

URBAN DESIGNER

Chattanooga Design Studio seeks an enthusiastic, charismatic and detail-oriented designer to support its mission and help guide the Studio's design efforts. The Studio is a non-profit community resource that promotes excellence in urban design in Chattanooga through education, facilitation, and collaboration. As a steward of the city's legacy of urban design and planning, the Chattanooga Design Studio will strive to increase public awareness of urban design issues and their impact upon quality of life for everyone. With a particular emphasis on the importance of the public realm, the Studio provides high level coordination of urban design efforts to help frame a vision for the future growth of the city that promotes optimal value for the community.

About the Position:

The Urban Designer will be responsible for performing, assisting with and leading a broad array of urban design, architectural and community engagement operations in support of the projects and programs of the Studio. The urban designer will be required to perform analysis, and visual communication necessary to create urban design proposals and public realm aspirations. This position is full-time (exempt), 40-hours per week, and reports to the Executive Director. Significant communications related attributes are imperative.

Qualifications:

The ideal candidate will demonstrate critical organizational skills; and thinking in the design of the community at a variety of scales; demonstrate knowledge of principles, practices, and trends in architecture and urban design; exhibit strong written, oral and graphic communication skills; possess illustrative graphic skills in hand renderings and/or computer aided techniques; and be capable of effectively working in ethnically, and socio-economically diverse environments.

Required Education and Experience:

The minimum requirements for the position are a bachelor's Degree in architecture, landscape architecture, or planning from an accredited college or university. Excelling in communication, organization, design process and thought, as well as analytical, time management, and project management skills.

Candidates should also exhibit:

- Demonstrated knowledge of urban design principles and practices;
- Ability to communicate effectively, by drawing;
- Ability to communicate effectively, by orally and in writing;
- Ability to plan independently, organize, and coordinate work and activities with others;
- Ability to work collaboratively and effectively within an open office and diverse workforce.

Compensation:

Commensurate with experience.

Application and Deadline:

To apply, send cover letter, resume, and portfolio to: info@chattanoogastudio.com .
Deadline for application: 5:00 pm (EDT) on Friday, March 24, 2023
For more information about Chattanooga Design Studio visit: chattanoogastudio.com.

All qualified applicants will receive equal consideration for employment and will not be discriminated against on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, pregnancy, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity, age, physical or mental disability, or protected veteran status.