. His 2 children, Buster age 11 and Lydia age 8 were with him.

Evidently the death date of 1931 for Bob is incorrect, for a "Squatchie Valley News" article dated March 5, 1932 reads:"BOB JACKSON KILLED BY HENRY SMITH AT KETCHALL--Bob Jackson, 40, was shot fatally about 5 p.m. today by Henry Smith. The shooting occurred on the highway at Ketchall about nine miles from here (Jasper) in the Battle Creek section. Jackson was picked up by State Highway Patrolman Solomon and placed on a buss to be rushed to a doctor at Jasper, but died en route. Smith later surrendered, and is in jail here. The shooting is believed to have been due to a sort of feud existing between the Jacksons, and Smith. Hobart and Bob Jackson, brothers, were charged with having killed Ed Smith, brother of Henry, about four years ago. Hovart was convicted and served a term for the killing. He was recently pardoned by Gov. Harton. Jackson was riding along the road in a wagon when he was shot from the roadside according to Patrolman Solomon, who said he saw the shooting from a distance and saw Jackson fall from the wagon...."

After Bob's death, his parents reared his children and after Lydia's death in 1937, Buster continued to live with them.

At the time of the 1920 census of Marion County, Coot, listed as 30 years old, had returned to the home of his parents in Battle Creek and was living there with his sister, Rebecca.

By the time of the 1930 census, Coot and Beatrice were married, living in District 4 with 4 children. Coot was 40, Beatrice was 37, and their children were John age 8, Anne C. age 5, Samuel C. age 3 and Rutha age 1.

172. William Herbert "Will"4 Martin (David Coleman3, Sarah "Sallie"2 Hargis, Abraham Jr.1) was born 03 Sep 1877 in Battle Creek, Marion County, TN (Source: Cumberland View cemetery tombstone.), and died 24 Jan 1962 (Source: Cumberland View cemetery tombstone.). He married Tennessee Jane "Tennie" Raulston 23 Sep 1900 in Marion County, Tn. (Source: James Cunningham.), daughter of William Raulston and Comfort Tate. She was born 15 Mar 1882 in Battle Creek, Marion County, TN (Source: Cumberland View cemetery tombstone.), and died 08 Feb 1955 (Source: Cumberland View cemetery tombstone.).

Notes for William Herbert "Will" Martin:
During the Marion County 1880 census, William was 2 years old and living with his parents in Battle Creek.

By the time of the 1900 census of Marion County, William was 22 years old, working as a teamster and living with his parents in Battle Creek.

William and Tennie married later in 1900 and by the time of the 1910 census of Marion County, they were living with her parents in Battle Creek with 2 children, Helen, age 7 and Comfort, age 5. William was 32 and Tennie was 28 years old during this census.

James Cunningham, a grandson, states in the Marion County History book "They were married by Comfort's Uncle Sammie Tate who was a Southern Methodist preacher. The wedding took place at his home because he was sick in bed at the time. After they were married, they lived near his father on Battle Creek. In 1908, they moved to Comfort, in the Fiery Gizzard Cove, to live with her mother and father in the home where she grew up."

During the Marion County census of 1920, William, at age 42 and Tennie, at age 37 were in Battle Creek with 5 children, Helen at age 17, Comfort at age 15, William David, at age 8, Mary, at age 7 and Ann Louise, at age 4. Will was listed as a farmer while his daughter, Helen was a public school teacher.

According to James Cunningham, "In November of 1927, Will and Tennie moved from the Fiery Gizzard Cove to Smithtown near the mouth of the Kelley Cove. They continued to live there for the rest of their lives."

James Cunningham talks of constructive lives when he states "Will and Tennie were honest, hardworking people. Will was a farmer who also logged and worked on highway construction. While they lived in the Gizzard, Tennie kept the Comfort Post Office in their home. Will and Tennie were Christians who often helped neighbors who were in need. Will helped needy families plant a crop. Tennie was a highly intelligent and knowledgeable woman whose wise advice was often sought by those who lived near her. She frequently examined sick babies to help young couples decide if they needed to call a doctor. She helped people write letters, fill our forms, and even make wills. Because the first telephones were grounded poorly, they were hard to use by anyone with an untrained ear. People would come to use their phone and she would have to make the call for them. Their many kindnesses endeared them to generations of neighbors. In national elections, he was a consistent democrat and she was a staunch republican. On election day, she would stay with the children and house while he went to vote. Then he would stay at home while she went to 'kill Will's vote'”.

When the 1910 census was taken, Tom, at age 23 and Kate, at age 24 were living in the Battle Creek area of Marion County. They had been married 4 years and had 2 children with one living. This was Thomas who was one year old.

In the "History of Marion County", Virginia A. McConnell writes of Tom and Kate "Together they inherited and bought land to become permanent farmers in Battle Creek. The first part of their life, they lived in the home of Tom's mother, Anne Wooten Martin. Their house was built so that down the center was a long hall from end to end, and each family had its own quarters......They were very faithful and active in the Lou's Chapel methodist Church. In the days back then, after church, many members went home with them for dinner and to spend the rest of the day having so much fun."

The 1930 census of Battle Creek, District 4 at this time, has Tom and Kate's household with 3 generations. In addition to Tom, age 43 and Kate, age 44 there is their son, Tom, age 21, with his wife, Lena Belle, age 20, and Tom's mother, Anna, age 64, who died shortly after this census was taken.

Notes for Mary Katherine "Kate" Anderson:
When I met Kate, as she was called, she was a charming lady, already in her 90's at that time. She was most hospitable and was very knowledge about the family.

She recalled her memory of my great-grandfather, William Lee Hargis. He would have been her father's uncle. She said William came to their house on a very cold day without a hat on and her mother insisted he take her father's hat. Kate could remember being so upset that her mother had given away her father's new hat!

Kate told me the reason her 2 babies died was her body's inability to produce milk to breast-feed the babies and that the only reason her son Tom lived was that another woman was able to wean her child and feed Tom.

Notes for Edward Newton Smith:
After the death of his first wife, Sallie, Edgar moved to Woodward County, Okla., where he met and married his second wife, Sallie Stout. They returned to live in Battle Creek.
During the Marion County census of 1920, Edgar age 32 and Sallie age 20 are living in Battle Creek. Edgar was working as a teamster at this time.

In 1926, Edgar was working as a mail carrier in Battle Creek. This was at the time he was killed by Robert and Hobart Jackson in an argument over politics.

The local newspaper reported on Aug. 21, 1926, "Edgar Smith, of Battle Creek, star route carrier, died late this afternoon of knife wounds said to have been inflicted by Hobart Jackson, of the Gizzard, while Smith was engaged with a fistfight with a brother, Bob Jackson. The fight occurred before the home of C.R. Merriman, and it was there that Smith was carried and died. Bob Jackson was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Ulysses Swafford, but later released. Hobart Jackson escaped. Arguments over the recent county election are said to have been the cause of the trouble. It is reported that some time ago Henry Smith, Edgar's brother, and Bob Jackson engaged in a fight when Jackson was armed with a cant hook. Smith is said to have had the best of the mix-up. This afternoon, after the carrier had completed his work, he overtook the Jackson boys on his way home. According to Bob Jackson, he asked Smith for a fair fight. Smith refused, he said, fearing an attack by Hobart. Assured this would not happen, he consented, Bob said, and the two engaged. It was then that Hobart made the assault, according to his brother. When Bob saw that his opponent was injured, he did all that he could to staunch the flow of blood, while his brother drove away. The cuts were on the left neck, left side and back, and appear to have been inflicted with a pocket knife. Dr. W.R. Irish, of South Pittsburg and Dr. J.A. Prie, of Jasper, were called and both men said that the cuts on either side or neck were severe enough to have caused death by bleeding. Smith leaves a wife, two sisters, Mrs. Luther Smith of Sewanee, and Mrs. Alvin Stuggs of Monteagle, and his brother, Henry of Dove. He was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church and an active worker in the Sunday school. Hobart Jackson, who fled the scene of the killing, though not arrested, later made bond thru a friend for his appearance for examination. Robert Jackson had already made bond following his arrest by deputy Swafford. Trial was set for South Pittsburg, Wednesday but was changed to the court house at Jasper at 2 o'clock instead. Robert Jackson was bound to court in $5,000 and Hobart Jackson in $10,000. They are sons of Abe Jackson, who was a candidate for the republican nomination for sheriff."

After a long extended trial, Hobart served prison time for the murder.

244. Gilbert M.¹ Birdwell (Charles Thomas³, Anna² Hargis, Abraham Jr.¹) was born 16 Feb 1886 in Battle Creek, Marion County, TN (Source: Carolyn Beahm.), and died 11 Jan 1957 (Source: Carolyn Beahm.). He married Mary Sanders 18 Feb 1906 in Grundy County, Tn. (Source: Grundy Co. marriage record.). She was born 21 Jun 1890 in Tennessee (Source: SSDI.), and died 11 Jan 1975 (Source: Fall Creek Cemetery tombstone.).

Notes for Gilbert M. Birdwell:
Gilbert is listed as 15 years old at the time of the 1900 Marion County census, living in Battle Creek with his parents and siblings.

He and Mary were married in Grundy County by Peter Schild, JP and during the 1910 census were living in Sequatchie County. Gilbert was listed as 23 years old and Mary was 19. Since they had been married 4 years, this means Mary was only 15 years old when they were married! The 1910 census gives the information that they had 2 children with 1 living. This is Laura and she is 2 years old. Gilbert was farming at this time.

Ten years later, during the 1920 Sequatchie County census, Gilbert is listed as 33 years old, Mary 29, a daughter age 11 and a son almost 5. The census taker list Loretta and Clinton as names for these children, but that is incorrect.

