THE EARLY TATES

The origin of the name Tait, Taite, Taitt, Taitte, Tate, Tatte, Tayt, Tayte, Teat, Teate, Teit, and Teite was a personal namae in Norway in the eleventh century. The Scots made a favorite of this ancient English name for both boys and girls. It is an Anglo-Saxon name meaning the cheerful; and Tatum is a variation simply meaning one of the Tates; the word Tate is Norweagian meaning younger or son of.

The family settled in England in the ninth century; the original Tates reported their holdings in Northumbria, the land north of the Humber River which was settled by the Scandinavian sea pirates, as reported to William the Conqueror and his agents when he checked all land titles in England.

The family was mentioned in deeds in Coventry as early as 1207. In the Church of St. Michiel in that city was a chantry founded by one of the name, called "Tate's Chantry."

JOHN TATE of Coventry held lands in the reign of Richard 11th. A descendent, Sir. Robert Tate, was Lord Mayor of London in 1488 and his bro. Sir John Tate of de la prey Abbey in 1496 of Northampton, Sir William Tate, a gt. gr. son of Sir John Tate, of de la prey Abbey, was a member of the British Parliament in 1592. Genealogists claim our family descended through this lineage, though I have found no documentary proof.

NICHOLAS TATE, appeared in the records of Cambridgeshire, England as early as the year 1273; the most notable of the name was Sir. Henry Tate, trustee of the National Gallery, who presented to the British Nation the famous Tate collection and picture gallery. Now called the "Tate Gallery." ref. Dict. of Family Names of Briton, History of Commoners of Great Britain and Ireland by Burke, Vol. 11 p. 75, 488, Time Magazine Dec. 9, 1957.

