

Dear Jane,

It has become clear to me that we are on different pages of the same issue and I believe we are ready to find the resolution to this story. I want us to resolve our conflict in a way that results in the least amount of stress possible. Have you ever heard about mediation?

How mediation works:

- In mediation, we would work to resolve our dispute with the assistance of a neutral mediator.
- It is affordable and confidential.
- Mediation is a legally binding alternative to going to court.
- Mediation allows creative options that are not possible through court.
- We make the final decisions about the terms of our agreement, not the mediator.

Through mediation, we can better define our issues and work with a mediator to find solutions and come to an agreement that works for us both. If you are interested in exploring this option, please let me know and we can use Mediate BC to help us find a mediator that we agree on.

For more information about the process, I invite you to visit Mediate BC's "There's Another Story" website: www.theresanotherstory.com.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

John Doe