When the 1930 census was taken, the household consisted of Gilbert age 44, Mary age 39, son Cleston age 14, daughter Laura age 19, son-in-law James Cagle age 20 and grandson James Jr. less than a year old. The name of the grandson was not James Jr. but Hugh Edward. Obviously the census taker made an error on this.

Evidently Gilbert was a gospel minister for the marriage record of his son Cleston says they were married by G.M. Birdwell, M.G.

Gilbert and Mary moved to Chattanooga and the 1950 City Directory list Gilbert as living on Dodson Ave.

The City Directory for 1960 list Mary S. Birdwell, widow of Gilbert M. Birdwill living on Tennessee Ave. in St. Elmo.

Dave and Sally were married in Grundy County by A.J. Tate, JP. Willene Birdwell states they were married by Jackson Tate at Coalmont and the attendants were Emery Daniel and Steve Smart for the afternoon wedding.

Through the years Dave worked at coal mining, timbering and log hauling, farming and horse trading.

When the 1920 census was taken, Dave and Sally were living in the community of Gruetli, in Grundy County. Dave was listed as 31 and Sally 27. They had 4 sons, William age 11, George age 8, Mose age 6 and Leonard age 3.

During the 1930 census the family was still in Grundy County. Dave was listed as 43 years old and a farmer, Sally 37, William 21, George 19, Mose 16, Leonard 14, Gilbert 9, Nelson 7, Tom 4 and Lee age 2.

At the time of the 1934 Grundy County elections, Dave was one of the judges from the Mr. Vernon district. This would be in the 2nd District in an area of Gruetli. Dave was also a judge at Mr. Vernon during the 1936 elections.

On July 30, 1936, a petition was circulated in Grundy County demanding that the contract John L. Brinkley had for hauling and distributing slate was carried out. Dave signed this petition.

Notes for Sally Parthenia Davis:
Sally's identity came from Martha Pickett Smartt, who was a daughter of Sally's sister, Lula.

According to research by Willene Birdwell, Sally wore a blue worsted dress and high top shoes for her wedding.

Willene related Sally was baptized in 1922 by Elder Wiley clemons at the Primitive Baptist Church in Yellow Spring, Dunlap Mountain, TN and that on October 28, 1961 she became a member of Cumberland Heights Seventh Day Adventist Church in Coalmont.

In 1934, the "Grundy County Herald" reported in the Tatesville community section: "Mrs. Dave Birdwell is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Birdwell." I would venture to guess Sally has come to visit and help with her first grandchild. William and Ethel's first child was born in Nov. of 1933.

In the 1930 census for Grundy County, he is 19 years old and in Gruetli with his parents and brothers.

George and Willene had no children.

Ida's death record from Moore Funeral Home of Winchester gives her birth year as 1881, but this has to be incorrect for she was listed on the Marion County 1880 census as 2 months old with her parents in Battle Creek.

By the time of the 1910 census, Ida and George were in Sherwood, Franklin County, TN, with 2 children, George age 6 and Edna age 4. The census states they had been married 7 years. Ida was listed as 26 years old and George as 34.

Frank³ Tharpe (Mary C."Polly"⁴ Hargis, William Lee³, Thomas², Abraham Jr.¹) was born Mar 1876 in Battle Creek, Marion County, TN (Source: Wolf Creek Cemetery tombstone.), and died 01 May 1940 in Saline County, Illinois (Source: Illinois Death Index.). He married (1) Gertrude Kilgore 27 Mar 1898 in Grundy County, Tennessee (Source: Grundy Co. 1880 Death Index.). She was born Sep 1879 in Tennessee (Source: 1900 Grundy Co., TN census.), and died 25 Sep 1913 in Grundy Co. TN. He married (2) Mary B. Unknown Abt. 1907. She was born 1887 in Missouri (Source: Wolf Creek Cemetery tombstone.), and died 1966 (Source: Wolf Creek Cemetery tombstone.).

Notes for Frank Tharpe:
On the Marion County 1880 census, Frank is living ("bound", according to the census) with Lewis C. and Mary Tharpe. Possible they are grandparents. It is possible their son, John C. Tharpe, is the parent of Frank, but family members say this is incorrect.

Frank and Gertrude were married by his grandfather, W.L. Hargis, JP.

Later records of Frank have dropped the E on his name.

During the 1900 Grundy County census, Frank and Gertrude were living in Tracy City next door to his sister and mother. He was a coal miner. They had been married 2 years and had 1 child with 1 living.

The June 28, 1906 edition of the "Sequatchie Valley News" reported:"Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thorp highly entertained a number of their friends at their home here (Coalmont) Saturday evening with some interesting graphophone pieces furnished by Frank Sweeton....All reported a fine time."

This newspaper reported in November of 1906: "Mrs. Dodge and son, of Tracy visited her son, Frank Thorp, Saturday."

The same newspaper reported from Coalmont in Feb. 1907 that "Frank Thorp is quite sick at his home here."

When the 1910 census was taken, Frank and Gertrude were living in Sebastian County, Arkansas, in the town of Hartford. Frank was 34 and Gertrude was 30 years old. Frank was working as a coal miner and they had 2 children, Leon age 11 and Mina M. age 3. This census states Frank and Gertrude had been married 12 years.

At the time of the 1920 census, Frank was in Illinois with his second wife. The 1920 census of East Eldorado, Saline County, Illinois list Frank Tharp age 42, wife Mary age 32, son Leon age 22 and divorced, daughter, Mina M. age 12 and daughter Inez age 4.

Dee (Mrs. Downey) Wasson says Frank had a daughter named Inez and another who married a Childers.

The Illinois Death Index list Frank's death date as May 1, 1940 in Brushy Township, Saline County, Illinois on his death certificate #106.

  Notes for Lon Tharp:
  Lon, called Leon, was listed as 1 year old during the 1900 Grundy County, TN census, living with his parents in Tracy City.
  He was listed as 11 years old during the 1910 Sebastian County, Arkansas census, living in the town of Hartford with his parents and younger sister.
  When the 1920 census was taken, his mother had died and his father had remarried and moved to Saline County, Illinois. Lon, called Lawn on this census, was living with them at the age of 22 and divorced.
  The SSDI list Lon's last residence as Fairfield, Wayne County, Illinois and his SS# as 345-01-1373 issued in Illinois.

  Notes for Mary Ines Tharp:
  Ines, as she was called, was listed on the 1920 census of East Eldorado, Saline County, Illinois. She was 4 years old and living with her parents.
  Ines was killed in a car accident according to Dee Wasson. The Illinois Death Index list her as Mary I. Harper on the death certificate #117, and her death in Big Mound Township, Wayne County, Illinois at the age of 26.

262. Leanna Belle Hargis Tharpe (Mary C. "Polly" Hargis, William Lee, Thomas, Abraham Jr.) was born Jul 1879 in Battle Creek, Marion County, TN (Source: 1900 Grundy Co., TN census.). She married John Monroe Morgan 08 Aug 1897 in Grundy County, Tennessee (Source: Grundy Co. 1880 Death Index.). He was born 16 Mar 1876 in Mississippi (Source: California Death Index.), and died 01 Jul 1952 in Fresno County, California (Source: California Death Index.).

Notes for Leanna Belle Tharpe:
At the time of the 1880 census of Marion County, Leanna was 1 year old and living with her mother in Battle Creek. They were living with David Floyd Hargis, an uncle of Leanna's mother, Mary. Leanna's father was dead at this time.

Belle, as she was called as an adult, and Monroe were married in Grundy County by T.B. Langford, MG.

By the time of the 1900 census, Lee A. at age 21, as she was called on the census, and John at age 24, as he was called on the census, were living in Grundy County with her mother living on one side and her brother, Frank, on the other. Leanna and John had 2 children in the household, Frankie age 3 and Dewey age 1. It is possible Frankie was a step daughter of Belle’s, for the 1910 census states John had been married before. On the 1900 census, John was a coal miner. This census states they had been married 5 years, which is incorrect, according to the marriage record and the 1910 census.

Both Mona Hamby and Dee Wasson recalled Belle's husband being called Roe Morgan.

During the 1910 census, the family had just moved to Sebastian County, Arkansas and were living in the town of Hartford. Belle was listed as 32 and Roe, as he was called, was 33 years old. He was working as a coal miner, they had been married 12 years and this was a 2nd marriage for Roe. Belle and Roe had 6 children at this time, daughter Frankie, age 13, Mose 9, a daughter 7, William 5, Kathie age 3 and Joseph age 1. All the children had been born in Tennessee.

At the time of the 1930 census, Belle, age 52 and Roe, age 54 were renting their home in Sebastian County, Arkansas where Roe was farming. They had a large household consisting of a daughter Willie age 13, Edgar age 9, Fern age 6 and their son Moses, age 29, his wife Iva age 28 and their 4 children Inez age 10, Eugene age 7, Lawrence age 6 and Mary age 3. Also living with the family was Belle's mother, Mary Dodge, age 77 and widowed.

Belle and Roe later moved to California.

Notes for John Monroe Morgan:
The Aug. 9, 1906 edition of the "Sequatchie Valley News" reported:"Georgia Dodge, Charlie Fletcher, George Barth and Row Morgan left Thursday morning for Coal City, GA."

The California Death Index list John Monroe Morgan place of birth as Mississippi and his mother's maiden name as Statton.

265. William Lee5 Dodge (Mary C."Polly"4 Hargis, William Lee3, Thomas2, Abraham Jr.1) was born 23 Jan 1889 in Tracy City, Grundy County, Tn. (Source: Illinois Miners Certificate.), and died 06 Jan 1944 in Palmer, Grundy County, Tennessee (Source: Grundy County Herald article.). He married Minnie Mabel Cawthon 04 Jul 1908 in Grundy County, Tn.. She was born 27 Jan 1893 (Source: Dee Wasson.), and died 13 Jan 1982 in Eldorado, Saline County, Illinois (Source: Dee Wasson.).