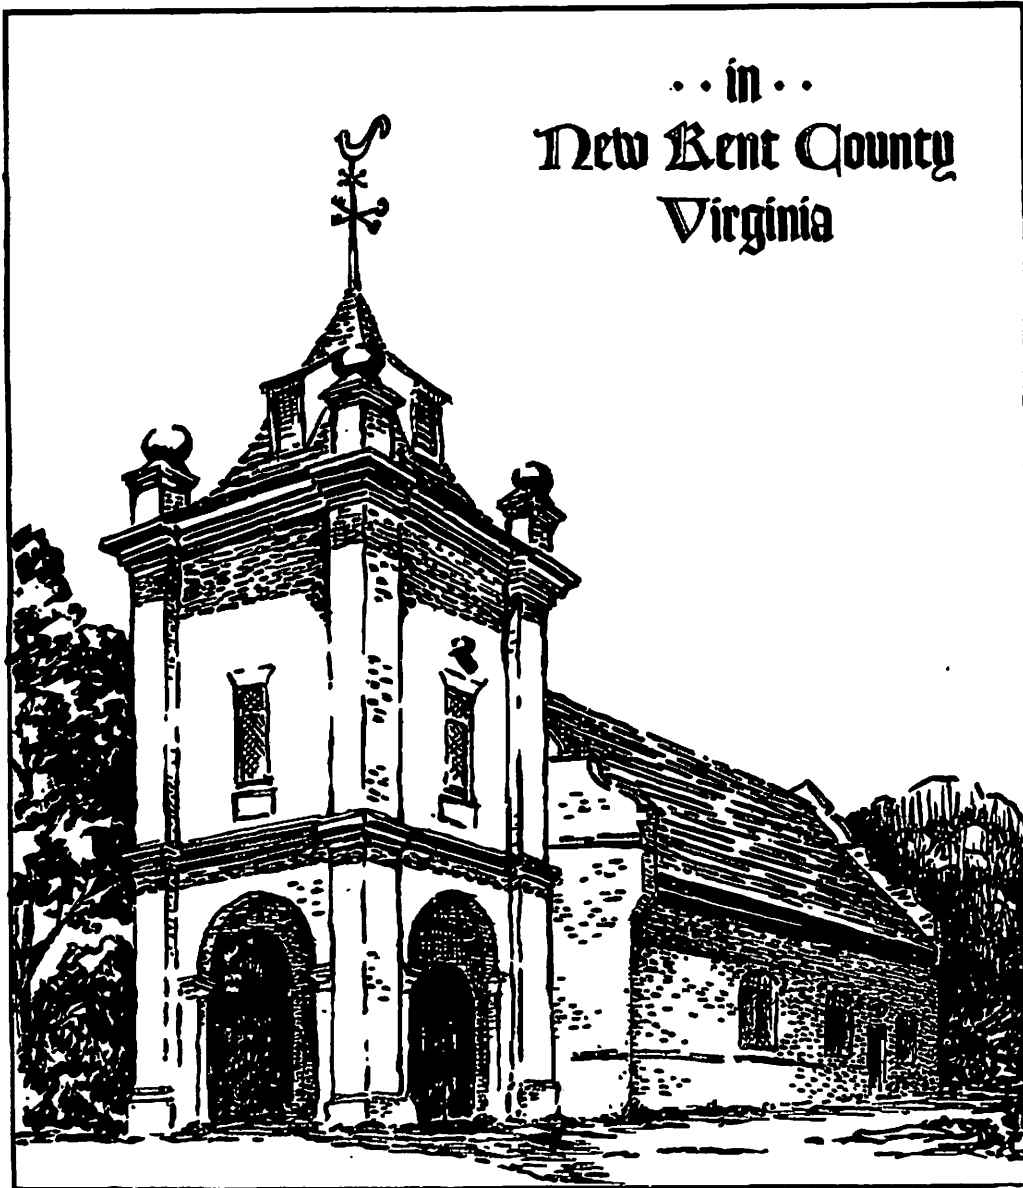

Like many other names, our early scribes spelled it as the fancy moved them, frequently it was spelled Taite; my branch of the family spell the name Tait, Tate.

In 1635 JOHN TATE was in St. Andrews parish Va., owning land and slaves. Before 21 Apr. 1656 one JOHN TATE of Charles City Co. Va. md. the widow of John Harrison and before 3 Feb. 1665 one JOHN TATE of Westover Parish, was married to the relict of Capt. John Wall; possibly the same person married one or both of the widows mentioned. On 20 Oct. JOHN TATE had a patent of 80 a.(acres) on No. side of Jamaes River in Charles City Va. He lived in the section of the upper James River where in 1676 Nathaniel Bacon, of Bacon's Rebellion, resided; John Tate joined Bacon in the struggle. Ref. List of Persons of Quality from England by Hotten p. 470, Charles City Co. Va. Court Records, Va. Hist. Mag. Vol. 111 p. 114, 341, Patent bk. 5 p. 435, 518.

TATE FAMILIES OF THE SOUTH

Saint Peter's Church

One of the oldest and most historical churches in America. Our Tate family attended this Parish in 1689. The Parish was created from Blisland Parish in 1679. The Parish still possesses its original vestry book (1684-1758) and register (1685-1786), which are on loan at the State Library. In the yard are a number of colonial tombs, lying principally near the church's east and south walls.

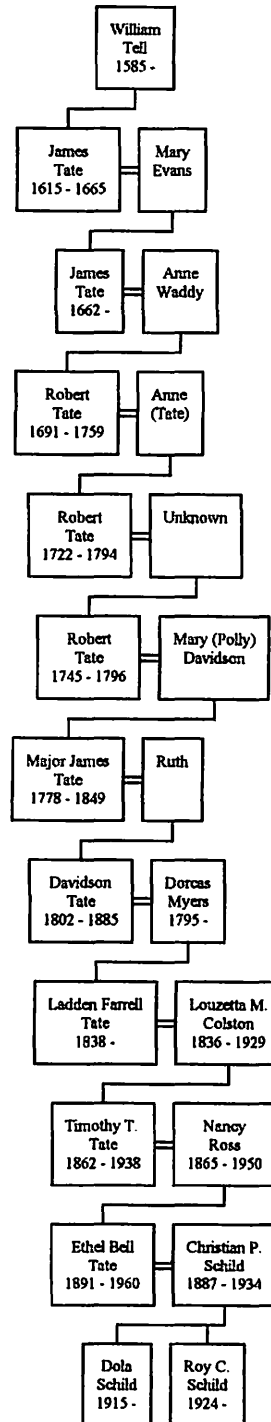

St. Peter's was the Parish church of Martha Washington during her early life. While a communicant, she was married to George Washington on January 6, 1759.

