What are cookies?

We may collect information using “cookies.” Cookies are small data files stored on the hard drive of your computer or mobile device by a website. Without these cookies, the services that you have asked for cannot be provided, and we only use these cookies to provide you with those services.

Functionality Cookies

These cookies allow our Site, Application(s), and Services to remember choices you make when you use our Site, Application(s), and Services, such as remembering your language preferences, remembering your login details and remembering the changes you make to other parts of our Site, Application(s), and Services which you can customize. The purpose of these cookies is to provide you with a more personal experience and to avoid you having to re-enter your preferences every time you visit our Site, Application(s), and Services.

Analytics and Performance Cookies

These cookies are used to collect information about traffic to our Site, Application(s), and Services and how users use our Site, Application(s), and Services. The information gathered does not identify any individual visitor. The information is aggregated and anonymous. You can find out more information about Google Analytics cookies here.

You can find out more about how Google protects your data here.

Targeted and advertising cookies

These cookies track your browsing habits to enable us to show advertising which is more likely to be of interest to you. These cookies use information about your browsing history to group you with other users who have similar interests. Based on that information, and with our permission, third-party advertisers can place cookies to enable them to show adverts which we think will be relevant to your interests while you are on third-party websites.

You can disable cookies which remember your browsing habits and target advertising at you by visiting http://www.youronlinechoices.com/uk/your-ad-choices. If you choose to remove targeted or advertising cookies, you will still see adverts but they may not be relevant to you. Even if you do choose to remove cookies by the companies listed at the above link, not all companies that serve online behavioral advertising are included in this list, and so you may still receive some cookies and tailored adverts from companies that are not listed.

Social Media Cookies

These cookies are used when you share information using a social media sharing button or “like” button on our Site, Application(s), or Services or you link your account or engage with our content on or through a social networking website such as Facebook, Twitter or Google+.
