Want to learn more about immigration?

Families Together
a class for immigrant families

Classes begin March 17, 2020
Tuesday & Thursday • 6:00 pm - 8:30 pm. • Casa Azafran

You will learn: the basics of immigration visas and who can get them how to deal with ICE and the police your rights at school, work and home
how to choose and work with an attorney basics of citizenship and government

Graduates receive at no cost:
A power of attorney to protect your family and property
A consultation with an attorney to see if you have immigration options
A personal plan to reduce your risk of deportation

We are looking for immigrants who want to learn, grow, and share. Tennessee Justice for Our Neighbors will select 20 candidates.

This project is made possible by the Tennessee Legal Initiatives Fund & Metropolitan Government of Nashville and Davidson County.
Application/Formulario de aplicación

Name ________________________________
Nombre __________________________________

Phone ________________________________
Teléfono __________________________________

Email ________________________________
Correo electrónico _________________________

Country of origin _______________________
País de origen __________________________

Number of children _______________________
Numero de niños __________________________

I want to take this class because/Quiero tomar esta clase porque:
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________

Lleve o envíe el formulario a Tennessee Justicia Para Nuestros Vecinos
2195 Nolensville Pike, Nashville, TN. 37211 or director@tnjfon.org

Bring or send form to Tennessee Justice for Our Neighbors,
2195 Nolensville Pike, Nashville, TN. 37211 or director@tnjfon.org