Descendants of William Tate

Timothy T. Tate, 1862- 1938

Timothy Tate was my grandfather. By the time I was old enough to know him he was already in his mid 60's with a white beard. The Tate's did not come over on the Mayflower because the Mayflower did not stop at Norfolk or near Williamsburg Virginia. The first Tates' in my family settled in York County, Virginia. York County covered a large area of Virginia. From present day Norfolk it extended northwest past Richmond to at least near Charlottesville. Later York County was divided and part became New Kent County, later New Kent was divided and Hanover County was created, later Hanover County was divided and Louisa County was created. The Tate family at first was located in York County then New Kent County then Hanover County. Whether they moved or the county boundary was changed is unknown. However, there was definite move from Hanover County to Augusta county on the west side of the Blue Ridge Mountains, then to Russell County in south west Virginia before turning south to Alabama and Tennessee. As if to say it's getting crowded , we have to move.

Grandfather was a typical frontiers' man, a hunter, craftsman of wood and farmer—enough to provide food for his family. Most of the farm work was accomplished by the children. Generally the children attended school for three years, however the school terms were only about three months—after gathering the fall crops and before the severe winter started. Severe winter meant that you could not get outdoors because you did not have shoes to wear.

Grandfathers' wood working amazed me. With home-made chisels, wooden mallet, a saw, and a hand planer, he would make the most perfect racks for the bees to store their honey. Everything had mortise and tenon joints. He also made the bee hives, ax handles, sythe handles, etc. He also loved to work around the bees and never got a sting. Well, not until he had "Rheumatism", then he would catch bees and make them sting him on the affected joints. I never learned the results of his experiment.

Grandfather loved to hunt. He always had some stories to tell about his hunting experiences. At times he would walk several miles on Colony Road to visit his daughter Ethel and Chris Schild, near the Stage Coach Inn. After we ate the evening meal dad would tell my mother, "I'll take grandfather to visit Ernest Stampfli for a glass of wine". Mother knew they would not be home till very late. A glass of wine was much better for his "Rheumatism" than the bee stings and he felt like reliving some of his experiences. His stories mostly related to hunting deer and bear during the winter. Trapping small game wasn't much fun but did provide food for the table. A story that I remember but cannot relate with the excitement and detail that he provided:

One winter we had about 3 inches of snow on the ground and he decided to go hunting for deer. He explains where he went, how long he had hunted before he found fresh deer tracks and explains tracking the deer until he found him. The air was still and the deer had not been alerted to his presence. He quickly shot the deer and went to cut his throat so the deer could bleed and be lighter to carry home. When grandfather arrived at the deer, he laid down his gun to get his knife and the deer suddenly jumped up and began to run. Grandfather was quick to run also and was very close being the deer and could reach out and grab the tail. The tail being short and smooth grandfather could not hold on to the tail and pull himself forward to get a better hold on the deer. After a minute or so he realized that this would not work and he gave up the chase and returned to get his gun. Then tracking the deer in the snow he found the deer exhausted and easy to kill this time.

In the late 1920's and early 1930's there were very few radios and fewer that worked, no TV, no rockets to the moon or Mars. Thus, grandfather rated prime time around Gruetli. Grandfather died on October 5, 1938, and was buried in Fall Creek Cemetery. A lot of local history died with him. He was 7 years old when a bunch of "Foreigners" moved in and began to build a Swiss Colony on some of his father's hunting ground. The Tates understood these Swiss people as they were considered frontiers' people like the Tates had been since they arrived in Virginia early in the 1600's.

