Why It Matters:

- Music encourages exploration of sound, songs, and instruments from various cultures
- Visual & Literary Arts cultivate self-expression, teach visual and verbal skills, and nurture empathy
- Health/Wellness promotes healthy lifestyles through exploration of nature, recreation, and food
- Entrepreneurship helps develop leadership and curiosity by connecting students to community
- Dance & Recreation supports movement, gross motor skills and positive body awareness
- STEM combines creativity and science through the investigation of engineering, nature, and chemistry

How We Support the Arts:

- 40 artists promoted through The Holiday Market
- 14 artists exhibited at Sterling College
- 19 teaching artists hired for WonderArts programs

*Free and Reduced Lunch

Our programs reached 34% of area children within these age groups

“The WonderArts after-school program at Lakeview introduces students to activities and opportunities they might not otherwise have access to. Activities such as felting, cooking, or weaving. It gives children from at-risk backgrounds a safe place to be, a place where they can learn and play.”

- Eric Erwin, principal at Lakeview Union
