1) Community of Care and Support for Students: Effective educational leaders cultivate an inclusive, caring, and supportive school community that promotes the academic success and well-being of each student. (Standard 4 WSBS 2018)

To achieve this goal, the superintendent will ensure that district procedures and practices promote a climate that is positive, friendly, and responsive to the needs of individuals.

The superintendent will do this by:

1) Developing and implementing procedures and practices that result in a climate that is positive, friendly, and responsive to the needs of individuals (basic)
2) By engaging parents, teachers, students and administrative staff in reflecting on and developing these procedures (proficient)
3) Through use of data-based continuous improvement cycle for student and employee well-being and community satisfaction (distinguished)

Ongoing through June 2020

Measured by:

1) Student, staff and community climate surveys
2) Specific examples of programs, events, and actions that demonstrate efforts to increase inclusion, caring, and supportive school community.
3) Data-based measures that increase academic success and well-being for students.

2) Ethical Leadership: The superintendent is an educational leader who improves learning and achievement for each student by acting with integrity, fairness, and in an ethical manner. (Standard 5 WSBS 2013)

To achieve this goal, the superintendent will interact respectfully with others.

The superintendent will do this by:

1) Interacting with colleagues and other stakeholders in a professional, respectful and trustworthy manner (basic)
2) By soliciting and engaging stakeholders (proficient)
3) Through providing an exemplary model that influences employees, board, and other stakeholders to act with a high degree of professionalism, respect and trustworthiness (distinguished)

Ongoing through June 2020

Measured by:

1) Student, staff and community climate surveys
2) Increased listening, cooperation, and recognition of employee contributions and accomplishments on the part of superintendent and district
3) Specific examples of programs, events, and actions that demonstrate efforts to solicit and engage stakeholders across school community
