Community Identity Program

Stepping Up

A CITYarts mural project in Harlem, New York

What:
CITYarts, in its 5\textsuperscript{th} year of collaboration will produce and create a mural project at the Hamilton Grange Middle School. The mural project, Stepping Up, will be painted on the school’s staircase, displaying the students’ visions and goals for success. Students will get the opportunity to have a hands-on experience in creating an artwork based on their care for their school and their aspirations for the future. During the Coronavirus, Sean Carlson is leading students remotely through virtual workshops so students can begin painting when school resumes!

Where:
Hamilton Grange Middle School,
500 W 138th St, New York, NY 10031

Who:
- Students: Hamilton Grange Middle School
- Ben Lev, Principal - HGMS
- Sean Carlson, CITYarts Artist
- Volunteers, Interns, & Staff, CITYarts
- Play Study Win

Why:
- Assist students in realizing their potential through using the visual arts
- Create stronger bonds and teamwork within the student community
- Showcase the diversity within the school, neighborhood, and the world
- Develop interpersonal, artistic, and technical skills

When:
November 2019-Fall 2020

For more information on CITYarts, our projects, and how to volunteer, please visit www.cityarts.org, or email us at tsipi@cityarts.org.