

Careers at Judy Courtin Legal

Legal

Our high-profile work in the rapidly evolving area of institutional abuse law has made Judy Courtin Legal an exciting and prestigious career choice for lawyers and paralegals.

Judy Courtin Legal is made up of a team of highly trained lawyers and paralegals, who are committed to social justice and in providing specialized support and advice to survivors.

Some of the benefits of working at Judy Courtin Legal include:

- > a professional development program for all staff;
- > a flexible, and supportive workplace;
- > working with highly experienced counsel;
- > mentoring and supervision; and
- > team social activities

As our team grows, we will advertise opportunities for applicants to join us on websites such as SEEK and Ethical Jobs.

Current opportunities are also advertised here.

Recruitment

Our recruitment process aims to select people with a high level of interpersonal skill, attention to detail and those who meet all of the criteria in our position descriptions.

You will be shortlisted on the basis of your responses in your covering letter to the criteria in our position description.

Should you fulfil the requirements we are looking for, we will shortlist you and invite you for an interview.

Due to high volumes, we cannot respond to every application we receive.