REPORT BACKS

Reclaim Pride
Robert: The process, the conflict about gender and identity was fruitful; We went on the route of Stonewall, and the first march. “I couldn’t be happier.” Thanked all the people who organized.
Martin: People at my work came, they don’t come to anything. It was a historical event. Maybe RaR should consider an event which we work on together for many months.
Liz: The spirit of community care; accessibility, looking out for each other. Super grateful.
Diane: Someone returned after 25 years of avoiding. But, there was not a visible RaR presence
Bill: the volunteers were enthusiastic and loving. Young people in their teens and 20’s; we are so different, and we need each other.
Kellen: was tabling at the Pride fest; saw many young people there. Can we reach out to colleges across the country?
Another member: There was still a lot of police presence, and there were no incidents.
Susan, Dann, Alex. It started on time! Thanks to all. No barriers, liberating, Crowd estimate was 45,000; old and new experience.

Livvie and Stu stood in front of the Hague in an endorsed RaR demonstration against US crimes against humanity.

Jessica: Background: there has been renovation of 19 stations with no elevators; partnering with other organizations, ongoing lawsuit (SIDNEY is one of the partners in the lawsuit). All objections to the lawsuit were rejected by the courts. Andy Byford has been very supportive of accessibility. Rumor is that Byford’s plans will be sidelined by Gov. Cuomo.
Plan is to go after him directly: life size model of Cuomo with erasable “thoughts”
