

May, 2018 DRAFT

AUTO-ETHNOGRAPHIC MEMOIR : The Enloe/Mathis family moved to Minnesota from Japan for one year in August, 1988 to participate in the National Models Schools Project in Global Education. The Japan United States Teacher Education Consortium, and the Minnesota Department of Education's "Minnesota in the World, The World in Minnesota." Our original plan was to return the next year to an international school in Asia. Thirty years later...

In honor of Lance Zellman 1949-2015 and family

1988-2018 MINNESOTA IN THE WORLD, THE WORLD IN MINNESOTA

Annotated, Bulleted Chronology

- *1980- 1988 Enloe/Mathis Family, Hiroshima International School
- *1982-1983 meet John Cogan Fulbright Professor Hiroshima University from University Minnesota
- *1985 Roger Wangen Minnesota Department Education , Robert Erickson Minnesota Global Education Resource Center, Minnesota Department of Education's "Minnesota in The World: The World in Minnesota" program visits Hiroshima; invites us to Minnesota
- *1986 Global Education Center, University Minnesota, Global Education Summer Program, and Minnesota in The World, The World in Minnesota, presenter/ facilitator with David Selby, Graham Pike, World Studies Centre, University of York, with Stanford Program on International and Cross-Cultural Education (SPICE)
- *1987 Minnesota delegation to Hiroshima, including Bob Wedl, future Commissioner of Education
- *1988 Bill Gardner, Dean of Education, University of Minnesota, President American Association Colleges Teacher Education, David Imig Executive Director, sponsor JUSTEC, (Japan United States Teacher Education Consortium); invites us to University Minnesota 1988-89

- *1988 Spring Invitation, one year post doctorate, Senior Fellow, Global Education, University of Minnesota (cancel post doctoral studies at Harvard School of Education)

- *June 1988 Wilard Kneip, National Models Schools Project in Education (The American Forum, NYC), & delegation of teachers, Great Lakes Japan in The Schools Project (US Japan Foundation)- teachers from Minnesota, Illinois, Wisconsin, Ohio visit Hiroshima (I agree to co-direct the rural component of the National Models Schools Project, & acting secretary for JUSTEC)

- *August 1988 Enloe/Mathis family move to Twin Cities, University of Minnesota College of Education, Global Education Center National Models School Project Global Education (NMSPGE), Wilard Kneip, National Director, John Goodlad, National Consultant School Renewal (worked with Goodlad, Dean, UCLA with International Schools in Japan 1984-1987)

- December, 1988
 Dinner with Ruth Randall, Commissioner of Education, invitation to stay in Minnesota and continue to help “internationalize” Minnesota Schools (buy home February, 1989)

- *1989-1993 #Senior Fellow, Center Applied Research & Educational Improvement
 # NMSPGE: Redwood Falls, Brainerd, LaPorte MN, Yonkers, NY
 # Research Explorations for Teachers (REX), co-director w/ G. Gennero & S. Henderson, UM Continuing Studies
 # The Basic School Model w/ Ernest Boyer, Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching ,one of 10 pilot sites; university liaison; (cofounder Downtown Open School, Minneapolis)
 # Midwest Fulbright Teacher Exchange Program, Interview Chair
 #Japan United States Teacher Education Consortium, secretariat (international conferences University Tokyo, Columbia University, Stanford University, Hiroshima University, Ohio State University)
 Concordia Language Villages, Japan Village consultant
 1000 Crane Club Peace Project, Hiroshima

- *1992-1995 #Assistant to Director, Director Outreach, Institute International Studies (ISS) PANGEA; ISS Int Magnet Schools
 #Time Dove, Peace Programs and Calendar, Offices of Mayors Minneapolis, St. Paul, Governor.
 #World Game, Science Museum Minnesota
 # Project CREATE (Cross-Cultural Simulations; conflict resolution programs for schools)
 #United Nations Curriculum Project (CTWR)
 # Democratic Schools Project, Soros Foundation, Hungary

#Center Democracy & Citizenship, HHH Institute Public Affairs Project
Public Achievement (H. Boyte director, partner)
#Center Global Environmental Education (CGEE), Hamline University,
consultant, partner, board of advisors
#Concordia Language Villages, professional development consultant,
Accreditation Team, Strategic Planning committee
National Youth Leadership Council (academic service learning local/global)

*1995 #Assistant Professor, Hamline University
#Co-Director, CGEE, Hamline University
#Hamline Learning Communities (MAED, professional development)

SCHOOL CONSULTATIONS (school renewal, new schools);
((reform school projects listed above))

Atlanta International School
Fukuoka International School
Kyoto International School
Friends World College (Kyoto)
Oberlin College
The International School Minnesota
Downtown Open School
Crossroads School
Twin Cities International School
Cedar Riverside Community School
Hamline Hancock Collaborative (as Magnet School)
Blackhawk School
Carthage College
School Environmental Studies
WMEP West Metro Education Project, planning consultant
(Downtown Inter-district School)
EMEP East Metro Education Project (Harambee School, Arlington HS)
Crosswinds School
Valley Crossing School
Twin Cities Academy
Avalon School
New Century Academy
Urban Academy
Northfield School of Arts & Technology
Prairie Creek Community School
New City School