NEWS RELEASE

Stina Adds Extensive Mining and Business Experience with Appointment of New Director

Stina Resources Ltd. (“STINA” or the “Company”) (CSE: SQA) (OTCQB: STNUF) (Frankfurt: 01X) is pleased to announce that, it has appointed Greg Gibson to the Board of Directors of the Company.

Mr. Gibson is very well known for his long term involvement in the mining industry, primarily in Canada, the US, and Australia. His reputation comes from over 30 years of experience in all aspects of the mining industry, including as a miner, mine manager, CEO and President.

In addition to his new role as a director of Stina, he is currently the President and CEO of Sprott Mining Company; Jerritt Canyon Gold LLC., Metanor Resources Inc., and a director of Resource Capital Gold Corp., Latin America Minerals Inc., Nova Resources Corp. and Ascot Resources Inc.

“We welcome Mr. Gibson to our Board. His business management skills and significant resource experience will contribute greatly to our company. He will provide important guidance and advice in the development of our Bisoni McKay and Bisoni Del-Rio vanadium properties in Nevada. His international experience will also complement our recently announced acquisition of the assets of Gildemeister GMBH, which has 100 of their vanadium flow batteries operating throughout the world. We are looking forward to working and learning from him,” said Stina President, Brian Stecyk.

With the addition of Greg Gibson, the directors of Stina will be:

Greg Gibson
Brian Murray
Chris Hopkins
Jim Morin
Brian Stecyk

Stina has the goal of becoming a fully-integrated provider of vanadium flow battery technology from vanadium in the ground, to vanadium electrolyte, to flow batteries providing electrical storage throughout the world.