Notes for William Lee Dodge:
Bill's daughter, Dee Wasson, stated his birth year was 1891, but this is probably incorrect for the 1900 census and his Illinois Miners Certificate give his birth year as 1889.

During the 1900 Grundy County census, William, or Bill as he was called, was living with his mother, brother and half-sister in Tracy City, TN. Although he was only 11 years old, he was working in the coal mines as a trapper. His daughter, Dee, could recall her mother saying her father started to work in the coal mines when "his lunch pail would drag the stump".

Bill's SS# was 403-05-5046. This is from an unemployment claim from Greenville Coal Company of Martwick, Ky on April 6, 1941. Bill was not working because "laid off on acct. of lack of work caused by cave in".

Bill and Mabel were married in Grundy County by M.K. Irvin, Minister.

At the time of the 1910 census, William, age 20, and Mabel, age 18, were living in Hartford, Sebastian County, AR, where he was working in the coal mines. This census states they had been married 2 years and had 1 child with none living.

On the 18th of may in 1915, Bill received his miners certificate from the state of Illinois. The certificate described him as age 26, height 5 ft. 8 inches, weight 140 lbs, color of hair light, eyes blue. It also stated he had 8 years experience as a miner.

During the 1920 census, Wm, age 31, and Mabel, age 26, were living in Eldorado, Saline County, Ill where he was working in the coal mines. They had 3 children, Ora Belle age 7, Gus age 6 and Joe age 4.

Bill and Mabel’s children, Hershal and Edith both died about 9 months old, Hershal of diphtheria and Edith of whooping cough.

William, age 38, and Mabel, age 36, were living in Rockport, Ohio County, KY during the 1930 census and he was working as a "machine man" in the coal mines. They had 4 children still home, Gus, age 16, Joe age 14, Juanita age 4 and Delores age 1.

Bill lived in Rockport, Kentucky where he worked in the coal mines, then he moved back to Grundy County to work in the coal mines at Palmer, TN. When he first came to Palmer, his family not with him yet, he boarded with the Scott Cannon family. Delbert Hargis and Harold Lewis could remember when Bill was boarding with the Cannon family. Mr. Lewis recalled that Scott Cannon helped Bill get a job at the coal mines in Palmer. He said Bill did belong to the union.

Bill has been described as "a very likable fellow", but Bill also had a temper. He was involved in a fight at Palmer where he stabbed Doug Flynn "pretty bad" and then handed the knife to Howard Lewis. Howard worked with Bill and could remember the incident so well because they were afraid the sheriff would be after them. Howard says "nothing was ever done about it" and Bill's daughter, Dee, could recall her brothers and sisters hiding their dad out in the hills until things "cooled down".

Bill was killed in a mining accident at the Palmer mines in 1944 by falling rock in a single person accident. A Grundy County newspaper reported on Jan.6, 1944, "Bill Dodge died at Palmer today."

After Bill's death and the youngest daughter's graduation from Grundy County High School, Mabel moved to Eldorado, Illinois where she had relatives. Evidently Bill's mother, Mary, had become mentally infirm at this time, for the Grundy County Circuit Court Clerk, Minnie Northcutt, states in a letter to Mabel, "It is a blessing that his poor dear old Mother doesn't realize everything". Mrs. Northcutt also stated "I had known Bill since he was a little boy living at the brow of Myers Hill and coming to school to me. We had quite a long talk not so long ago about those good old times." Mabel took her mother-in-law to Eldorado with the family and they cared for her until her death.

Notes for Hershal Dodge:
Hershal died very young of diphtheria.

Notes for Ora Bell Dodge:
Ora Bell was named after her father's half-sister, Belle Tharpe Morgan.

The SSDI list Ora's last residence as Eldorado, Saline County, Illinois and her SS# as 402-10-1359 issued in Kentucky.

Notes for Augustus "Gus" Dodge:
Gus, age 16, was living with his parents and younger siblings in Rockport, Ohio County, KY during the 1930 census.
Gus made a career of military service in the Navy. He lived in California prior to his death at age 49, according to his sister, Dee. The California Death Index lists his death in Los Angeles County, his SS# as 557-26-4967 and his mother's maiden name as Cawthon.

Notes for Joseph "Joe" Dodge:
Joe, age 14, was living with his parents and siblings in Rockport, Ohio County, KY during the 1930 census.

He married (3) Susie King Abt. 1946. She died 1968 in Silver Spring, MD.

Notes for William Lee Hargis:
At the time of the Marion County 1880 census, Bill, as he was known, was living in Battle Creek With his parents. He was 4 years old.

Bill and Ida were married Oct.18, 1894 but she died when their first child, Carmen, was born. Bill allowed Ida's parents to raise Carmen. Matter of fact, Carmen used the last name Morgan until he was in his 30's.

After Bill's marriage to Evie in 1898, they lived in South Pittsburg, TN. They were still there during the 1900 census and Bill was working as a moulder. They had one child at this time.

Bill and Evie moved to Grundy County between 1907 and 1910.

During the 1910 Grundy County census, Bill, age 36, and Evie, age 27, were living in Gruetli. They had 5 children, Preston age 9, Mary age 7, Helen age 3, Lee age 2 and Charles A. age 3 months.

When the 1920 Grundy County census was taken, Bill, age 44, and Evie, age 38, were living in Gruetli. They had 8 children at home, Preston age 20, Mary Ann age 16, Helen age 14, Lee age 12, Aaron age 10, Lillie Mae age 8, Emma age 4 and James Henry age 1.

The "Grundy County Herald" announced in August of 1960: "William Lee Hargis, 84, of Gruetli died."

Bill is buried with Evie at the Fall Creek Cemetery.

Tom may have been married before his union with Florence and there may be a child from this marriage, but I have been unable to find anything about this union.

Tom was a member of the Knights of Pythias.

When the last child was a baby, Tom ran away from home and was gone 20 years. I have been told he may have married as much as 7 times during his hoboing period.

Tom returned to his family and he and Florence were remarried in 1944. They lived in Soddy-Daisy, TN. After Florence died, Tom came to Gruetli and lived with his nephew, Aaron, for a while. He then went to the home of his oldest son, Raymond, in Soddy-Daisy where he was living when he died.

Notes for Levina Hargis:
During the 1900 census of Grundy County, Levina was living with her parents and siblings in Gruetli.

She and Will were married in Grundy County on April 28, 1901 by A.E. Clement, MG.

The Ike Woodard Chronicles of April 1901 states "Will Sartain and Miss Levina Hargis married".

The Ike Woodard Chronicles of January 1902 stated "Born to Wm Sartain and wife, girl".

At the time of the 1910 census, Levina and Will were living in the 2nd District of Grundy County. Will was a coal miner and they had one daughter, Mabel, who was 8 years old.

Levina and Will's marriage did not last. I have been told she may have married as many as 9 times. The third husband was J.C. Gilmore.

Child of Levina Hargis and William Sartin is:

He was born 13 Apr 1883 in South Pittsburg, TN (Source: Annie Randall.), and died 10 Feb 1965 in a hospital in Chattanooga, TN (Source: Annie Randall.).

Notes for Mary Jane Hargis:
At the time of the 1900 census, Mary Jane, at the age of 12, was living with her parents in Grundy County.

The Ike Woodard Chronicles of September 1903 states "Dave Birdwell of South Pittsburg, and Miss Mary Jane Hargis married".

When the 1910 census was taken, Mary and Dave were living in South Pittsburg, Marion County. Mary, age 22 and Dave age 27, had 2 children, Mack M. age 3 and Arvil age 1 year and 3 months. Dave was working as a moulder at a pipe shop.

During the 1930 census, Mary and Dave were living in the town of Hamilton, located in Butler County, Ohio. Mary was listed as 43 and Dave as 47 years old. Dave was working as a laborer. They had 6 children with them, dau. Willie age 16, Son Walter age 12, dau. Mary age 11, dau. Eva age 8, dau. Jeannie age 4 and son Adelbert age 1. This census states Mary was 16 when they married and Dave was 20.

Evidently Mary Jane and Dave lived in Anniston, Alabama for a while for they had a son, Jimmie, to be buried there.

In their later years, they lived in Chattanooga. The Chattanooga City Directory for 1950 listed David as a caretaker at the Calvary Baptist Church.

Mary's obit reads: "Mrs. Mary Jane Byrdwell, 74, of 605 Snow St., died Saturday morning in a local hospital.

She was born 08 Jan 1913 (Source: Ann Pyburn.), and died 19 Apr 1978 (Source: Ann Pyburn.).
Notes for Hugh L. Pyburn:
During the 1900 census of Marion County, Hugh and his sister, Vinnie, were living with their mother's first cousin, Spencer Anderson.

According to descendants, Hugh did not talk very much about his family but he did hate his step-mother, Ella Bolton. That is probably why he was living with cousins in 1900.

In 1910 he and Cora were in Kyles Springs, Jackson County, Ala. They had been married 5 years and had 1 daughter. Hugh was listed as a farmer.

At the time of the 1930 census of Jackson County, Alabama, Hugh and Cora were still living in Kyles Springs. He was listed as 45 years old and she was 39. They still had 3 children living with them, Lula age 16, Viola age 9 and Thomas J. age 7.

After Cora's death in 1934, Hugh remarried to Irene and they later moved to Fackler, Alabama, where they raised another set of children, but at his death, Hugh was buried with Cora.

