A warm welcome to Holy Spirit Lutheran Church. This community seeks to follow Jesus’ call to all-encompassing inclusivity and hospitality. People of every race, ethnic background, social and economic status, physical or mental ability, religious faith tradition or lack thereof, and all members of the LGBTQ+ community are welcome. Our commitment to this is reflected in our identity as a “Reconciling in Christ” congregation. By embracing diversity, HSLC seeks to practice, learn, and embody what God desires for the whole world, knowing all people are marvelously and wonderfully made in the image of God.

If you are a first-time visitor, this church community welcomes you! Please complete the welcome card found in the back of the chair in front of you and place it in the offering plate. If you would like more information about Holy Spirit, you’ll find brochures with individual ministries and programs on the kiosk in the entrance lobby.

Welcome cards help us know you were here! All are invited to complete a card and place it in the offering plate. For regular attendees, you need only indicate your name, and then any updates of contact information. Prayer requests can be made on the back of the card.

Holy Communion is God’s feast for all people. Everyone is welcome. During this meal, ordinary bread and wine become extraordinary, filled with the presence of Christ which nourishes all lives. Directions on how to participate are offered when the meal is prepared.

We have an assisted listening system installed in our sanctuary. It is compatible with personal hearing aids with the setting “T”. Portable receivers and headsets are also available in the sound booth at the back of the sanctuary, or from an usher.

Nursery care is available during worship services. You are welcome to use the nursery for all or part of the service. The nursery is designed for children under age 4, and you can find it down the long hallway adjacent to the church office.

Masks are welcome, but no longer required. In line with King County’s guidance, we no longer require masks beginning with today’s worship services. However, we continue to welcome mask-wearing whenever and wherever appropriate for each of you. As you make your decisions for each event at Holy Spirit, please consider your own personal circumstances and risk level.

As we begin worship, we kindly ask that you please silence your cell phone.

Welcome
Pastor Katy McCallum Sachse

Opening Words
As you are able, you are invited to stand.

Christ is risen!
Christ is risen, indeed!

Give thanks to the Lord, for the Lord is good;
God’s steadfast love endures forever!

The Lord is our strength and might;
today, the Lord has become our salvation!

The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone.
This is God’s handiwork, and it is marvelous in our eyes!

This is the day that the Lord has made;
let us rejoice and be glad in it!
Processional Hymn

Crown Him with Many Crowns

1 Crown him with man-y crowns, the Lamb up-on his throne;
2 Crown him the Lord of love; be-hold his hands and side,
3 Crown him the Lord of life, who tri-umphed o’er the grave,
4 Crown him the Lord of years, the ris-en Lord sub-lime, hark, how the heav’n-ly an-them drowns all mu-sic but its own!

rich wounds yet vis-ible a-bove in beau-ty glo-ri-fied.
and rose vic-to-rious in the strife for those he came to save.
Cre-a-tor of the roll-ing spheres, the Mas-ter of all time.

A-wake, my soul, and sing of him who set us free,
No an-gel in the sky can ful-ly bear that sight,
His glo-ries now we sing, who died and rose on high,
All hail, Re-deem-er, hail! For you have died for me;

and hail him as your match-less King through all e-ter-ni-ty.
but down-ward bends his burn-ing eye at mys-ter-ies so bright.
who died, e-ter-nal life to bring and lives that death may die.
your praise and glo-ry shall not fail through-out e-ter-ni-ty.
Prayer of the Day
God be with you.
And also with you.

Lord of the dawn, revealed to us in our courage and in our doubt: take us from the empty places where death holds power to the rising of your love as light for all the world; in Jesus Christ, the Resurrection and the Life. Amen.

Let’s all be seated.

First Reading

Acts 10:34-43

Peter’s sermon, delivered at the home of Cornelius, a Roman army officer, is a summary of the essential message of Christianity: Everyone who believes in Jesus, whose life, death, and resurrection fulfilled the words of the prophets, receives forgiveness of sins through his name.