JAMES TATE, married before his father James Tate executed his will 18 June 1664 hence was not named in his estate. There seems to be a lost generation here, and no estate settlement has been located for this James Tate. Information from Tate and Allied Families of the South by Ethel S. Updike, 1972.

Notes for JAMES TATE:

Judge Charles Tate , called James the Scotsman, emigrant, who settled near Page's Ware House, Hanover Co. Va. Hanover Co. was formed from New Kent Co. in 1720. On 4 May 1689 St. Paul's Parish, New Kent Co. Va. James Tate's name was listed as a land owner and as having his holdings processioned and in 1704 his name appeared on the rent rolls for 160 a. He was a hatter by trade as well as a tailor who in 1708 made clothes for Anne Burriss, also in 1711 clothes for Anthony Winston. On 14 Mar. 1708 he was appointed overseer of processioning for his dist., until 1727 when he died intestate, when the widow Tate, William Winston and widow Waddy's land ordered into one precinct. A widow Tate was there in 1743. Anne, whose maiden name is unknown to me, however she may have been nee Upham or Waddy since those names were used as Christian names, in the families of descendents for several generations thereafter. The name Upham is of very ancient Irish origin, and was anglicised from the ancient Irish Uppain: a family descended from Ireland, one of the sons of Milesius of Spain, a quo the Milesian Irish Nation. Upham, Uphan, or Ufan is invariably called "Fanny." ref. Rent Rolls, St. Peter's Parish by C. G. 5. ROBERT⁵ TATE (JAMES⁴, JAMESII³, JAMES², WILLIAM¹) was born February 27, 1691 in St. Peters Parish, New Kent, VA, and died November 19, 1759. He married ANNE (TATE?) 1714 in St. Pauls Parish.

Notes for ROBERT TATE:

The Register of St. Peter's Parish page 37 listed a Robert Pate born on February 27, 1691 and Baptized on March 27, 1691. There was no "Pate" family listed in the Registry during this period of time, thus it is assumed this is Robert the son of James Tate whose other children are listed as Tate or Teate.

His name first mentioned in 1714 St. Paul's Parish. married Anne, maiden name unknown to compiler. On 3 April 1716 an orphan bound to Robert Tate and on 23 April 1728 he was paid for reading in the Churches. On 16 Sept. 1730 he was a surveyor of roads. On 25 Aug. 1731 Robert Tate of Hanover Co. Va. purchased from Lieut. Gov. William Gooch 400 acres on South Side of Northanna River both sides Tomahawk Swamp and both sides of Christopher Run, adj. Robert Hester. In an indenture 22 Jan. 1750 John Tate sold 175 acres to his brother Robert Tate, adj. brothers William and James Tate on Northanna River. "Land had of our father Robert Tate, of St. Paul's Parish, Hanover Co. Va." . He was a proccessioner of land until his death: He died intestate ante 19 Nov. 1759 at which time the land of Robert Tate dec'd was ordered into one precinct for proccessioning and to be processed for viz: Henry, John and Nathan Tate, thus disclosing the names of six sons, perhaps there were other children. On Sat. 23 Dec. 1809 Judge Charles Tate arrived at the home of an old neighbor of the Tate family, John Hester of Hanover Co. Va., who told him of his Tate ancestors ref. St. Paul's Parish, by

- iii. WILLIAM TATE, b. Abt. 1716; m. LUCY BULLOCL, 1740.
- iv. JAMES TATE, b. Abt. 1718; m. ABIGAIL.
- v. NATHAN TATE, b. Abt. 1720; m. ELIZABETH.
6. vi. ROBERT TATE, b. Abt. 1722, Hanover Co, Virginia; d. Bef. 1794, Washington Co. VA.

Generation No. 6

6. ROBERT⁶ TATE (ROBERT⁵, JAMES⁴, JAMESI³, JAMES², WILLIAM¹) was born Abt. 1722 in Hanover Co, Virginia, and died Bef. 1794 in Washington Co. VA. He married (1) UNKNOWN Abt. 1741. He married (2) MARY LEA Abt. 1760.

Notes for ROBERT TATE:

There were several families of the name TATE in South West Virginia before the Revolution and some were related.

(1) There was an early ROBERT TATE, in Washington Co. VA., who may have been the ancestor of the Col. John, Robert and William Tate who settled in Washington Co. VA., in 1772. This Robert Tate estate was taxed in 1794, indicating that he had "passed on" prior to that date. Augusta Co. Virginia, was formed in 1738 and comprised a great part of Virginia. Botetourt Co. formed in 1772, Washington Co. in 1776 and Russell Co. formed in 1785, where they eventually found themselves living. Robert Tate, Sr. died prior to 1794, however his son Robert Tate, Jr. continued to be called Jr. In Nov. 1804, Russell Co. VA, a power of attorney was granted by Sarah Hanley to her friend Robert Davis, Robert Tate, Jr., and Aaron Tate. Robert Tate, Jr. was Aaron's father, thus it seems there were several generations of Robert Tates in the area. This early Robert Tate, probably the sire of Col. John, Robert and William Tate.

The wit: to this will were, no doubt, the son of John Tate, Robert Tate, William Tate and Colbert Fugate, his son in laws. The Robert Tate of this sketch is the man who was contemporary with and associated in many court affairs with Col. John Tate. I am quite sure they were brothers, but no documentary proof. Robert Tate's will did not mention that most of his children were minors, but they were. 9. MAJOR JAMES⁸ TATE (ROBERT⁷, ROBERT⁶, ROBERT⁵, JAMES⁴, JAMESII³, JAMES², WILLIAM¹) was born Abt. 1778 in Big Moccasin near Lebanon, Russell County, Virginia, and died April 19, 1849. He married (1) RUTH. She was born 1784 in Virginia. He married (2) ELIZABETH SMITH February 23, 1829. She was born August 08, 1807 in N.C., and died November 25, 1867.

Notes for MAJOR JAMES TATE:

Major James Tate, born Abt. 1778, Big Moccasin Creek, a spur of Clinch Mountain on the Holston River, some 15 miles from Lebanon, Russell County Virginia, son of Robert and (Mary) Tate. Here he grew up and married, however, it is thought he migrated to Warren Co. Tenn. before his father died in 1806. In 1806 he met with some of his brothers and others to petition for a New County where they lived, consequently in 1807 Warren Co. was organized. James and his brother Robert settled in a remote section of the County, on Taylor Creek, until after he married his 2nd wife, then he moved to the Mountains, in what later became Grundy County. He served in the War of 1812 and was promoted to Major of the Tenn. Militia, and was always afterward called Major. He married (1) (Ruth) born 1784 in Virginia, however, they were divorced. It is said she returned to VA to her people. I think it unlikely she returned for good, since all of her children were in Tenn. The Fed. Census of 1850 listed Ruth Tate, b. 1784 in VA living with the Jeremiah Walker Family. Major James married February 23, 1829 (2) Elizabeth Smith born August 8, 1807 in N. C. she died November 25, 1867, burial Smith Chapel Cemetery. James Wm M Tate stated that his mother died and was buried in West Tenn. Major James acquired some twenty thousand acres of land in Warren and Grundy Counties in Tenn. That he was the son of Robert and Mary Tate of Russell Co. VA is recited in a deed dated October 14, 1816, Russell Co. VA when the heirs of Robert Tate, deceased, met to dispose of certain land and sold the land to their brother Joseph Tate. Mother Mary, who was also in Warren Co. Tenn. signed her dower to the son Joseph Tate who remained on the old plantation in Russell, VA. Major James Tate executed a will. He died testate April 19, 1849 buried in Philadelphia cem. 13 miles south of McMinnville, Tenn. The will was contested, went to the Supreme Court of Tenn. The widow Elizabeth received most of the estate. However, all the children were named.