273. Vinnie5 Pyburn (Rutha Ann4 Hargis, William Lee3, Thomas2, Abraham Jr.1) was born Mar 1885 in Battle Creek, Marion County, TN (Source: 1900 Marion Co. TN. census.). She married Bailey Johnson Abt. 1902 (Source: 1910 Jackson Co. AL census.). He was born 1853 in North Carolina (Source: 1910 Jackson Co. AL census.).

Notes for Vinnie Pyburn:
During the 1900 census of Marion County, Vinnie's mother was dead, her father was remarried and she and her brother, Hugh, were living with their mother's first cousin, Spencer Anderson.

During the 1910 census, Vinnie and Bailey were living in Jackson County, Alabama in the community of Kyles Springs. They had been married 8 years, and had 3 children with 2 living. Bailey had been married before and his children were living with them.
At the time of the 1930 census of Jackson County, Alabama, Vinnie and Bailey are living in Kyles Springs. He is listed as 81 years old and she is in her 40's. They have 3 children living with them, Robert age 37, a son of Bailey from his previous marriage, Gus age 21 and Grady age 16. Robert and Gus are working as farm laborers.

She married Martin Franklin Treece Abt. 1909. He was born 16 Dec 1864 in Alabama (Source: Cedar Hill Cemetery tombstone.), and died 04 Oct 1953 in Jackson County, AL (Source: Alabama Death Certificate #24640.).

Notes for Eliza Pyburn:
At the time of the 1900 census of Marion County, Eliza was living with her father and step-mother, Ella, in Battle Creek. From looking at the census, it does not seem as if Eliza was a daughter of Julius and Ruth Ann, but family members have told me she and Masenie were full sisters of Hugh and Vinnie Pyburn, who evidently had refused to live with their step-mother for they were living with their mother's first cousin, Spencer Anderson.

During the 1910 census, Eliza and Frank were married and living in Kyles Springs, Jackson County, Alabama. They have no children at this point, but Frank's daughter Annie is living with them. Also living with them is Eliza's step-sister, Gertrude Ward.

Eliza and Frank were living in Langston, Jackson County, Alabama on College Avenue Road during the 1920 census. Eliza was listed as 29, Frank as 59. Their household consisted of Annie age 21, Paralee age 9, Tom age 8, Gradie--called a female--age 3 and Parthenia age 1.

At the time of the 1930 Alabama census, Eliza, called Lizzie, and Frank were farming in Langston, Jackson County, Alabama. Eliza was listed as 40 and Frank as 68 years old. They had 4 children in the household, Grady age 12, Parthenia age 11, Bessie age 6 and William age 3.

276. Maude5 Hargis (Abraham B. "Abe"4, William Lee3, Thomas2, Abraham Jr.1) was born 24 Sep 1895 in Pigeon Springs, Marion County, TN (Source: Maude Sweeton.), and died 15 Oct 1981 in Cumberland Heights Hospital, Coalmont, TN (Source: Maude's obit.). She married John William Edward Sweeton 05 Jun 1918 in Grundy Co. TN (Source: Maude Sweeton.), son of Edd Sweeton and Salina Crabtree. He was born 11 Jan 1895 in Coalmont, Grundy Co., TN (Source: Maude Sweeton.), and died 04 Mar 1970 in Coalmont, Grundy County, TN (Source: Edward's obit.).

Notes for Maude Hargis:
During the Marion County 1900 census, Maude was living with her parents in Battle Creek. She was 4 years old.

About 1904 she moved with her parents to Grundy County. Although the 1910 census taker missed the family, they were living in Gruetli.

Maude and Edward were married by T.B. Roddy, JP.

At the time of the 1920 census of Grundy County, Maude at age 24 and Edward at age 25 were living in Gruetli with a daughter, Clara Mae. Edward was working as a coal miner.

During the 1930 census, Maude, at age 34, and Edward, at age 35, were living in Gruetli, Grundy County, TN. Edward was called John W. on this census. They had 5 children, Clara M. age 10, Alma L. age 8, Charles E. age 4, Leonard J. age 2 and Kenneth C. age 1. This census states Maude and Edward were 21 and 22 years old at the time of their marriage. They were living one household away from her parents, Abe and Barb Hargis and a neighbor on the other side was Rosa and John Frederick. Rosa was a sister of Edward.

In later years Maude and Edward lived at the intersection of Hwys 56 and 108. They ran a small grocery store attached to their house. After Edward's death the section that had been the store became Maude's quilting area. She had plenty of room to set her quilt up without it being in the way. Since she was an excellent seamstress, even making her sons' overalls, her quilts were beautiful. When each grandchild graduated from high school, they were presented with a quilt she had made for them. Her son, Kenneth, says she was an excellent cook.

The "Grundy County Herald" printed the following article: "A day long to be remembered by members of the Sweeton family and their friends is Sunday, June 2. On that day the fiftieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sweeten of Cumberland Heights was celebrated at the Community Center. Their anniversary is actually on the fifth. It was also the occasion for a real family reunion when all the children and their families were home together for the first time in many years. Present to participate in the memorable occasion were all seven of the Sweeton's children and their families, including 21 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren, as well as neighbors and friends for a total of 84 persons. Children of Mr. and Mrs. Sweeten present were Mrs. Phillip Nunley (Clara Mae) of Chattanooga; Mrs. Paul Sanders (Alma Lee) of Hazel Park, Mich.; Charles Sweeton of Nashville; Leonard Sweeten of East Detroit, Mich.; Kenneth Sweeton of Detroit, Mich.; Mrs. Buddy Griswold (Myrtle) of Cumberland Heights; and Miss Wanda Sweeten of Nashville. The table was covered with a gold colored tablecloth and lace. The floral centerpiece featured yellow carnations, and was flanked each side by candelabra with lighted candles. The three-tiered anniversary cake, punch, mints, and nuts were served by granddaughters of the honor couple; and another granddaughter, Miss Barbara Sanders, kept the guest register. The anniversary gifts presented to Mr. and Mrs. Sweeton were on display."

Maude's obit reads: "Maude H. Sweeton of Coalmont, died Oct. 15 at the Cumberland Heights Hospital in Coalmont. She was 86 years old, and a member of the Coalmont Church of Christ. Brother Ray Winton conducted services Saturday afternoon from the chapel of Cumberland Funeral Home, and burial was in Fall Creek Cemetery. 277. Robert Andrew\^5 Hargis (Abraham B. "Abe"^4, William Lee^3, Abraham Jr.^1) was born 31 Mar 1898 in Battle Creek, Marion County, TN (Source: Rosa Hargis Bible.), and died 25 Apr 1963 in Altamont, Grundy County, TN (Source: Robert's obit.). He married Rosina "Rose" Wichser 30 Mar 1919 (Source: Carlene Hargis.), daughter of Fridolin Wichser and Barbara Unknown. She was born 20 Mar 1889 in Gruetli, Grundy Co., TN (Source: Delbert Hargis.), and died 24 Feb 1961 in Gruetli, Grundy Co., TN (Source: Swiss Cemetery tombstone.).

Notes for Robert Andrew Hargis:
At the time of the 1900 Marion County census, Robert was 2 years old and living with his parents in the Battle Creek area.

About 1905, he moved with his parents to Gruetli. Although the 1910 census taker missed the family, they were living in Gruetli at the time.

During WW1, Robert prepared to do his military service. He got to Tracy City, TN. to leave for training when the truce was declared.

Evidently Robert's mother considered him too young for marriage. She promised him a cow if he would wait until he was 21 years old. He did not get the cow.
At the time of the Grundy County census of 1920, Robert and Rose were living in Gruetli. They had no children at this time.

Robert was a man that children loved. I can recall my mother, Hazel (his younger sister) telling of times when he would be sitting reading and his children would be crawling on him and combing his hair. He would just keep on reading.

Robert farmed, worked in the coal mines and logged timber.

Robert and Rose were in Grundy County during the 1930 census with Delbert and Hilda Marie.

He and Rose were divorced in the spring of 1941. He later married Edith Brown, but there were no children from that marriage and they later divorced.

For a few years after his second divorce Robert lived in Orme, TN. with his cousin, Newton Hargis. Newton's children loved him very much.

In his later years, Robert lived in Gruetli. About 1960 he performed janitorial duties at the old Victoria School.

Robert died 2 months after his brother, Alfred. Another brother, Jasper died that same year. His obit reads: "Mr. Robert Hargis, 65, of Gruetli, died unexpectedly Thursday forenoon, April 25, at Altamont. He was born March 31, 1898, in Grundy County, the son of Abe and Barbara Hedrick Hargis. Surviving are one son, Delbert Hargis, Palmer; two daughters, Mrs. Hilda Henderson, Covina, Calif., and Mrs. Dorthy Mayes, Cleveland, Ohio; two brothers, Jasper Hargis, Willow Creek, Calif.; and Hubert Hargis, Gruetli; three sisters, Mrs. Hazel Scott, Gruetli; Mrs. Maude Sweeton, Nashville; and Mrs. Josie Johnson, Rocky Face, Ga.; five grandchildren, and one great-grandson. Funeral services were conducted from the Fall Creek Chapel on Saturday, the 27th at two o'clock by Bro. Bailey Brooks. Interment was made in Fall Creek Cemetery with Foster and Son Funeral Home in charge of arrangements."

Robert is buried beside his parents and his sister, Rosa Lee.

Notes for Rosina "Rose" Wichser:
Rose was christened Oct. 11, 1891 in Gruetli by Pastor Charles August Nussbaum with Tobias Wild and Anna Wichser as sponsors.

Rose continued to live in Gruetli after the divorce from Robert. She cooked at an elementary school for some years.

