Kids for Justice Program
Walking with Justice
A CITYarts mural project at The High School for Law & Public Service, Upper Manhattan, NY

What:
CITYarts will produce and create a mural project at The High School for Law & Public Service. The project will empower the school’s youth and students to feel a sense of ownership over their school and community, especially connected to the subject of law and public service.

Where:
George Washington Educational Complex
High School for Law & Public Service
549 Audubon Ave
New York, NY 10040

Who:
- Students: HSL&PS
- TBD, CITYarts Artist
- Interns, Staff, & Volunteers, CITYarts
- Paula Lev, Principal
- Ayana Wigfall, Primary Contact/Art Teacher
- Sponsors: High School for Law & Public Service, Others to be announced

Why:
- To explore the theme of justice as it pertains to law & public service
- To create a school image for new school
- Assist students in realizing their potential through visual arts
- Encourage and empower the students to create their own identity and perceptions of justice through the creation of a mural
- Improve team work, communications, and art skills

When: March 2020 - June 2020

For more information on CITYarts, our projects, and how to volunteer, please visit www.cityarts.org, or email us at projects@cityarts.org.