34 Peter began to speak to the people: “I truly understand that God shows no partiality, 35 but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. 36 You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ—he is Lord of all. 37 That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced: 38 how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. 39 We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree; 40 but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear, 41 not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses, and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. 42 He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead. 43 All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name.”

Thanks be to God!
Psalm

A leader will sing the refrain, then all repeat. Leaders will offer the verses below. All repeat the refrain as indicated.

1 Give thanks for God’s steadfast love; God’s mercy endures for ever. Let all those who fear the Lord give thanks for God’s merciful love.
Refrain

2 I cried and God answered me; the right hand of God has triumphed. I fell but God lifted me; the Lord is my strength and my might.
Refrain

3 The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone. The Lord has done marv’lous things; let us rejoice and be glad.
Refrain

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 15:19-26

Paul describes the consequences of the resurrection, including the promise of new life in Christ to a world that has been in bondage to death. He celebrates the destruction of evil and the establishment of God’s victorious rule over all.

19 If for this life only we have hoped in Christ, we are of all people most to be pitied.
20 But in fact Christ has been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who have died. 21 For since death came through a human being, the resurrection of the dead has also come through a human being; 22 for as all die in Adam, so all will be made alive in Christ. 23 But each in his own order: Christ the first fruits, then at his coming those who belong to Christ. 24 Then comes the end, when he hands over the kingdom to God the Father, after he has destroyed every ruler and every authority and power. 25 For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. 26 The last enemy to be destroyed is death.

Ancient Word, Resurrected Wisdom.
Thanks be to God!
Gospel Acclamation

Please stand as you are able to greet the reading of the Gospel.
Please sing twice.

The Holy Gospel

Luke 24:1-12
Spark Story Bible p. 482

Evidently expecting to find Jesus’ corpse, some of the women among his followers go to the tomb with embalming spices. After a perplexing encounter with the empty tomb and angelic visitors, the women become the first to proclaim the amazing news of resurrection.

1 On the first day of the week, at early dawn, [the women] came to the tomb, taking the spices that they had prepared. 2 They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, 3 but when they went in, they did not find the body. 4 While they were perplexed about this, suddenly two men in dazzling clothes stood beside them. 5 The women were terrified and bowed their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, “Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here, but has risen. 6 Remember how he told you, while he was still in Galilee, 7 that the Son of Man must be handed over to sinners, and be crucified, and on the third day rise again.” 8 Then they remembered his words, 9 and returning from the tomb, they told all this to the eleven and to all the rest. 10 Now it was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the other women with them who told this to the apostles. 11 But these words seemed to them an idle tale, and they did not believe them. 12 But Peter got up and ran to the tomb; stooping and looking in, he saw the linen cloths by themselves; then he went home, amazed at what had happened.

This is the Gospel of the Lord. Thanks be to God!

Sermon

Pastor Katy McCallum Sachse
Hymn of the Day

Alleluia! Jesus is Risen!

1 Alleluia! Jesus is risen!
2 Walking the way, Christ in the center
3 Jesus the vine, we are the branches;
4 Weeping, be gone; sorrow, be silent:
5 City of God, Easter forever,

Trum-pets resounding in glorious light!
telling the story to open our eyes;
life in the Spirit the fruit of the tree;
death put a sunder, and Easter is bright.
golden Jerusalem, Jesus the Lamb,

Splendor, the Lamb, heaven forever!
breaking our bread, giving us glory:
heaven to earth, Christ to the people,
Cherubim sing: O grave, be open!
riv-er of life, saints and archangels,

Oh, what a miracle God has in sight!
Jesus our blessing, our constant surprise.
gift of the future now flowing to me.
Clothe us in wonder, adorn us in light.
sing with creation to God the I AM!

Refrain

Jesus is risen and we shall arise.

Give God the glory! Alleluia!
Creed
Together, let’s affirm our trust in God using the words of the creed.
We have faith in God who lives among us.

We are not alone, we live in God’s world.

