(c) Remedies and Enforcement. The following remedies are available in an eviction action.

For unlawful holdovers on Commercial Property, the Tribal Court may also consider and award consequential damages should the Tribal Court find that the holdover has delayed or otherwise impaired the Tribe’s interests. (3) State Court Enforcement. Any judgment entered pursuant to this section may be certified by the Tribal Court Clerk and submitted to the Courts of Massachusetts for entry as a state court judgment, consistent with 2013-ORD-005, Full Faith and Credit Ordinance.

(e) Where a Tenant’s possessions are removed from Residential Property, pursuant to Section 6(c)(4), in the absence of any Tenants, the Landlord, Lessor, or Owner may pack and store possessions removed from a Dwelling Unit. The Tenant may redeem his/her possessions within thirty (30) calendar days by paying to the Landlord, Lessor, or Owner the reasonable cost of removal and storage of the possessions. Upon the expiration of thirty (30) days, the Landlord may dispose of the possessions in its sole discretion.

(f) Immediate Possession by Writ. Upon filing the complaint, the plaintiff may, upon motion, be granted immediate possession of the premises by a writ of possession issued by the Tribal Court. Written notice of the hearing on the motion shall be served on the defendant by the plaintiff in accordance with Tribal Court procedure, and shall inform the defendant that the defendant may file affidavits on the defendant’s behalf with the Tribal Court and may appear and present testimony on the defendant’s behalf, and that, if the defendant fails to appear, the plaintiff may apply to the Tribal Court for a writ of possession. Such notice shall also explain that a writ of possession means the defendant must leave the premises by a certain time period or law enforcement will be authorized to forcibly remove the defendant. After a hearing on the motion, from the verified complaint and from any affidavits filed or oral testimony given by or on behalf of the parties, Tribal Court may issue a writ for possession directed to appropriate law enforcement upon determining that the defendant has violated this ordinance.
Section 7. APPEALS

(a) Appeals under this Ordinance shall be handled according to the Rules of Appellate Procedure of the Mashpee Wampanoag Supreme Court, except that the party bringing the appeal shall have only ten (10) days from the entry of the order of judgment to file an appeal.

(b) All orders of the Tribal Court shall remain in effect during the pendency of an appeal unless a stay of execution is granted by the Tribal Court or the Tribal Supreme Court. Such a stay, if granted, may not exceed a period of sixty (60) days.

Section 8. NO WAIVER OF SOVEREIGN IMMUNITY

Nothing in this Ordinance shall be construed to waive, alter, or amend the Tribe’s sovereign immunity or the sovereign immunity of any of the Tribe’s enterprises, agencies, officers, agents, or employees, or as authorization for a claim for monetary damages against the Tribe.

Section 9. REPEALER

All ordinances or parts of ordinances inconsistent with this Ordinance are repealed.

Section 10. SEVERABILITY

If any section, subsection, paragraph, sentence, or other portion of this Ordinance is, for any reason, held invalid or unconstitutional by any court of competent jurisdiction, such portion shall be deemed to be a separate, distinct, and independent provision and such holding shall not affect the validity of the remaining portion of this Ordinance.