Her obit reads: "Mrs. Rosa Hargis, 72, Gruetli, Tenn., died at her home early Friday morning. She is survived by one son, Delbert Hargis, Palmer, Tenn., two daughters, Mrs. Hilda Henderson, Covina, Calif., Mrs. Dorothy Mayes, Cleveland, Ohio; three sisters, Mrs. Annie Olgiati, Chattanooga, Miss Barbara Wichser, Miss Kate Wischer, both of Gruetli, Tenn., one brother, Fred Wischer, Los Angles, Calif. Funeral services will be held Saturday at 2:30 CST at the Collins Church of Christ in Gruetli, conducted by Brothers Baily Brooks and Jimmy Hall. Interment in Gruetli Cemetery. The body will be at Putnam-Witt Funeral Home at Whitwell until the hour of service."

He married Violet M. Peterson 18 Aug 1926 (Source: Jossie Hargis Johnson's memory book.). She was born 23 May 1903 in Washington (Source: California Death Index.), and died 31 Aug 1969 in Willow Creek, Humboldt County, California (Source: California Death Index.).

Notes for Jasper Hargis:
Jasper and Violet were in Grundy County during the 1930 census where they were living 5 house from his parents in Gruetli.

Jap and Violet had no children to live. They had a son, Jasper Newton Hargis, who died shortly after birth.

The "Grundy County Herald" reported in April 1950 that Jasper Hargis was elected president of the new Gruetli Improvement Club.

After Jap's sister, Rosa, who lived with them, died, Jap and Violet moved to Willow Creek, California where they lived the remainder of their lives.

Jap's obit reads; "Mr. Jasper Hargis of Willow Creek, Calif., died Friday, Nov. 15, of a heart attack. He was born Nov. 17, 1900, and had he lived two days more he would have been 63. He was the son of Abe and Barbara Hargis of Gruetli, where he lived for many years, and operated a business for a time. Mr. Hargis is survived by his wife, Mrs. Violet Peterson Hargis; one brother, Hubert Hargis, Gruetli; and three sisters, Mrs. Edward Sweeton, Cumberland Heights; Mrs. Claude Scott, Gruetli; and Mrs. Buford Johnson, Rocky Face, Ga. The funeral service for Mr. Hargis was held on Monday of this week and interment was made in Areata, Calif. Jasper Hargis is the third brother to die in about nine months, as Alfred and Robert Hargis both died earlier this year."

The California Death Index list Jasper Hargis b. Nov. 17, 1900 in Tennessee, died Nov. 15, 1963 in Humboldt County, his SS# as 264-03-5262, and his mother's maiden name as Hendrick, although that is incorrect. It should be Headrick.

Notes for Alfred Hargis:
Alfred lived with his parents in Gruetli, but the family was not listed on the 1910 census.

Alf was listed as 12 years old during the 1920 Grundy County census, living in District 2 with his parents and siblings.

He and Irene were married by W.H. Warren, JP. His brother, Robert, went with them to get their marriage license.

283. Hazel⁵ Hargis (Abraham B. "Abe"⁴, William Lee³, Thomas², Abraham Jr.¹) was born 16 Jun 1916 in Gruetli, Grundy County, TN, and died 15 Oct 1999 in Emerald Hudson Hospital in Sewanee, TN. She married
Claude Scott 24 Dec 1940 in Rossville, Walker Co., Georgia (Source: Hazel Scott.), son of Speaker Scott and Carrie Crabtree. He was born 14 Jun 1909 in Pelham, Grundy Co., TN (Source: Claude Scott.), and died 10 Jul 2001 in the Heritage Manor, Monteagle, Grundy County, TN (Source: personal knowledge.).

Notes for Hazel Hargis:
Hazel was born and grew up at the old homeplace of her parent in Gruetli. She attended grammar school at the Swiss School and Mount Vernon School. She graduated from Grundy County High School in 1934, along with her sister, Jossie.

During the period before the outbreak of WW11 Hazel was working in Chattanooga where she and Claude met. After their marriage, they lived on Signal Mountain until after the birth of their second child, them moved to Gruetli, then to Dunlap, TN., then back to Gruetli where she lived the remainder of her life.

Hazel was a very calm peaceful person always supplying her children with love and security. She managed her household frugally and was a wonderful cook.

Hazel was a faithful and active member of the Gruetli Church of Christ for many years.

She developed kidney cancer which had spread into her lungs before she knew it. She decided not to endure the agony of chemo or radiation, but to enjoy her family the last few months of her life.

Hazel's obit reads: "Hazel Hargis Scott died Friday, Oct. 15, 1999, in an area hospital. She was 83. She was a member of Gruetli Church of Christ. Survivors include her husband, Claude Scott; daughter, Sue Schmidt, Foster Falls, Tenn.; two sons, Jimmy Scott, Gruetli-Laager, and Kenneth Scott, Shreveport, La.; brother, Hubert Hargis, Gruetli-Laager; six grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren. Notes for Claude Scott:
Claude was listed as 10 months old at the time of the 1910 Grundy County census, living with his parents and older siblings in Pelham Valley.

Claude, along with his sister, Thelma, and his father all had typhoid fever.

When the 1920 Grundy County census was taken, Claude at age 10 was living with his parents and siblings in Coalmont which was a part of District 2.

During the 1930 Grundy County census, Claude, at age 19, was living with his parents and younger siblings in Coalmont, District 2. He was working in the coal mines.

Claude was declared unfit for military service during WW11 because of a poor heart. Evidently the doctors were very mistaken.

Claude worked at various places in his life--running the company store on Signal Mountain, coal mining at Palmer, salt mining in Michigan and his last place of employment was with the Wheland Company in Chattanooga as a machinist while they were making guns for the Korean War.

He took an early retirement from Wheland (then Lockheed) and became heavily involved in community affairs. He was a member of the Board of Education serving as chairman, president of the Farm Bureau, promoting the Senior Citizens group at Gruetli-Laager, and the recreation park for the community. He was a long-time lover of baseball and always encouraged young boys to play. The baseball field at the new Grundy County High School was dedicated to him.
In 1994 Claude suffered a stroke which left him blind and very helpless.

The SSDI list Claude's last residence as Gruetli-Laager, Grundy County, TN.

Notes for Hubert Hargis:
Hubert was born and grew up at the homeplace of his parents in Gruetli. He is listed on the 1920 Grundy County census as Morris, but none in the family has any idea why this name is used. It was not Hubert's name.

He attended schools at Swiss Colony and Mount Vernon. He loved to hunt and during the Depression kept the family supplied with fresh meat.

Hubert was in the Armed Forces during WW11 and served in Australia. He was still there in 1944 when his mother died. The second memory of my childhood is of Hubert's coming home from the war. He came walking down the drive at my grandfather's house and I had no idea who this man was. It was absolutely stunning to me to see my mother and Aunt Jossie running to this stranger, arms outstretched and hugging him. I suppose my shock at this affection to a "stranger" is the reason I never forgot this homecoming.

Hubert was always a dear uncle and considered a second father by my brothers and myself. He gave us a wonderful BIG tricycle when we were small that was never forgotten and I can remember him giving my brothers boxing gloves and attempting to teach them to box.

Hubert and Essie Jean were married for about a year and then divorced.

Hubert worked with his brother Jasper in the timber industry and farmed.

My brothers and I must have really been pest when Hubert and Aline were dating. It was the delight of our lives to be allowed to polish his shoes. For that we received a whole quarter!

Hubert and Aline lived the remainder of their lives in Gruetli. As he grew older, Hubert's heart began to trouble him. He had heart by-pass surgery twice and since he seemed to have die in his sleep, probably his heart gave out.

Hubert's obit reads: "Hubert Hargis, age 81, of Gruetli-Laager, died Sunday, January 21, 2001 at his home. Notes for Mary Katherine "Kate" Anderson:
When I met Kate, as she was called, she was a charming lady, already in her 90's at that time. She was most hospitable and was very knowledge about the family.

She recalled her memory of my great-grandfather, William Lee Hargis. He would have been her father's uncle. She said William came to their house on a very cold day without a hat on and her mother insisted he take her father's hat. Kate could remember being so upset that her mother had given away her father's new hat!

Kate told me the reason her 2 babies died was her body’s inability to produce milk to breast-feed the babies and that the only reason her son Tom lived was that another woman was able to wean her child and feed Tom.

The SSDI list Kate's last residence as South Pittsburg, Marion County, TN and her SS# as 408-82-3630 issued in TN.

Notes for Thomas Benton Martin:
At the time of the 1900 census of Marion County, Tom was 12 years old and living with his parents in Battle Creek.

When the 1910 census was taken, Tom, at age 23 and Kate, at age 24 were living in the Battle Creek area of Marion County. They had been married 4 years and had 2 children with one living. This was Thomas who was one year old.

During the 1920 census of Marion County, Tom, age 33 and Kate, age 34 were living in District 10. They had moved into his parents home and he was head of the household consisting of his son, Tom, age 22, his mother, Martha Ann, 2 brothers, Thornton and Samuel and 2 sisters, Lydia and Annis.

In the "History of Marion County", Virginia A. McConnell writes of Tom and Kate "Together they inherited and bought land to become permanent farmers in Battle Creek. The first part of their life, they lived in the home of Tom's mother, Anne Wooten Martin. Their house was built so that down the center was a long hall from end to end, and each family had its own quarters.....They were very faithful and active in the Lou's Chapel methodist Church. In the days back then, after church, many members went home with them for dinner and to spend the rest of the day having so much fun."

The 1930 census of Battle Creek, District 4 at this time, has Tom and Kate's household with 3 generations. In addition to Tom, age 43 and Kate, age 44 there is their son, Tom, age 21, with his wife, Lena Belle, age 20, and Tom's mother, Anna, age 64, who died shortly after this census was taken.

Notes for Bruce Lyle Speegle:
Bruce, or Lyle as he was called, was listed on the 1910 Grundy County census as 3 years old living in Tracy City with his parents.

At the time of the 1920 census of Grundy County, he was 13 years old and living with his parents in Tracy City. His granddaughter, Dara Chernicky, had been told the house he grew up in was a large frame house that had 9 rooms. It was heated by a coal fireplace, but in the winter it would be so cold that the water would freeze in the kitchen overnight.

Lyle and Sarah were married in 1927 by B. G. Argo, MG and during the 1930 Grundy County census were living on Front Street. Lyle was 23 and Sarah was 21. Their son, Kenneth was 1 year and 6 months old. Lyle was working as a laborer at a filling station.

Dara related Bruce was known to everyone as "Preacher" because he was named after a local minister. Bruce and Sarah built a house in Monteagle in 1960. A lot of the work at the house was done by people who owed him money at his garage. He was a taxi driver and then later operated a garage in Monteagle.

Dara added that from all accounts he was a doting grandfather. One of her favorite stories about him happened when her oldest brother, Daryll, was about a year old. Daryll had pretty, long curls that her mother was just not ready to cut. One day, Bruce picked him up and took him for a haircut without the mother's knowledge. He brought him back and left him in the yard. Dara adds that her mother said she didn't see him again for at least two weeks.

Bruce died at his home in Monteagle of a massive heart attack while mowing the grass.

According to his sister-in-law--she was a double sister-in-law for she was a sister of his wife and the wife of his brother, John--Sarah Coffelt Birdwell, Wash was not good to his wife, Caleb. She related how at one time Wash pulled hair from a dog and stuffed the hairs into Caleb's mouth. Evidently his mother, Tennie, only laughed over this. When Caleb became ill with a bad sore on her hip, Wash refused to take her to a doctor. He married Nancy Hargis Abt. 1917, daughter of Benjamin Hargis and Martha Owens. She was born 17 Feb 1888 in Battle Creek, Marion County, TN (Source: Buster Jackson.), and died 12 Apr 1927 in Marion County, TN (Source: Buster Jackson.).

Notes for Robert Leonard "Bob" Jackson:
Bob was listed on the 1900 Marion County census as 10 years old, living in Battle Creek with his parents and siblings.

At the time of the 1910 census of Marion County, he was listed as 20 years old, and living with his parents and siblings in Battle Creek.

During the 1920 census, he and his wife, Nancy, were living in Battle Creek. Bob was 28 and Nancy was 30 years old. They had a son, Robert who was 2 years old. Living with them was Nancy's mother, Martha M. Hargis and they were living next door to his parents, Abe and Sybil Jackson.

The next few years were very difficult for the family. Bob and his brother, Hobart, were arrested for the killing of Edgar Smith. This was in 1926. There was a long dramatic trial which resulted in Hobart going to jail.

By the time of the 1930 census, Nancy had died and Bob was living with his parents. He was 40 years old and working for the State Highway Department. His 2 children, Buster age 11 and Lydia age 8 were with him.

Evidently the death date of 1931 for Bob is incorrect, for a "Sequatchie Valley News" article dated March 5, 1932 reads: "BOB JACKSON KILLED BY HENRY SMITH AT KETCHALL--Bob Jackson, 40, was shot fatally about 5 p.m. today by Henry Smith. The shooting occurred on the highway at Ketchall about nine miles from here (Jasper) in the Battle Creek section. Jackson was picked up by State Highway Patrolman Solomon and placed on a bus to be rushed to a doctor at Jasper, but died on route. Smith later surrendered, and is in jail here. The shooting is believed to have been due to a sort of feud existing between the Jacksons, and Smith. Hobart and Bob Jackson, brothers, were charged with having killed Ed Smith, brother of Henry, about four years ago. Hobart was convicted and served a term for the killing. He was recently pardoned by Gov. Horton. Jackson was riding along the road in a wagon when he was shot from the roadside according to Patrolman Solomon, who said he saw the shooting from a distance and saw Jackson fall from the wagon..."

After Bob's death, his parents reared his children and after Lydia's death in 1937, Buster continued to live with them.

Notes for Nancy Hargis:
Nancy is listed on the Marion County 1900 census as 11 years old and living with her mother in the Fiery Gizzard area of Battle Creek.

During the 1910 census of Marion County, she is 21 years old and living with her mother.

When the Marion County 1920 census was taken, Nancy and Robert were living in Battle Creek. Her mother, Martha Matilda, was living with them.

Nancy had a case of the measles and had almost recovered, until she became ill with pneumonia. This was the cause of her death according to her son, Buster Jackson. Her death certificate #9350 states her death was in 1928.

Children are listed above under (169) Nancy Hargis.

She was born 22 Oct 1909 in Battle Creek, Marion County, TN (Source: Emma Martin Oswald.), and died 03 Jul 2004 in Memorial Hospital, Chattanooga, Hamilton County, TN.

Notes for Thomas Anderson Martin:
Tom, as he was called, is listed on the Marion County 1910 census at age 1, living with his parents in Battle Creek.

During the 1920 census of Battle Creek, he is 11 years old, living with his parents, his grandmother, 2 uncles and 2 aunts.

By the time of the 1930 census, Tom and Lenabel are married and living with his parents and grandmother in Battle Creek.
Tom farmed successfully on a large scale in Battle Creek. I can recall my father driving from Grundy County to get corn for his pigs from Tom.

He was a well thought of person in the community and his honesty never questioned. A story is told of an event which happened at a local farm equipment store. The sales rep for a farm equipment company was at the store and one of Tom's sons came in and began casually saying "order me this and this and this" until the bill was several thousand dollars. The sales rep was stunned and wondering what to do when the owner of the store quietly told him, "Get whatever the man wants and get it soon." There was no question of payment as far as he was concerned because he knew the Martin honesty.

The following newspaper article was written for their 70th wedding anniversary and tells so much of their life:
"The love that Tom and Lenabel Martin share is as strong and constant as the sturdy 100 year-old Horse Chestnut tree that welcomes visitors to their farm in Battle Creek community. "Daddy said it was a small tree when he moved to the area in 1898," recalled Tom. But just as the tree, their devotion to each other has remained steadfast throughout their 70 years of marriage. Married September 5th, 1927, Tom and Lenabel, then 18 and 17 years of age, had known each other since childhood. They attended Battle Creek Institute, a one-room school house, and were sweethearts. Tom, now 88, was born in a house just a few hundred yards from where they live today.

Lenabel (Norman) Martin lived across the valley on what was called Cedar Ridge. "We started dating when I was about 16," said Lenabel. One year later, Tom and Lenabel eloped and were married by Brother Allie Hugh Fultz who lived in the community. "We went to Bro.Fultz's house and he came out to the road and married us," laughed Lenabel. Tom and Lenabel went back to their respective homes and continued with their normal activities.

Lenabel was working at the hosiery mill and she got up and went to work as usual. "We didn't tell our parents for about two weeks," she said. "And then somebody got nosey and found out that we were married." Lenabel said that her dad didn't like the elopement because he thought Tom should have asked for his daughter's hand in marriage. Tom took his new bride home. The couple began their lives together during one of the most difficult periods of American history, the Depression. "We came through the Depression. I had a job operating a grader for the state highway department that paid me $2.85 for ten hours," said tom. "Some people didn't have anything, I did have income coming in and I could go to the grocery store and buy plenty of groceries for little of nothing. Food was cheap." "We were a lot better off than a lot of people," said Lenabel who canned produce grown in their garden and stockpiled in their basement for later use. Tom and Lenabel's secret to a successful marriage could be summed up in two words: love and respect for each other. Through the years the Martins shared in the decision making that affected their lives. "We just talked everything over. We didn't have any one boss and there were never any secrets between us and we were always open and honest with one another," Lenabel said. "Some men want to abuse his rights and think they should be the dictator," said Tom. "But I think working together is my belief in a marriage and household." But like all married couples, Tom and Lenabel had a few disagreements. "I'm not going to lie about it," said Tom. "But we always worked it out. It's been several years now that I haven't even wanted to hurt her feelings. So we're together and we love one another and I think that solves any problem." Tom says that they don't have any problems along that line anymore. " You know, some people when they get old, they get cantankerous. I prayed never to do that. I hope I'm not," he said with a chuckle. Lenabel vouched for her husband, saying that he had not gotten grouchy. The Martins are the parents of five children, William Benton Martin, David Thornton Martin, who was killed in a tractor accident three years ago; Lena Katherine Adams, Thomas Woodward Martin and Emma Louise Oswald. They have ten grandchildren and fifteen great-grandchildren. We've really been blessed," agreed Tom and Lenabel. Each draws their strength and love from the other. "We depend on each other," said Lenabel. "We always have."

Nelson, as he was called, was 7 years old when he was listed on the Grundy County census of 1930, living with his parents and brothers in Gruetli.

He and Peggy married in 1945, and Jewell Nunley Kilgore could remember them coming to the home of her parents, which would have been Peggy's uncle, the next day.

They lived in the Gruetli area for a while, before moving to Pennsylvania.

Evidently Nelson and Peggy belonged to the Jehovah’s Witness religious group. Fred Rosen, in his book “Blood Crimes” says Brenda, daughter of Nelson, and Dennis were second-generation members of the group and Brenda and Dennis were at the national headquarters in New York when they met.

Nelson’s "skinhead" grandsons killed his daughter Brenda, his son-in-law Dennis and another grandson, Erik, partly because they did not like the rigid lifestyle of this religious group.

During the trial of grandson, Benjamin Nelson Ill, Nelson Sr. and his son Nelson Jr. sat in the first two seats in the front row of the courtroom, according to an article in Allentown, Pennsylvania "Morning Call".

Nelson told a reported for this newspaper, "Brenda followed them down to her last breath, and I feel that she would want me to pick this up and continue it......There's got to be something...rather than going for the death penalty and destroying the boys.” It seems Nelson Sr. wished for grandsons, Bryan and David Freeman, to confess to the crimes and that the other grandson, Ben Ill, would not receive so stiff a penalty.

She married William H. Floyd 03 Jan 1915 in Greenwood, Sebastian County, Arkansas (Source: Sebastian County marriage records.). He was born 1882 in Tennessee (Source: 1930 Le Flore Co., Okla. census.).

Notes for Frankie N. Morgan:
Frankie was listed as 3 years old during the 1900 Grundy County, TN census, living with her parents and brother in Tracy City. She was 3 years old. It seems likely Frankie was not a daughter of Belle and Roe, but a child from Roe's previous marriage.

During the 1910 census, Frankie was living with Belle and Roe in Sebastian County, Arkansas. She was listed as 13 years old, and this census states Belle and Roe had been married 12 years and that this was a 2nd marriage for Roe.

Frankie and Will were married in Greenwood by J. G. Lewis. The marriage record states she was 18 and he was 24, but evidently his age is listed incorrectly.

When the 1920 census was taken, Frankie, called Francis, at age 24 and Will at age 38, were living in Cameron, Le Flore County, Oklahoma where they were renting a farm. They had 3 children at this time, Tollie age 4, Earl age 1 and an infant daughter 1 month old.

At the time of the 1930 census, Frankie, age 34 and Will, called William, age 48, were farming in Cameron, Le Flore County, Oklahoma. They owned their home and this census states she was 18 and he 33 at the time of their marriage. They had 6 children, all born in Oklahoma, Tolley age 14, Earl M. age 12, Myrtle B. age 10, Berthel F. age 8, Ruthie E. age 6 and Ray W. age 4. Will's father, William H., age 68 and widowed, was living with them at this time.

Notes for Ray W. Floyd:
Ray was listed as 4 years old during the 1930 Le Flore County, Oklahoma census living with his parents and older siblings in Cameron.

The California Death Index list his place of birth as Oklahoma, his death in Santee Cruz County and his SS# as 551-30-6598.

She was born 06 Jan 1902 in Arkansas (Source: California Death Index.), and died 27 Jan 1946 in Fresno County, California (Source: California Death Index.).

Notes for Mose M. Morgan:
Mose was listed as 9 years old at the time of the 1910 Sebastian County, Arkansas census, living with his parents and siblings in Hartford.

He and Iva were married by J.G. Lewis, although the marriage record list her name as Ida Wilburn.

At the time of the 1920 census Mose and Iva were living in Sebastian County, Arkansas. He was 19, working as a farm laborer and she was 15 or 18 years old. The census is not very clear. They had no children at this time, although their daughter, Inez was born soon afterward.

When the 1930 census was taken, Mose and Iva were living in Hartford, Sebastian County, Arkansas with his parents. Mose, working as a coal miner, was 29 and Iva was 28 years old. They had 4 children, Inez age 10, Eugene age 7, Lawrence age 6 and Mary F. age 3.

Carmon's mother, Ida Morgan Hargis, died when he was born. His father allowed him to live with his grandparents, J.T. and Emma (Kilgore) Morgan. Carmon used the name Morgan until he was about 30 years old, probably until the death of his grandmother.

At the time of the 1910 census, J.T. and Emma had moved to Grundy County with Carmon. They were living in Gruetli and Carmon, called Hargis, was 14 years old.

Carmon and Allie married by John M. Schild JP, and during the 1920 census were living in Grundy County. Carmon was 24 and Allie was 21 years old. In the 1920 census, Helen was living with her parents and siblings in Grundy County at Gruetli. Helen was listed as 14 years old.

Helen and Lee were married by D. Hargis, MG, but evidently the marriage record of Helen and Lee was lost. On Oct. 22, 1924, the County Court Clerk, Lee Griswold, wrote Minister D.F. Hargis saying "Dear Sir: Do you remember back in December 1922 or 23 you married Lee Brown. Did you return the license. We can't find them any where. Can you make an affidavit to the ceremony. Lee has to have a marriage certificate so he can get his job. Inclose (sic) find affidavit filled out you go to a notary public and swear to it because we cannot find where you returned the license. Yours very Truly, Lee Griswold."

D.F. Hargis wrote on the bottom of the above letter from Leighton, Alabama "Mr. Lee Griswold, Dear Sir. On the occasion of the marriage of above named parties you could see Mary Ann Hargis & J.G. Hargis the grandfather of the Lee Brown's wife. They were witness of the marriage. I returned the license promptly to the County Court Clerk at the time of the marriage. Yours Truly DF Hargis"

This D.F. Hargis would have been David F. Hargis, son of William Floyd Hargis and grandson of David Floyd Hargis.

During the Grundy County 1930 census, Helen and Lee were living in Gruetli. She is listed as 24 and he is 25 years old. They have 2 children, Ethel and Charles.

The Dec.13, 1970 edition of the "Chattanooga Times" carried the following obit: "Chester A. Parker, 50, of Parker-Warren Chrysler-Plymouth Co., was found dead of multiple gunshot wounds at his Lookout Mountain home Saturday morning.

Georgia Bureau of Investigation Agent Paul Griffin has questioned the victim's wife in regard to the death. Lookout Mountain, Ga., police Capt. Clyde Walker said he received a call that a shooting had occurred at the Parker home, 1612 Fairy Dell Dr., from a neighbor shortly after 10 a.m. When I drove to the house the son was standing in the yard "My father has been shot...in the bedroom" Walker quoted the youth as saying.

"Mrs. Parker was on a couch in the living room crying. She had on a robe. I went on to the bedroom and Parker was lying face down on his left side. The telephone receiver was under his stomach. I checked for a heart beat and found none. I moved him and saw what appeared to be several bullet wounds in his chest. Then I called for the GBI since the case appeared to be a homicide."

Walker said Parker was dressed in slacks, shirt and tie.

One shot struck his left shoulder, pierced the heart and came out in the lower rib cage.

Parker was apparently packing to leave on a trip, as the suitcase was found packed on the bedroom floor and a second bag was lying open on the bed, Griffin said.

Officers found a .22-caliber pistol at the home. It is believed to be the murder weapon.

Parker was pronounced dead at the scene by Walker County Coroner Dr. Lane Hillis and his body removed to Lane Funeral Home for an autopsy.

The investigation is continuing and no arrest has been made.

In addition to operating the auto agency, Parker was secretary-treasurer of Hamilton Concrete Products and an official of Devoe Paint Center.

He was a member of Rossville Masonic Lodge 397 F&AM, the Rossville Exchange Club, Lookout Mountain Golf and Country Club, and the Lookout Mountain Baptist Church. He was a veteran of World War II.

Notes for Sherry Lynn Wise:
The "Grundy County Herald" dated June 22, 2006 had the following article:"CHATTANOOGA MOTEL MURDER HAS LOCAL CONNECTION---On Saturday morning, June 17, a maid entered a motel room of the Hampton Inn located on Shallowford Road in Chattanooga, where she allegedly found former Grundy County resident Michael Montel Williams, 34, covered in blood. After Chattanooga Police..."
arrived, they discovered the body of Sherry Lynn Wise Smith, 25, in the motel room's bed. She was pronounced dead at the scene and had allegedly been suffocated. Police say the blood came from Williams, who had allegedly attempted to commit suicide by slashing his arms. He was transported to Erlanger Medical Center for treatment. Chattanooga police reports state that a weapon was not found in the motel room or in the Chevrolet car that had been reported stolen. When released from the hospital, Williams will be charged with first-degree murder and also may face charges of kidnapping, grand theft of an auto and breaking and entering. According to reports, former Grundy County resident Sherry Lynn Wise Smith, 25, currently of Cowan, was reported missing to Cowan Police Officers on June 13 by family members. Another report by her estranged husband, Terry Smith, stated that he had talked with her on the telephone on June 14, and she “acted like something was wrong.” He advised police that she had been “dating Michael Montel Williams.” while the couple were estranged. The couple had recently reconciled and was living at a residence in Cowan. According to Cowan Police Officer Rocky Ruehling, Terry Smith told him “that Michael had said if you (Sherry) ever leave me, I'll kill you.” Smith also reported that a 2002 Chevrolet Malibu registered to him was missing, and it looked like someone had pried open the garage door at his home. Upon a search of the home, Cowan officers reported that nothing had been disturbed, however, a letter was found on the refrigerator, allegedly from Sherry Smith, stating that she was fine and would be home soon. Reports also stated that Terry Smith had talked to Sherry on the telephone and she stated that she was fine, and would be home on Thursday. Smith told officers that he did not believe this and stated that he could hear a male voice in the background of their conversation. Cowan Police Officers had also learned that David Scissom of Gruetli-Laager allegedly dropped Williams off at Smith's residence, and was told to come back in two hours and pick him up. Scissom told officers when he came back in two hours, nobody was at home. While living in Grundy County in January 2005, Williams had filed a lawsuit suing Grundy County, former Sheriff Robert Meeks, and Charles Anderson, owner of Anderson's Convenience Store in Gruetli-Laager for a combined $7 million. The grounds of the lawsuit claimed Williams was beaten and authorities did not attempt to properly resolve his case. Williams also filed a lawsuit in U.S. District Court in Winchester with Grundy County listed as the sole defendant. He was seeking $3 million in compensatory and punitive damages.

Sherry's obit reads:“Sherry Lynn Wise Smith, 25, formerly of Gruetli-Laager, died Saturday, June 17, 2006. She was born on October 13, 1980 to Lyndall and Paulette Harris Wise. Notes for Brenda Jean Birdwell:
Feb.27, 1995-Pennsylvania-Michigan: “Two teenagers, skinheads, Bryan and David Freeman of Salisbury Township, Pennsylvania, murdered their mother, father and 11 year old younger brother, then fled. The parents were opposed to their sons’ skinhead lifestyle, which included tattooing the words ‘Berserker’ and ‘Sieg Heil’ on their foreheads. They were caught in Michigan on March 1, and arrested. A cousin, Nelson Birdwell III, also a skinhead, is arrested with them on minor charges.” The charges against Nelson were later much worse.

Brenda was stabbed numerous times, Dennis had his throat slit and the younger brother was beaten, mostly in the face, with a baseball bat.

According to Fred Rosen in his book, "Blood Crimes", Brenda and Dennis met at Bethel New York at Watchtower, headquarters of Jehovah's Witnesses. Brenda and Dennis were second-generation members of this group. After their meeting in New York, they left there to go back to Allentown to raise a family. Dennis was appointed an elder in 1976 at age 28. Dennis took a job as a school janitor and Brenda was a homemaker to their 3 boys. They lived down the block and across the street from the local Kingdom Hall.

Rosen further states that by 1991, something had begun to go terribly wrong within the Freeman household. The two oldest boys had been in and out of legal trouble and in and out of mental hospitals. The boys were openly hostile to their parents and younger brother, Erik, mistreating him and calling him names.

It was in 1994 that Brenda and Dennis began asking for professional help for their sons, but nothing seemed to help. The boys began to threaten their parents, mistreat them and Erik. During the final weeks of 1994, the boys began to openly brag that they wanted their parents and brother dead. They accomplished this February 26, 1995.

On April 25, 1996, Benny Birdwell, the cousin, was found guilty of the murder of Dennis Freeman. Bryan had pled guilty to the murder of his mother and David had pled guilty to the murder of his father. Therefore, no one has ever taken responsibility for or been convicted of the murder of Erik, the youngest brother.

In "Blood Crimes" Fred Rosen described the memorial service which was on March 6, 1995 at the local Kingdom Hall. Reporters were barred and the three young men were not mentioned.

Brenda, Dennis and Erik were cremated and the remains kept by the family.

Rosen detailed how Brenda’s sisters and their husbands had to clean up the blood, remove the bloody beds, linens, carpets and paint the house which then went up for auction.

Children of Brenda Birdwell and Dennis Freeman are:

3143  i.  Bryan Freeman, born 1978 (Source: Fred Rosen, author of "Blood Crimes").

  Notes for Bryan Freeman:
  David was 17 years old when he, his brother and cousin murdered his parents and younger brother.

  On Friday, April 28, 1995, "The Gettysburg Times" carried the following article: "Two teenage skinheads, an inch of hair covering the tattoos "Berserker" and "Sieg Heil" on their foreheads were ordered to stand trial for murder in the deaths of their parents and brother."

  Both Bryan and his brother David confessed to the murders and did not face a trial. They are currently serving life sentences.

3144  ii.  David Freeman, born 1980 (Source: Fred Rosen, author of "Blood Crimes").

  Notes for David Freeman:
  David was 15 when he, his older brother and his 18 year old cousin murdered his mother, father and younger brother.

  David and his brother had become members of a hate group, rejecting the lifestyle of his Jehovah Witness parents, and were filled with rage, especially at their mother.

  David and his brother Bryan were ordered to stand trial, but later confessed to the brutal crimes and were given life imprisonment.

  Notes for Erik Freeman:
  Erik was brutally murdered by his brothers, Bryan and David and his first cousin Benjamin Nelson III.

1933. Benjamin Nelson Jr.6 Birdwell (Benjamin Nelson Sr.5, David Leonard4, Charles Thomas3, Anna2 Hargis, Abraham Jr.1)
Notes for Benjamin Nelson Jr. Birdwell:
Fred Rosen, in his book "Blood Crimes" says Nelson was in trouble 14 times and convicted 13 times for crimes ranging from burglary to receiving stolen property. He goes on to say his son, Benny, emulated his father. Mr. Rosen also states all of the family were raised and lived as Jehovah's Witnesses.

An Allentown, PA newspaper, "Morning Call" stated Nelson and his father, Nelson Sr. sat in the first two seats in the front row of the courtroom during the trial of Benjamin Nelson lll for the murder of his aunt, uncle and 1st cousin.

Child of Benjamin Nelson Jr. Birdwell is:

Notes for Benjamin Nelson lll "Ben" Birdwell:
Ben was involved with his cousins in the murder of his aunt, uncle and younger cousin. While the cousins confessed to the crime, Ben did not do so and went to trial.

An Allentown, PA., newspaper carried the following article: "A cousin of murderous skinhead siblings Bryan and David Freeman goes on trial Monday, accused of participating in the beating and stabbing death of his aunt, uncle and cousin. Nelson Birdwell III, 19, is charged with homicide and conspiracy in the February 1995 killings of Brenda, Dennis and Erik Freeman at their suburban Allentown home. He could get the death penalty. District Attorney Robert Steinberg and Allentown defense lawyer Richard Makoul will present opening arguments Monday before President Judge James N. Diefenderfer at the Lehigh County Courthouse. Bryan, 18, and David, 17, avoided trials by confessing to killing their parents, but denied killing their 11-year-old brother."

An article a few days later read: "A neo-Nazi who said he merely watched as his two cousins killed their parents and brother was convicted Friday of just one murder. Acquittals in the other two slayings spared Nelson Birdwell III the prospect of execution. He will join his cousins in spending the rest of his life in prison. As the verdict was read after 10 hours of deliberations, the 19-year old Birdwell showed no emotion, merely shaking his head. Judge James N. Diefenderfer, who had warned spectators against outburst, kept the courtroom doors open to allow the people filling the outside hall to hear the verdict. Birdwell also was convicted of two lesser charges—conspiracy and hindering apprehension. Birdwell's lawyer said his client was stunned. 'He was in a state of befuddlement. From the beginning of the trial, I'm not sure he understood any of the proceedings or what was going on,' Richard Makoul said."

On October, 29, 1999 the headlines stated: "Birdwell appeals rejected by Superior Court--Three-Judge panel rules Murderer got fair trial in Lehigh County.

On July 17, 1003 the headlines stated: "Birdwell again challenges his 1996 murder conviction--He claims he got unfair trial because he wasn't allowed to testify."

On Dec.6, 2001 the headlines stated: "Killer continues appeal of conviction--Birdwell asks Superior Court to overturn Lehigh Court's ruling"
Carol K. McGinley's written ruling rejected the claim and said it was clear Birdwell and his lawyer discussed testifying and that Birdwell had agreed with his attorney, Mr. Makoul.

The "Chattanooga Times" reported in July 1989 "THREE IN OOLTEWAH FAMILY KILLED IN WRECK ON U.S. 64--Benton, Tenn.--Three members of an Ooltewah family were killed Friday when their van went into the Ocoee River. According to the Tennessee Highway Patrol, a van driven by Michael Conry, 36, went into the river off U.S. 64 about 6:15 p.m. The accident occurred about 15 miles east of Benton. The victims were identified as Amanda Conry, 12, Aliassa Conry, 6, and Michael Conry, 5. The driver was injured, the patrol said. A wheel of the van apparently got off the pavement on a sharp turn by the river, according to a preliminary report by the patrol. During an attempt to recover, the report said, the van left the road and plunged into the river. According to the Polk County Sheriff's Department, the accident happened near Madden Branch. The van went into the water below the takeout point where white-water rafters end their trip on the river. The van went into a very deep section of the river, according to reports. The bodies were reportedly recovered from the river before the van was pulled out of the water. Units of the Polk County Rescue Squad, Sheriff's Department and ambulance service were called to assist the patrol. Traffic along the winding, riverside road was blocked for several hours until the vehicle and victims were recovered."

Notes for Shelia Renee Singleton:
"The Chattanooga Times" carried the following article. "MARION WOMAN FOUND DEAD--Marion County investigators want to know what killed a 33-year-old Tracy City woman whose body was found in a ditch Wednesday morning 150 feet away from her car near Brown Hollow Road. The car apparently had left the roadway, traveled down an embankment and grazed a tree. But Sheriff Jim Webb says the body of Shelia Renee Pellam was marked only by scratches. And the car keys were in her purse. 'The accident was not that severe enough to cause death.' Webb said. 'And she or someone opened the car door to get her out and 150 feet from the car. The keys to the car were in her purse. She had some scratches on her face and arms. Those could have been from briars that were there. And there were no scuff or skid marks on the street.' The sheriff said the woman's husband, 40-year-old Joseph Pellam, told investigators his wife left home about 9:45 Tuesday night to go to the grocery store, but didn't return. When he went looking for her Wednesday morning about 11, he found the car and then her body. The scene was about a mile away from the couple's home, in a curve on a downgrade. Webb said interviews revealed that other local people had seen the car about 6 a.m., but had not been able to see the body so they didn't report the vehicle off the road. The sheriff confirmed that investigators also were told that the couple had a fight Tuesday night. Webb said the husband denied that and told investigators that his wife left to go to the store. Webb said the vehicle appeared to have been traveling back home from the direction of the store, but there were no groceries in the car. Mrs. Pellam's body was sent to the state toxicology lab in Nashville, Investigators expect to get a medical examiners's report sometime today. Webb said Mrs. Pellam also is survived by two children, ages 13 and 8, from a previous marriage."