We believe in God:
who has created and is creating, who has come in Jesus, the Word made flesh, to reconcile and make new, who works in us and others by the Spirit.
We trust in God.

We are called to be the Church:
to celebrate God’s presence, to live with respect in creation,
to love and serve others, to seek peace and resist evil,
to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our judge and our hope.
In life, in death, in life beyond death, God is with us. We are not alone.

Thanks be to God!

The Prayers of the People
Made alive in Christ Jesus, let us pray for the church, those in need, and all of God’s creation, saying: Risen Christ, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Sharing the Peace
The peace of God be always with you. And also with you.

Bearing in mind public health social distancing guidelines and the personal comfort of those around you, please share a friendly sign of God’s peace and reconciliation with others and then be seated.

2. Spread the good news o’er all the earth: Jesus has died and has risen! Refrain
3. Come, let us praise the living God, joyfully sing to our Savior! Refrain
Offertory Litany

Risen One, your love and generosity are the only true currency.
Blessed by your boundless grace, we can trust in your generosity, and so are free to be generous ourselves.

Bless all our gifts of time, talent and resources to help grow your equitable kingdom on earth.
Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Words of Institution

In the night in which he was betrayed our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:
Take and eat; this is my body, given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying:
This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

The Lord’s Prayer

Gathered into one by the Holy Spirit, let us pray as Jesus teaches us:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.
Communion Distribution

All are welcome to God’s meal, where ordinary bread and wine become extraordinary, filled with Christ’s presence. Ushers will direct you to one of the stations in front. Communion will be by intinction. You will receive a wafer, which you may dip into the chalice with wine, or with juice, then eat. Wafers at the center of the plate are gluten free. If you avoid gluten, please take one for yourself. If you would prefer not to receive communion, please feel free to remain seated or come forward for a blessing. Please indicate your desire for a blessing by crossing your arms. Children are welcome to receive communion or a blessing.

Taste and See

All sing the refrain together to begin.
Leaders will offer the verses below.
All repeat the refrain as indicated.

Verses – offered by leaders

1 I will bless the Lord at all times. Praise shall always be on my lips. My soul shall glory in the Lord, for God has been so good to me. Refrain

2. Glorify the Lord with me, together, let us all praise God’s name! I called the Lord who answered me. From all my troubles I was set free! Refrain

3. Worship the Lord, all you people. You’ll want for nothing, if you ask. Taste and see that the Lord is good: in God we need put all our trust. Refrain
Post-Communion Litany

Risen, gracious God,

Here at this table, we taste and see your promise of life.

Here at this table, we rest in the depth of your love;

Here at this table, we touch your tangible presence;

Here at this table, we receive you into our bodies, into our lives.

Now in your world, may we live the life you’ve shown us.

Now in your world, may we live into your promise of constant resurrection.

Now in your world, may we live in generous hope, serving all in need.

Benediction

And may God raise you from all that would entomb you;
May Christ Jesus call you by name and go ahead of you;
And may the Holy Spirit + empower you for all that is good.

Thanks be to God! Amen.

music by Charles-Marie Widor
arranged by Richard Proulx
Arief Abraham and John Sparkman, keyboard duet

About the cover artwork

When the Marys come after the Sabbath to complete the burial rituals on Christ’s body, they discover an empty tomb and, soon after, a risen, all-glorious Christ. Mosaicist Marko Ivan Rupnik envisions this pivotal event in salvation history as a glory-stream bursting up out of the belly of the earth, with Christ walking atop it, much like he did on Galilean waters, his robes billowing out in all directions. Victoriously, he pulls Adam and Eve up from their graves, up from the valley of dry bones, fulfilling the prophecy of Ezekiel 37. Tongues of fire fall from heaven, the Spirit poured out on the saints from all ages and nations, who, eating bread and drinking wine, are incorporated into Christ’s resurrection body. The vibrant greens and other colors behind this great ecclesial gathering signify a garden: new Eden. - Victoria Emily Jones
