HELPING OUR NEIGHBORS

During this time of isolation, fear, and uncertainty, we must not forget our Christian duty to the most vulnerable around us. A phone call to an elderly neighbor, an offer to grab a few necessities for the single parent you know, or a card of gratitude to the nurse or emergency responder on your street are just a few gestures to show compassion with minimum risk.

If you or someone you know needs assistance, please email our office at office@sjcissaquah.org or call our office at (425) 392-5516.

If you would like to volunteer to assist a parishioner in need, please email us at dstevenson@sjcissaquah.org or call our office at (425) 392-5516.

RESOURCES BEYOND ST. JOSEPH’S

We want to provide you with resources that are faithful to the Magisterium. Check out these links that are loyal to the teachings of the Church.

Visit: Messages from Archbishop Etienne

Welcome to my blog, and thanks for visiting! I became the Archbishop of Seattle on September 3, 2019 after serving as Coadjutor Archbishop of Seattle from June 7, 2019.

Prior to that, I served 2 and a half years as Archbishop of Anchorage, 7 years as the Bishop of Cheyenne and many more as a priest of the Archdiocese of Indianapolis.

Preaching is a priority for my episcopal ministry, and this blog is my humble effort to engage the New Evangelization and to serve you, God’s holy, faithful people! Enjoy your visit, and together, may we grow in truth and love.

Archbishop Etienne is conducting a survey

All practicing lay Catholics in the Archdiocese are invited to complete an online survey that seeks to better understand the experiences, beliefs, needs, desires and faith trajectories of Catholics across western Washington.

To here a message about the survey go to: Catholic Survey 2020

Prayer from Archbishop Etienne

Holy Mary, we come before you as spiritual Children in great need, seeking your intercession, and asking that your mantle of love surround us to console, protect and lead us to your son Jesus.

We entrust all of God’s family, especially the church in Western Washington, into your immaculate hands. With your son Jesus’ gentle power, you can undo any knot in our church, and in the lives of believers who entrust themselves to your care.

Today I especially entrust to you (Mention request/ Coronavirus here), and I ask that – through your intercession, and that of St. James, our guardian angles, and the faithful in our archdiocese – we may be free from every spiritual and temporal ill, and be safely led to encounter your son’s merciful, sacred heart.

Our Lady of Seattle, Undoer of Knots, pray for us!

WHAT SHOULD WE DO WITH OUR RICE BOWL?

• Donate through our Parish’s Online Donation Portal
• Donate directly through the Archdiocese of Seattle
• Donate directly through Catholic Relief Services
• Mail a check of your family’s donation to our parish office, please include a notation “Rice Bowl”. St. Joseph Catholic Church, P.O. Box 200, Issaquah, WA 98027

For families who are unable to make their donation through distanced giving, Rice Bowls can be returned in person when we are no longer physically restricted from gathering for Mass.

“We are on the same boat, all of us fragile and disoriented, but at the same time important and needed . . . each of us in need of comforting the other”

• Pope Francis, March 28 Urbi et Orbi blessing

In these difficult times it is vital that we take Pope Francis’ words to heart, both for our own spiritual nourishment and the protection of one another. Participation in the CRS Rice Bowl is one way we can come together, despite our physical separation, in quiet, powerful service. Here are some suggestions as to how we can participate safely from home and still “turn in” our Rice Bowl almsgiving:
