

Bar Manager at B&H Garden Room

£26,000 - £30,000 depending on experience

Bourne & Hollingsworth are looking for a hard-working, inspirational Bar Manager to join the young dynamic team at B&H Garden Room, the group's stunning rooftop restaurant and bar in the West End.

About you

A hardworking, ambitious individual with a positive outlook, sunny disposition and a 'can-do' attitude. Excellent customer service skills with the ability to anticipate customer needs; attentiveness is essential as we believe that the customer comes first. Passionate about service.

The role

Agony aunt, entertainer, cocktail shaker, match-maker, a guide to the local area, food critic, often a firm friend but sometimes a stern guardian; we recognise that the role of Bar Manager far exceeds what you'll read in a simple job description. At B&H, traditional cocktail bartending skills are certainly not the be-all and end-all; as one of the most important faces of the venue, the successful candidate will need to be high-spirited and thoroughly adaptable, navigating venue operation and close collaboration with the marketing team to promote our well-loved venue.

Key responsibilities

The Bar Manager is fully responsible and accountable for the smooth running of the bar, ensuring that all guests in our venue are being looked after and have an enjoyable drinks experience here at B&H, focusing on providing a pleasurable and professional service for all our guests.

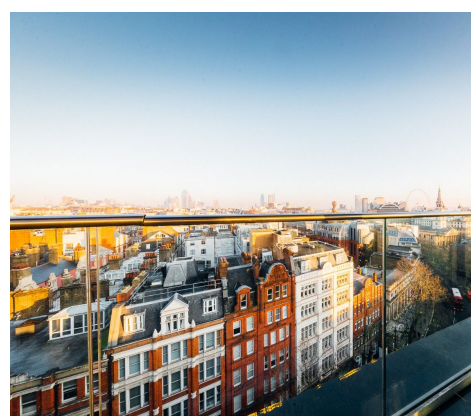

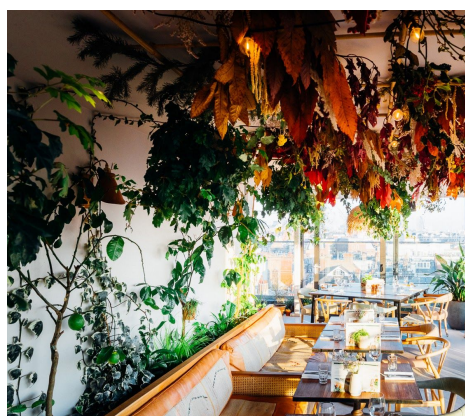

- Uphold, maintain and communicate to staff and guests the B&H Group standards.
- Responsible for all the bar staff, including but not limited to: holding regular team meetings, organising incentives, writing the rota to ensure there's adequate staffing for all shifts, training, mentoring and developing the bar team.
- Working with the reservations team on delivering and executing events
- Working to agreed staffing % and GP targets
- Creating quarterly seasonal cocktail menus.
- Responsible for opening, closing and cash ups

About Bourne & Hollingsworth

Bourne & Hollingsworth was established over 12 years ago by a group of creative and commercial entrepreneurs. We have built the business into a successful social experience provider and operator of fantastic events, bars and restaurants.

We never want to lose that entrepreneurial spirit, and this is not the job for someone looking for a “traditional” life working from 9am to 5pm. The successful appointee will be joining a family of passionate slightly eccentric, creative dreamers who have helped build a commercially successful business over the last ten years.

Our success has been driven by our intense customer and commercial focus; anyone attending our events is invited into the B&H world and is promised an outstanding experience. As a Company we are committed to go further than our competitors to exceed customer expectations but at the same time always remain profitable.

In return you can expect a strong salary package dependent on experience & ability, as well as an exceptional business performance related bonus package.

Not to mention the opportunity to grow and progress within an exciting dynamic family at B&H Group.

To apply, please send your CV and covering letter to us - we look forward to hearing from you soon!
